

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Correspondents writing for publication are requested to write on one side of the paper only.

Theatrical.—To-night the fine drama of "The Island King," a song by Mr. Hardie, and the beautiful comic opera of the "Wildcat Ward" make a very attractive bill.

Eighth Ward Party.—Last night the ladies of the Eighth Ward Female Relief Society gave a party in the Assembly Rooms of the Ward.

Killing Them.—Col. J. C. Little informs us that at Holladay's Settlement, Big Cottonwood Ward, the people are employing the following method to destroy the grasshoppers or locusts.

Phonographic Society.—The members of the Phonographic Society are requested to give a full and punctual attendance at the City Hall, on Monday evening at 8 o'clock, business of importance having to be transacted.

"Nobody's Child."—This sensation drama by Watts Phillips, which has been so very successful in Britain and in the East, is in preparation here for production at an early day.

The plot of "Nobody's Child" may be sketched as follows:—Joe is a half-witted young man, who years before was cast ashore upon the coast of Cornwall, and has long wandered about the neighboring village, with a total disregard to his personal appearance.
