

[For the Deseret News.]

Have You Enemies?

Kill them. What! Yes, kill them. How—with the bowie knife and revolver? No, for then they would not be dead. They would only be removed to a sphere where they could probably do you infinitely more harm than they can here. But kill in such a way, that, while you destroy an enemy, you make a friend.

Let your weapons be truth and love. Show them that you are actuated by nobler principles than those of malice and revenge. While you let them know that you are perfectly aware of their enmity towards you, and their efforts to injure you—yet always return good for their evil, and meet them in that true spirit of kindness and forbearance which is as far from meanness and cowardice on the one hand; as it is from hypocrisy or affection on the other. Such a course will eventually soften the feelings of the most obdurate heart, except such as are devoid of the least spark of generosity or nobility of soul. At all events, if this will not effect a change in them nothing else will.

There may be instances where self-preservation requires the immediate destruction of an enemy, just as you would crush the reptile that was about to fix its deadly fangs in your blood. But nothing tends more to exalt and ennoble our own minds than the forgiveness of injuries—and nothing can give us such an ascendancy over the minds of others, as to treat them with noble generosity when they are conscious that they have wronged us.

SIRIUS.

THE SWORD OF THE SPIRIT.—The Scriptures are called "the Sword of the Spirit," because they derive all their power from the Spirit. In themselves they are like a sword sheathed and lying upon the ground; they are a dead letter; they convey no spiritual light; they impart no spiritual energy; they carry with them neither conviction nor consolation; whether read or preached, they are equally without effect.

Paul was convinced with the Scriptures before his conversion; but could not see in them that Jesus was the Christ; nor could he learn from them the temper and the disposition of a child of God.—[Simeon.]

QUAKER JOKING.—Not long ago, a bridegroom, returning from his wedding, was met by a friend, who thus addressed him:

"Well, Jack, I'm glad to see thee in thy happy position; thou'st seen the end of thy trouble now." "Thank thee, lad," was Jack's answer; "I hope I have."

About a month afterwards the two friends again met, when Jack speaking rather warmly, exclaimed: "Bill, thou told me a lie that morning I got wed! Didn't thou say I'd seen the end of my trouble?" "I did," said Bill, "but I didn't tell thee which end."

LAS MARIPOSAS.—The Philadelphia Press, says that Fernando Wood, Mayor of New York, together with his brother Ben, the lottery broker, are joint owners, with Fremont, of the gold mines of the latter in this State.

The story is, that just after the defeat of Fremont in the Presidential campaign of 1856, he obtained an advance from the Woods of some 60,000 or 70,000, with which to prosecute his claims through the Courts. For this advance Fremont made over to the lenders one-half of all his claims.

YOUNG AMERICANISM OUTDONE.—When Lord Carhampton was Commander in Chief in Ireland he was challenged by his father, but refused to fight him, not because he was his father, but because he was no gentleman.

SIXTH ANNUAL ANNOUNCEMENT:

FROM all sections of the country subscribers to this popular Art Institution (now in its sixth year) are being received in a ratio unparalleled with that of any previous year.

Any person can become a member by subscribing $3 which will entitle him to

1st,—The beautiful Steel Engraving, “Shakespeare and His Friends.”

2d,—A Copy of the elegantly illustrated Art Journal, on year.

3d,—A Free Season Admission to the Galleries, 548 Broadway, New York.

In addition to which several hundred valuable Works of Art are given to subscribers as premiums, comprising choice paintings, sculptures, outlines, &c., by the first American and foreign artists.

The superb Engraving, which every subscriber will receive immediately on receipt of subscription, entitled is of a character to give unequalled pleasure and satisfaction. No work of equal value was ever before placed within reach of the people at such a price. The engraving is of very large size, being printed on heavy plate paper, 30 by 38 inches, making a most superb ornament suitable for the walls of either the library, parlor, or office.

It can be sent to any part of the country, by mail, with safety, being packed in a cylinder, postage pre-paid. Think of it! Such a work, delivered free of charge, and the Art Journal, one year, for three dollars!

Subscriptions will be received until the evening of Tuesday the 31st of January, 1860, at which time the books will close and the premiums be given to subscribers.

No person is restricted to a single subscription. Those remitting $15 are entitled to six memberships.

Subscriptions from California, the Canadas, and all foreign provinces, must be $3.50 instead of $3, in order to defray extra postages, &c.

Persons wishing to form clubs will apply for a circular of terms, &c.

The beautifully illustrated Art Journal, giving full particulars, will be sent on receipt of 18 cents, in stamps or coin.

Address C. L. Derby, actuary C. A. A., 546 and 548 Broadway, New York.

Subscriptions also received by W. G. MILLS, Hon. Sec. for Great Salt Lake City and vicinity.
