Children Locked in the House and Burned to Death.

ANOTHER SHOCKING ACCIDENT

Attempted Suicide of a Railroad Passenger—Fatal Shoot-out.

The Grandine (Col.) country saw half who were born here now in winter.

The Green River, Wyo., drainage ditch 12 feet deep now contains water which is several feet deeper than it was when it was first dug out.

The Green River, near Laramie, Wyo., is said to have become so turbulent because of the recent rains which caused the water to rise about 12 feet above its previous level.

A party of Indians from Rocky Mountain has been here for the past 10 days, hunting for elk, deer, antelope, marmots, rabbits, and other game.

We, at Elkhorn, in Carbon Co., have organized the Rockwood Coal Company to mine coal up to a point of 10,000 feet above sea level, crossing the high mountain range of mountains, a distance of sixteen miles. It leads us to a dangerous trip, but the mine experts know.

On Saturday morning at Loveland, Colo., a six year old boy was playing when the noise of an express train with four children, from Greeley, crossed over the tracks. The boy ran across the tracks and was hit by the express. He was discovered, and the children were shocked by his body, however, he was about two-thirds of an hour.

The young man from Greeley, who was driving the express, was held recently by W. H. Morrison for $500. He was released on the condition that he would remain in the state until the Northern Pacific Railroad company will pay him $1000 for his services.
