THE MONEYLESS MAN.

Is there no secret place on the face of the earth
Where charity dwelleth, where virtue hath birth?
Where bosoms in mercy and kindness will heave,
And the poor and the wretched shall "ask and receive?"
Is there no place on earth where a knock from the poor
Will bring a kind angel to open the door?
Ah! search the wide world wherever you can,
There is no open door for a moneyless man.

Go look in yon hall, where the chandelier's light
Drives off with its splendor the darkness of night!
Where the rich hanging velvet, in shadowy fold,
Sweeps gracefully down with its trimming of gold,
And the mirrors of silver take up and renew,
In long lighted vistas, the wandering view—
Go there in your patches, and find, if you can,
A welcoming smile for a moneyless man.

Go look in yon church of the cloud-reaching spire,
Which gives back to the sun his same look of red fire;
Where the arches and columns are gorgeous within,
And the walls seem as pure as a soul without sin;
Go down the long aisle—see the rich and the great,
In the pomp and the pride of their worldly estate—
Walk down in your patches, and find if you can,
Who opens a pew to a moneyless man!

Go look to yon judge in his dark-flowing gown,
With the scales wherein law weigheth equity down,
Where he frowns on the weak, and smiles on the strong,
And punishes right, while he justifies wrong;
Where jurors their lips on the Bible have laid,
To render a verdict they've already made—
Go there in the court-room, and find, if you can,
Any law for the cause of a moneyless man!

Go look in the banks, where Mammon has told
His hundreds and thousands of silver and gold
Where, safe from the hands of the starving and poor,
Lies pile upon pile of the glittering ore;
Walk up to the counter—ah, there you may stay,
Till your limbs grow old and your hair turns grey,
And you'll find at the banks no one of the clan
With money to lend to a moneyless man.

Then go to your hovel; no raven has fed
The wife who has suffered too long for her bread:
Kneel down by her pallet, and kiss the death frost
From the lips of the angel your poverty lost;
Then turn in your agony upward to God,
And bless, while it smites you, the chastening rod;
And you'll find at the end of your life's little span,
There's a welcome above for a moneyless man!

CONGRESSIONAL.

Washington.—Bingham concluded his argument at about three o'clock, when the applause, loud and continued, arose from the galleries. The Chief Justice, after a futile attempt to restore silence; ordered the galleries to be cleared.

GENERAL.

San Francisco, 8.—An explosion of gas, in a street cistern, last night, seriously injured six men, none fatally. A mob of eight-hour men, armed with clubs, have prevented laborers in several parts of the city from working over time for two days past.

San Francisco, 9.—At the fire, in Post and Jones Streets last night, a frame house fell on six firemen who escaped with their lives, but were severely burned. During the alarm a little boy was run over by a fire engine and killed.

There have been no further labor disturbances; the contractors have resolved to pay by the hour, one dollar and sixty cents in gold for eight hours, and two dollars for ten hours for day laborers.

The Pacific Mail Company have withdrawn their men from Brook's Island, and it will probably be abandoned as a coaling station.

Albany, 8.—The jury in the Cole and Hiscock case came in yesterday and reported that they could not agree, when they were discharged. They stood, from first to last, six for acquittal and six for conviction.

New York, 8.—The Sun's special says that Senator Fessenden indicated today, that he would probably vote for the second article, and expressly stated, without any reserve, that his written opinion was only adverse to the first article, as he considered that the President has power, under the Constitution, to make removals but not to fill such vacancies while the Senate is in session.

St. Louis, 10.—The corporators of the South-West Pacific met yesterday. After the requisite amounts had been subscribed, a board of directors was elected and it was decided that books for subscription to the stock be opened immediately in this city and New York.

The Indians have been committing serious depredations along the line of the Kansas and Pacific road. Two companies of cavalry have been sent in pursuit of the marauders.

New York, 10.—Weston, the pedestrian, has been backed for a five thousand mile walk, from Bangor, Me., to St. Paul, Minn., and back again to Buffalo. The wager is for $25,000. The walk is to be made in 100 days, including Sundays; but Weston is not to walk on Sundays. Weston will leave Bangor about the 18th of August. He must walk 100 miles in every 23 consecutive hours during the trip.

The Herald's special says that a project is on foot for the removal of Johnson and to arrest and try General Lee for treason and murder. It is expected that Grant will resent such a violation of the terms of parole as a personal insult. The arrest is to be backed by Wade and other Republicans to defeat Grant's chance for the Presidency. The plot is supposed to have been concocted by Butler and Stevens.

Chicago, 10.—The Republican's Washington special states that the feeling has become quite strong that the President will send in his resignation tomorrow. Gen. Grant has stated, that from what he knew, the President intended to evade conviction by resigning at the last moment.

Washington, 10.—What the result of the impeachment trial will be is mere speculation. The Senators still preserve a studied silence as to how they will vote upon the question. The friends and opponents of conviction, outside of the Senate, are alternately depressed and elated. Bets continue to be made.

FOREIGN.

San Francisco.—The Honolulu correspondence to the Bulletin gives details of the volcanic disturbances, showing that the earthquake shocks extended to all the islands of the Hawaiian group, but no damage was known except around Mauna Loa. Numerous extensive land slides accompanied the other phenomena, destroying life and property. The summit and side of a hill fifteen hundred feet high were thrown a thousand feet over the tops of the trees, and were landed in a valley below; while the gasses that issued, afterwards destroyed vegetable and animal life. Bottomless fissures were opened in the mountain sides. One lava stream flows underground, breaking out in four jets, six miles from the sea, and throwing lava and stones 1,000 or 1,500 feet high. The new island thrown up, is 400 hundred feet high, and is now joined to the main land by a stream of lava a mile wide. A large stream of water has burst from the mountain where the earth eruption occurred. At least half a million dollars' worth of property has been destroyed. The King of the Sandwich Islands had issued a proclamation for the relief of the sufferers. Many visitors had gone from Honolulu, and will go to San Francisco. The worst is thought to be over, but the lava flow continues to be a grand spectacle.

London, 5.—France has suddenly broken off diplomatic relations with Tunis, for alleged repeated outrages upon French residents in that country.

It is authoritatively denied that the French Ambassador at St. Petersburg has had a consultation with Gortschakoff relative to the eastern question.

Havana.—Passengers from Vera Cruz on the 2d, stated that before sailing a telegram had been received from Mexico announcing that a revolution had taken place in the capital, and that President Juarez was fleeing to the Texas frontier with $7,000,000 in his possession. Mr. Plumb, acting American Minister, had presented a document from the government at Washington, expressing regret and sympathy in the matter of the attempted assassination of Juarez, who had responded in an address, thanking the Minister and the American Government and expressing a wish to preserve always amicable relations between the two Republics.

The attempted conspiracy at Orizaba had been defeated. The collectors of customs throughout the Republic had been enjoined to pay all drafts on the National Treasury. The death penalty had been abolished. Advices from Colima state that the priest who had commanded the party of bandits at Fulmoa had been captured. Gen. Bazard has defeated Negrete.

Berlin, 7.—The North German Diet, by a decided vote, has rejected the address of the party of National Unity.

Munich, 7.—It is reported that Minister Bancroft is urging Bavaria to adopt the recent German treaty with America.

Dublin, 8.—Nagle and other prisoners have been released from confinement on their own pledges to the authorities.

London.—The Times has official advices from Abyssinia to April 21st. Napier expected to start with the entire army for the Red Sea about May 25th. The city of Magdala had been burned by the British.

Dublin.—The case of George Francis Train was before the Bankruptcy Court to-day. In reply to a question Train said that he had no property himself, and had no control over that pertaining to his wife. He was re-committed for further examination.

London, 9.—An official dispatch from Tallanto, says that over thirty guns and mortars were destroyed at Magdala. The forts were blown up and every building in the town burnt on the 17th. The King's widow and son were protected to the Tigre country. The army left Magdala on the 18th and hoped to reach Zonla by the end of May. The wounded were all doing well. A Magdala correspondent says the King was buried at Magdala; that the young Prince Theodore goes to England, and Gobazic is to be crowned King. The army will leave for home in two days.

New York, 9th.—The Herald's special advices, dated respectively on the 10th, 11th and 18th Apr., which have been delayed two weeks on the route, have just come to hand. They give a graphic picture of the fight on the 10th. When the English came in view Theodore's army were in grand array. The fight opened with the mortars. Soon after 350 Abyssinians, with shouts and songs, dashed down the hill and charged the British batteries, but were repulsed, leaving seven killed on the field, including two chiefs. The King sent a flag of truce to Napier asking for peace; Napier said his terms were unconditional surrender, to which the King replied that he would never accept such arbitrary terms and would rather fight; but asked Napier to take the English prisoners and go away. All the prisoners were then released, but the King refused to surrender himself and Magdala was stormed by the troops. The King tried to commit suicide three times. The advices say that 3,000 native prisoners were killed on the 9th of April.

London, 10.—The alibi claimed by John Bright and others in the case of Barrett, one of the Clerkenwell conspirators, has been disproved; he will be executed. Nugent and O'Connor, of the Jacmil Packet prisoners, are not released; they will be tried soon. The betrothal of the Princess Louise to the crown Prince of Denmark is denied.

London.—Henry Lord Brougham, Ex-Lord Chancellor of England is dead; he was in his 90th year. He died at Cannes, in France. He died easily. He fell into a pleasant stupor, from which he never recovered.

Vienna, 10.—Telegrams, received yesterday, state that the persecution of the Jews in Jasey, Bakaen, and other places in Moldavia has been stopped by the authorities. Those Jews who were compelled to flee from their homes have been allowed to return. Assassins and desecrators of the graves of Jews, and others who have perpetrated outrages, almost with impunity for a long time will hereafter be vigorously punished.

Berlin, 10.—Bancroft starts tomorrow for Baden and Wurtemberg; his object is to meet the Representatives of those countries to negotiate for the extension of the provisions of the nationality treaty recently concluded between North Germany and the United States to Baden and Wurtemberg.

London, 10.—The case of Barrett, the convicted Fenian, awakens considerable interest. On petition, the prisoner has been reprieved for a week. Further government inquiry will be made.

SABBATH MEETINGS.—The meetings yesterday were held in the New Tabernacle. Elder Brigham Young, Junr., spoke on the dealings of God with the children of men, and encouraged the Saints to increased diligence, faithfulness and righteousness.

Bishop E. D. Woolley referred to the growth of the people in faith and good works; treated on the Word of Wisdom and the reasons we have to serve the Lord with full purpose of heart.

Afternoon:
Elder Haden W. Church said some few years ago he had been called to go on a mission, to settle in the south of the Territory, which he had labored to fulfill with all the ability and power he had. Now, being called to go on a mission to preach the gospel, he felt to go having faith in God that His blessings would be with him.

Bishop R. T. Burton spoke briefly upon obedience and advancement in truth.

Elder Joseph Glossop bore his testimony to the truth of the Gospel.

Pres. B. Young instructed the congregation on various points. He referred to the ignorance that exists in the world concerning God, His purposes, and the future, and the blessings that are bestowed upon the children of men; and the vast amount of infidelity that is to be found among them. Calling attention to the professed belief, but practical infidelity that exists in the world, he pointed out the slight testimony on which faith is entertained in the Bible and the things recorded in it, and the mass of testimony supporting the Book of Mormon and the Latter-day work. The world reject the truth, and they will not give honor to God for the knowledge He bestows upon them, in science and art, and in the various ways in which the inventive spirit of the age is manifested. The Saints are increasing in faith and good works, even if they be lacking in secular knowledge in some things. And there is before them much in which to improve, that they may prolong their existence upon the earth, and do good while they do live. The injunction is, "prepare to live;" to live to-day so that we can live tomorrow; and live so as to gain eternal life.

CAUGHT.—"Irish Bill," who was recently sentenced to give 100 days of his valuable time in laboring for the city, had pity taken on him by Councillor Groo who hired him out, and gave him a greater degree of liberty than nights of the ball and chain are apt to enjoy. Not appreciating the sympathy thus displayed, on Saturday night he stole a pair of blankets from the City Hall and "made tracks." His "tracks" were found, though, and he is again in custody. Don't take his jewelry from him till his time is out.
