LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THERMOMETER 74 degrees F. in the shade, at 1 p.m. to-day. Fine day.

APPOINTMENTS.—Elder G. G. Bywater will preach in the Sixteenth and W. A. McMaster in the Fifth and Sixth Wards to-morrow evening. L. D. YOUNG.

THEATRE.—Miss Walters had a flattering house last night, on the occasion of her farewell benefit. The audience were uproariously enthusiastic in applauding, many times during the progress of the performance. "Three Fast Young Men" is a play that gives room for much "business" and lively acting. The best things last night were the clog dancing of the Perry Brothers, and the Chinese laundry scene by Messrs. Reamer and Sutton.

This evening, the last of the season, the same play will be repeated. It is capable of being made a brilliant performance.

TOOK THE WRONG BUNDLE.—Henry Simmons, of Lehi, writes that he was one of the singers at Conference, and that he took, from the Tithing Office, by mistake, a white sack, containing a linen coat, shirt, comforter and other articles, and left his own white sack, linen coat, shirt, &c., and is desirous of re-exchanging with the party who has his. If this meets the eye of that party, he will understand all about it.

DILAPIDATED BRIDGE.—The bridge across the main ditch, in Chestnut St., just south of the city wall, is in a very dilapidated condition, and as many teams cross it during the day, there is danger of a mishap at any time, no matter how careful the teamster may be. If the gentleman whose business it is to attend to matters of this kind would see to this and have it speedily repaired he would do the public a service. The bad state of the bridge has been the cause of two accidents already.

THIRTEENTH WARD.—Elder Joseph F. Smith is expected to preach in the 13th Ward Assembly Rooms, to-morrow evening.

IMPROVING.—Mr. Fred. May, butcher, who was severely injured in the head several weeks since, and who suffered a powerful relapse from the effects of the wounds he received, is now so far recovered as to be able to get about again a little.

LINDSEY'S GARDENS.—Mark Lindsey announces, through our special notice column, that his gardens are now open for pleasure seekers. As is usual during the warm season many of the citizens, young, old, and middle aged, will probably seek this pleasant resort, where they can spend a few hours in agreeable recreation and amusement, and in discussing the good things Mark provides for his visitors in the shape of ice cream, cooling beverages, fruits, candies, &c. It is a good place for gala days for school children.

POLICE COURT.—There was a civil suit in this court this morning, brought by Mrs. P. Doran against Dr. W. O. Buckland, being the amount of a board bill. As an off-set the Doctor brought a bill of $52, for professional services, against the complainant. The board bill was all right, not being disputed by Dr. Buckland, but there was a very strong protest from Mrs. Doran against that professional bill. Further hearing of the case was postponed till next Thursday at 11 o'clock.

S. L. LIBRARY COMMITTEE.—The Sunday School Library Committee are requested to meet in the 13th Ward Assembly to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock.

GODEY'S LADIES' BOOK for May, and to-day's number of HEARTH and HOME for sale at Dwyer's.

A POST OFFICE DEFAULTER CAUGHT.—A man named Rufus King, alias Seth R. Jones, formerly postmaster of Silver City, Idaho, and who is alleged to be a defaulter to the tune of about $7,000, was captured, at Ogden, yesterday, by Marshal W. N. Fife, and brought to this city. Here is an account of his arrest, &c., from the Junction, of yesterday:

"Last evening Mr. J. Hall, postmaster of this city, received a dispatch from Colonel Wickiser, special mail agent, to take measures for the detention of one Rufus King, alias Seth R. Jones, concerned in some transactions which the United States objected to. Colonel Wickiser came up himself on the U. C. train and engaged the assistance of Marshal Fife, but could not give a sufficient description of the man wanted to secure his identification. This morning the marshal received the description by telegraph, as follows:

'Rufus King, alias Seth R. Jones, is about fifty years old, large man, and fleshy, weighs two hundred pounds, very florid complexion, smooth shaved.'

"Marshal Fife was immediately on the alert, and, stepping into Low's news store near the depot, he saw a respectable-looking person buying a paper, whom he felt sure was his man. He went straight to him and said, "You are my prisoner; your name is Rufus King." The man replied, tremblingly, "You are mistaken, my name is McGuffey." The Marshal was satisfied he had "struck ile," and told his man not to touch his pistol, but to hold up his hands. He surrendered, and the Marshal took his prisoner to the city jail, where he examined him, and took from him the following property: Post office orders on different offices in Iowa, Wisconsin and Illinois, for $1,050; a fine gold watch and chain; a buckskin purse containing some small coins and a bar of silver; money purse containing $3.50 coin and $42.35 currency; a new revolver, some letters, etc."

King was in this city a short time since, when he presented a money order on the Salt Lake office, for $150, payable to Seth R. Jones. The clerk, however, refused to cash the order, unless Jones should be identified. King then bought a quantity of goods from a merchant in this city, for which he paid the P. O. order, endorsed "Seth R. Jones," and which was presented and cashed.

Meanwhile Col. Wickiser received intimation from Washington that there was a suspicion of something being wrong at the Silver City P. O., and that gentleman authorized the Boise City P. M. to visit Silver City P. O. and investigate, when large defalcations were discovered.

It is alleged that King has been doing a big business in making out post office orders on various offices, payable to himself, under numerous aliases. Fortunately he was cleverly captured at Ogden, by Marshal Fife, an i was thus prevented from carrying on his nefarious business eastward of this point. He was brought to town last evening and lodged in the city jail.

King was brought before Judge Emerson, for examination, at 10 o'clock this morning. The investigation was postponed, however, till a week from to-day, to give time for witnesses to arrive from Idaho. Meanwhile the prisoner in default of finding $10,000 bonds was committed to the custody of the U. S. Marshal.

DIED.

In the 7th Ward of this city, April 18th, of teething and congestion of the brain, LUCY MAY, daughter of William H. and Hilda N. Foster, born March 18, 1872.

Funeral services to-morrow, 20th inst., at 11 a.m., at residence of parents.

Friends are invited to attend.

At Farmington, April 15, 1873, in her 27th year, of liver complaint, JANE, wife of Orin Roberts, and daughter of Sophia and Wm. Jones, late of Denbighshire, North Wales.

She leaves a good and kind husband and four small children to mourn her loss.—Welsh papers and Millennial Star, please copy.—COM.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞ ACCOMMODATIONS for picnic parties, at Lindsey's gardens.

☞ FROM the Central Baptist, St. Louis: "A few days since a friend handed us a few packages Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder, with a request to 'try it.' We tried it and found it superb. We gave small packages to a few friends, and they all came back to us for more. As we were not prepared, however, to abandon the conduct of the Central to go into the Baking Powder business, we were obliged to turn them away disappointed. For their gratification, and that of the general public, we will say that this inimitable Powder can be had at most of the leading grocers in this city, and at wholesale of Steele & Price, Chicago and St. Louis.

☞ ATTENTION is directed to the advertisements in to-day's paper of Mr. C. W. Stayner. He represents the superb Estey Organs, which are unrivalled. He is also agent for the Victor Sewing Machine, which is becoming quite popular, and may be called a general favorite among the ladies. It is strictly a first-class machine. Call and examine. d126 1t

☞ FOR SALE. One hundred and twenty Missouri Mules, to arrive Friday, April 11th by WASHBURNE & LEHY, California Corral, 2nd South Street. d126 1t

☞ A FISHY AFFAIR.—"I say, James, where did you get those fine fresh Trout?" "Why, down at Pettit & Co.'s, opposite Kimball Block." They supply hotels and families every day. Is that so? Correct! d123 6

☞ FOUR SPAN OF FINE MULES for sale cheap. Enquire at Bain Wagon Depot. d121 1w

☞ NUTS, Candies, and Oranges, at Lindsey's gardens.

☞ COUGHS AND COLDS.—Those who are suffering from Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, &c., should try 'Brown's Bronchial Troches.' d120 3 eod

☞ WANTED.—A quantity of heavy poles. For particulars apply to WM. W. RITTER. d118tf

☞ IMPORTED STOCK.—Mr. E. W. Van Ettan received yesterday, direct from Canada, where he lately purchased seven bulls, twenty-three cows, twelve mares, three stallions, and thirty Cotswold sheep.

The horses and mares are fine bred, while the cattle are improved Durham, Devon and Herefordshire.

They are for sale at the Tithing Office corrals and may be seen by those desirous of purchasing any time until Saturday night when Mr. Van Ettan purposes taking the animals not sold to his ranche at West Jordan. d118 2wos

☞ ICE CREAM, at Lindsey's gardens.

☞ MULBERRY SEED.—For sale, a fresh lot of perfectly reliable mulberry seed, also silkworm eggs and mulberry trees, by Louis A. Bertrand. Apply to him by letter, or to the News Office.

We propose to select our Organist; are willing to accord the same privilege to the contestant, and therefore shall not object to any Organist in America performing on the Estey, not excepting Mr. Estey himself.

Judges, selected in equal numbers by ourselves and the contestant, and an Umpire to be agreed upon by both parties shall decide upon the merits of the Organs.

We would suggest the Music Hall, 14th Ward, as a central, convenient place in which to have the Organs tested.
