Prof. Wetzel Talks of Music as Discussed at the N. E. A. Convention.

MUSIC IN THE HICH SCHOOL

Its Absence in Salt Lake the Occasion of Surprise-Next Year's Meet Will be in San Francisco.

Prof. William A. Wetzel has returned rom Asbury Park, where the annual convention of the N. E. A. was held The professor is enthusiastic over the stelligent attention given to musical pedagogies by the music section of the essociation, and the interest that phase of musical instruction is occasioning all over the country. It is something that has been neglected-because it has not been understood; and in this connection Prof. Wetzel mentioned the New York Musical Courier, which had been opposing music in the public schools. He ent the editor a letter some time previous to the opening of the convention suggesting in very kindly language that his paper would surely not take any such stand were the editor really aware of the character of the work, and asked that special attention be given to the proceedings of the music sec. en to the proceedings of the music sec-tion of the N. E. A. at the coming con-

Editor Blumenberg accepted the communication in the spirit in which it was sent, and when Prof. Wetzel reached Asbury Park he found Fanny Edgar Thomas, the veteran Paris correspondent of the Musical Courier on the ground ready to meet him. She said she had been supplied to reground ready to meet him. She said she had been specially detailed to report the proceedings of the music section, and assured him that her paper would deal fairly and squarely by him—in fact, it was friendly to the professor's work, Prof. Wetzel was very much gratified, and afforded Miss Thomas every facility for getting information. A review of Prof. Wetzel's efforts in the line of pedagogics will appear next month from Miss Thomas' pen, in her paper.

en, in her paper. Prof, Weizel expressed his pleasure at the recent session of the University summer school, to musical pedagogles, and hoped that the idea would be taken up thoroughly this fall at the University itself. Prof. Wetzel expressed his regret at the answer he had to give at Asbury Park, when some delegate asked him about music in the Salt Lake High school. He was obliged to reply that there was none.

that there was none,
"What! No music in the High school?
Well, that is very singular, what is the ause of that?"

Prof. Wetzel says music has been esablished in all the eastern high schools and in this respect Salt Lake appears to be an exception to the rule. He understands Principal Eaton is opposed to the music proposition under the belief that many teachers of vocal music in town would raise objections through rivalry in methods, such teachers as did not approve of the methods of in-struction claiming that they were all wrong, and that their own were the only correct methods. Prof. Wetzel claims this is an entirely erroneous view to take of it, and that no such opposition as is imagined would occur. In fact the teaching of music in the chools would prove a marked help to he studio teachers, instead of antag-nizing them. Music in the public chools has come to be so well under-trood in the larger centers of the ountry that no one would think of dis-urbing it.

Prof. Wetzel called on Frank Damosch in New York, as well as other elebrities en route. He found Asbury Park a delightful place for convention gatherings, and there isn't a saloon within a mile of the Park—thanks to a New Jersey law prohibiting the existence of a saloon within that distance of a camp meeting ground. There are, in consequence, no gamblers or tough characters in that vicinity, as the criminal and semi-criminal classes do not seem able to live where there is no liquor to be had.

As to getting the next convention for ark a delightful place for conventi-liquor to be had.

As to getting the next convention for Salt Lake, Prof. Wetzel said that not a few delegates wanted to bring it here, but none of the Salt Lake delegation was authorized to offer any guarantees. He took the matter up with members of the Commercial club two years ago, but these parties declared that the of the Commercial club two years ago, but these parties declared that the town could not take care of the crowds. However, now that Sau Francisco has captured the convention for 1996, Sali Lake will profit by the same, as all of the crowds will stop over in this city going or coming, so they will be here anyhow, and leave a good deal of monay in Sali leave a good deal of money in Salt Lake. As to caring for the crowds, Salt Lake could do it, but it would be necessary for citizens to open their homes.

Prof. Wetzel has come home prepared to start in on the fall work with thoroughness and enthusiasm.

EASY MONEY.

Grafters Induce a Stranger to Part With a $250 Check.

William Thies, a farmer from Rutand. Ill., fell in with a couple of grafters near the Rio Grande depot yesterday afternoon and last night told the old, old story to the police.

Thies met a handsome affable young "gentleman" who invited him to take a drink. Thies accepted. In the saloon a second handsome, affable "gentleman" etc., was met, and a poker game was proposed. Thies declares that he was proposed. Thies declares that he did not want to play, but was forced into it by friend No. 2. The latter asked Thies if he had any money and he preduced a check for $250 on the Danford bank of Minonk, Ill. He was persuaded to endorse the same. Thies jost $3 on the game, and friend No. 2 said he would send the check up town to eash it. He took the check and disappeared. Then friend No. 1 started out to find the man with the check. He is still looking for him as he has not returned. Thies then began to realize that he had been buncoed out of his hard earned $250. The police are trying to locate the grafters.
