ANYTHING TO BEAT THE "MORMONS."

The Methodist of this Territory are not quite so rampant on the "Mormon" question as of yore. At their recent conference in this city their resolutions and reports were more moderate in language than at some previous gatherings of a similar character. They have learned, no doubt, that such verbal intemperance as used to be indulged in by Methodist ministers when attacking "Mormonism" does not look well in print and is not likely to produce abroad such an effect as mild discussion and a less rancorous spirit.

The report of the committee on the state of affairs in Utah at the late conference contains strong anti-"Mormon" utterances, but vituperation and scurrility are avoided; which is a commendable improvement. The importance of making the assault on "Mormonism" the chief object of Methodist missionary work, however, is kept sharply in view, and every force capable of being utilized to this end is directed and commended. For instance, here is a section from the report:

"2. There is a wave of outside civilization which moved by an unseen yet irresistible impulse, is sweeping over the whole of this Territory, and which will bring with it the leaves of Christianity, and is all opposed to the one great overshadowing obstacle."

The "one great overshadowing obstacle" is "Mormonism." To overcome that, these Methodist ministers in conference assembled with "light even an 'un-Christian impulse,' and they congratulate their fellow missionaries on its advent, because it 'all opposed' to a religion from which they differ, a system of faith which they cannot break down by the strength of their own."

A Christian debating society would find it an interesting question for controversy, to determine now an "un-Christian wave" could carry with it

"the leaves of Christianity," and how much of that wave can be found in a liquor-drinking, reckless, adulterous, mammon-worshipping, profane and godless mass of modern civilization, opposed to Biblical principles and institutions.

The Christianity of Christ was exclusive in its character. "He that is not for me is against me," he said, "and he that gathereth not with me scattereth abroad." And further: "Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the leaven of the Sadducees." The Pharisees and Sadducees, these Pharisees of Christianity, which these gentlemen have imbued, welcome any kind of leaven and any sort of impulse, however unchristian it may be, if it only opposes a creed and a system which they desire to destroy.

It is not strange that a body professing "Christianity," and they too claiming to have authority to preach and administer in the Christian religion, prefer an unchristian element to one that in all its essential particles is in perfect harmony with that which Christ taught. The doctrine of "Mormonism" are Bible doctrines. The articles of the "Mormon" faith are those of the New Testament. The "Mormon" Savior is Jesus of Nazareth; their God is the God of Abraham, of Isaac and of Jacob; their ordinances are those prescribed in Holy writ; their hopes for eternity are Christian hopes, and their confidence in them is founded on the promises revealed through holy men who "spoke as they were moved by the Holy Ghost." And yet men claiming to be Bible believers and teachers, congratulate one another on the influx of an element "much of it unchristian," hoping it will help them in overcoming an eminently Biblical element.

If there is anything in Methodism which can be fairly supported by the Bible, it will be found in "Mormonism." If there is anything in Methodism which will stand the test of sound logic and Christian precept, it is embodied in "Mormonism." If there are any who are radically different because the latter lacks the irrational and unscriptural tenets and spirit of the former, and repudiates its untenable claim to authority to administer in the name of Deity, but "Mormonism" does not oppose them. It is not a force. It does not welcome infidelity as a weapon against Methodism. It would not invoke the law, nor countenance violence, nor wink at or encourage any unchristian "wave" or element to overwhelm Methodism. In these respects it is essentially different from its aggressive antagonist.

Messrs. George E. Jayne, John Hansen and D. T. Hedges, who make this report, have manifested the real animosity of their class. "Anything to beat Grant," was once the cry of a certain sort of politicians. Meeting to beat the Mormons, "is now the cry of this kind of sort of preachers. We are sorry for them. Sorry for their blindness and error, sorry for their willingness to fraternize with unchristian persons in a vain and futile war against true Christian principles. We are sorry for them. We hope they will live to see their own folly and to regret their unchristian utterances, their bigotry and inconsistency, and to sense the fact that they have been instrumental in doing against what they call "Mormonism," has had no more effect to destroy it than the croakings of the frogs in the slimy mud-puddles have upon the mighty, sun-crowned Wasatch Mountains.

THE EXCURSION TOMORROW.

This annual folk's excursion takes place tomorrow. Lehi is its objective point and Bishop Cutler and the good people of that town are making ample preparations to give the veteran company a royal welcome. This is greatly to their credit and is a relief to the old folk's committee, who have worked like beavers to make the excursion the success it is sure to be. Their calls upon the merchants here for contributions to defray the expenses incurred have met with a generous response, which is duly appreciated.

This annual trip to the aged has come to be a fixed institution, and is looked forward to from year to year by those for whose benefit it was inaugurated and is conducted, with eager and pleasurable anticipation and everybody says "God bless them" and is glad that this special feature of their lives' journey has been instituted. All classes of the community have contributed toward the expenses of the excursion, and the aged of every shade of religious and other opinion are among the beneficiaries. This is eminently proper, the affair being a manifestation of respect for and interest in the aged, and the community aside from any sectional consideration.

We predict for the excursionists a joy time that will cause the participants to come out who survive another year, to look forward with glowing expectancy to the annual "out" of the summer of 1889.

THEY KEEP AT IT.

The word-twisters keep on manufacturing political prognostications out of ingenious arrangements of names of States. Either Democracy is favorable to the war, or the situation is favorable to the Democracy. At any rate the supporters of the St. Louis platform and lick seem to run most in this line. THE "AMERICAN" PARTY.

This American party which made a sudden start into brief notoriety some time ago, is to make another effort during the presidential campaign. It has some following in New York and more perhaps on the Pacific Coast. It is not certain whether its advocates will put up a candidate of their own, but it is clear that they will not support the Republican party, though they were chiefly members of that party before striking out under another name.

Frank Pixley of the San Francisco Argonaut is one of the leaders of the American party, and he declares emphatically against the Republicans. He was once an enthusiastic Blaine man, but he now accuses the Plumed Knight of an alliance with the Roman Catholics. He says the last convention was dominated by the Roman Catholic influence, and he has come into the American party, which is based on its opposition to Catholic or other foreign influences in American politics. He declares that it is the duty of all true Americans to break up the Republican party as the first necessary step in the fight against the Catholic influence, as the Republican party had to smash the Whigs before Lincoln and the abolition of African slavery were possible. It is the evident purpose of the American party, of the coast at least, to defeat the Republican nominee.

CURRENT TOPICS IN EUROPE.

Effects of the Emperor's Death—Political Matters—Fears of War—Working Woman's League—Current Gossip.

"Europe, now that the Emperor Frederick has been laid to rest, finds itself in the presence of a most perplexing problem. Everywhere there is an instinctive feeling that the fall of the sceptre of Berlin has made an important change in the situation previously existing. The proclamations in which William II. has announced his assumption of supreme authority give color to the interpretation which has been placed on the doing and sayings of his less responsible days. They may have been but for all that they breathe an undisciplined spirit of medieval militarism. The painful avidity with which the proclamation have been scanned and scrutinized beyond the borders of Germany, is evidence of the morbid tension of feeling that exists. These words of the Emperor, which have been so eagerly and so anxiously scrutinized, are in reality a change of rulers which will have a profound effect on the German Empire. The German Empire is indeed a potent factor in the European situation, and the death of the Emperor has recalled the memories of the disasters of 1870. It was Leopold who asked pardon of the Emperor Napoleon III. for the invasion of Belgium, and it was he who, in an instance of French statesmanship, in view of the establishment of the German Empire, is significant, and indicates an
