The Penitentiary Plans.

Word has been received in this city that the plans of the Pauly Jail Manufacturing and Building Company, of St. Louis, for a new Utah penitentlary, have been accepted by the Department. Bids on these plans will be opened August 22.

Changed Hands.

Wm. Wood, late proprietor of the Wasatch Meat Market, wishes to an nounce to his many friends and customers that he has soid his entire business to Haslam Bres., of this city, and retired to the live stock and rancaing business. He thinks his many customers for their past patronage and trusts that all will further continue to deal at the market, as Mr. R. H. Haslam, of Hasiam Bres., assisted by Joseph Wood (who has had management of the shop for some time) will continue to pay the strictest attention to the regular customers' orders and will guarantee satisfaction to all who call on them. The change is to take grandchildren and a host of friends to effect August 1, 1878. See advertisement in to-day's issue.

The fire alarm was sounded at about 3:3) yesterday afternoon, the cause being the burning of a load of hay in the street near the Fourta Ward school. house. As it reached that point, the wagon broke dows, and the driver went off for assistance. When he returned the hay was on fire. It is supposed some boys with matches sect it afire. The hay was a total loss, and the wagon was burned somewhat. A second alarm occurred before the ilremen returned, and this time it proved to be from the Salt Lake Brewery, the ice house connected with which had been discovered in flames. As all the apparates was la operation on the load of hay, nothing could be done but watch and walt for the firemen. The boys heard the alarm, and from their position were able to see the location of the new fire, and as soon as possible, went there. Bafore they arrived, however, the building was burned to the ground and a considerable quantity of ice nad gone with it. The loss will probably foot up

$1,500, mostly insured. .

Arrested at Union.

Yesterday afternoon two of Marshal Dyer's minions made a raid on Union. Silt Lage County. They arrested John Oburn, of that place, and brought him before Commissioner Norrell, where he was arraigned and pleaded guilty to a charge of unlawful cohabitation. He was placed under $1,000 bonds to swait the action of the grand jury in September next. Hyrum Smith and attractively billed about the and L. E. Forbush were screties.
