FOURTH-SEVENTH CONGRESS.

SECOND SESSION.

By Telegraph to the News.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, 12.—Morrill presented the credentials of Senator Edmunds for the full term commencing March 4, 1887. Placed on file.

Among the numerous bills introduced and referred, were the following:—

By Cullom—to amend the Revised Statutes in relation to national banks.

The Senate resumed consideration of Morrill's resolution declaring that the promise of making a proper revision of the tariff at the present session was obviously hopeless and impracticable, and Davies proceeded to address the Senate on that subject.

At the conclusion of Davies' speech, Morrill moved the reference of his resolution to the committee on specialties.

Beck opposed such a reference, and suggested that the Senators on both sides should urge on their friends in the House to pass some tariff measure, so as to bring the House and Senate into some practical manner and thus open the doors fairly to debate.

He then moved the Senate to pass the motion to refer.

The resolution was then laid over, and the House moved to the bill repealing the tenure of office act, Platt protesting that the House should not open executive sessions of the Senate should take precedence of any other business.

Pending consideration of Hoar's bill a message from the House was presented on the subject of the bill repealing the tenure of office act.

Representative Dowdell of New York, who was appointed to a committee to attend the funeral, Senators Miller, Ransom and Voorhees were appointed to the committee, and as a mark of respect for the deceased the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, 12.—Following the call of the States, the following bills and resolutions were introduced in the House and referred:—

By Cullom (Indiana)—To prohibit the appointment of congressional committees to attend funerals and to prohibit the draping of public buildings in mourning except by order of the President.

By Lawrence—A resolution stating that the rapidly accumulating surplus in the Treasury is in excess of the needs of the Government for the support and the discharge of its bonded debt; that the surplus should be used to protect the lake and coast cities, and that nearly one million men are unemployed in the United States, and that the surplus in the Treasury should be expended through liberal and judicious actions for repairing and properly equipping the coast defense and for the construction of ships.

Following is the text of the bill introduced by Hiram.

SECTION 1. That out of the moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized to invest the same in anticipation of the payment of so much interest on the interest-bearing bonds of the United States as shall be in excess of the rate of 3 per cent. per an-

TRUTH AND LIBERTY.

mission. Connelly, who is now in Washington, had a pleasant interview with Secretary Bayard, and is to call to-morrow, by appointment, upon President Cleveland.

NOMINATIONS.

The following nominations were sent to the Senate to-day:—

Thomas E. Benedict of New York, to be Public Printer.

To be United States District Attorney, John T. Carey of California, for the Northern District of California.

Wm. L. Maginnis of Ohio, to be Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Wyoming Territory.

Wm. G. Langford of Washington Territory to be Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of Washington Territory.

Abner B. Williams, of Arkansas, to be a member of the Utah Commission.

Geo. W. Julian, of Indiana, to be Surveyor-General of New Mexico.

Cass W. Irish, of Iowa, to be Surveyor-General of Nevada.

Robert W. Ross, of Illinois, to be Recorder of the Federal Land Office, and a large number of other recess appointments, including consuls, registers of land offices, receivers of public money and Indian agents.

ADJUDICATIONS.

In the District Court in general term to-day, Judge Cox delivered the opinion of the court in the cases of John H. Prentiss, cashier, convicted of and sentenced to five years in the penitentary for making false entries in the books of the German-American National Bank, overruling the judgment of the Circuit Court and granting the dismissal of the indictment, that the bank was doing business, and that the indictment was defective. Over forty cases against them are thus rendered inoperative. They cannot be tried, and the limit of time having expired, they were released.

SENATE.

Senator Connelly introduced a bill directing the Secretary of the Treasury to pay to the respective owners of the holders of silver bullion may have the same coined into standard dollars of 412½ grains on the same terms as applied to the holders of gold; that the gold dollar shall be the unit of account and the standard of value; that the gold dollar shall be a legal tender. It also provided that the Secretary of the Treasury, instead of coining all the silver bullion presented shall exchange the same for silver dollars or certificates of exchange, and that the Secretary may coin so much of the bullion as the needs of the country may require.
