SENATE.
WASHINGTON, 13.—The Vice President laid before the Senate a communication from the Postmaster-General recommending various minor deficiency appropriations for 1879, amounting to $100, 000.

Several senators presented numerous signed petitions for a commission of inquiry into the alcoholic liquor traffic.

Kernan and Sanbury presented a memorial for the withdrawal of the legal tender quality of the Treasury notes.

Ferry announced that he sent the Senate of various petitions, he would not ask the Senate to devote Thursday to the memorial service of Senator Chandler, but would hereafter ask another day set apart.

Sanbury (by request) introduced a bill to preserve the secrecy of telegrams.

Carpenter, from the Judiciary committee, reported adversely on the bill to extend the jurisdiction of the United States Court; calendar.

Morrill offered the following resolution, which was laid on the table, and he announced his intention to speak upon it on Thursday next:

Resolved, That the committee on finance be instructed to inquire as to the practicability of refunding any part of the national debt at a lower rate than the present interest, and also as to whether or not some effective provisions can be made whereby bona fide subscriptions for bonds in moderate amounts may be available, and report by bill or otherwise.

On motion of Garland, 28 to 25, the Senate went into executive session.

When the doors were re-opened, on motion of Thurman, the House bill to provide for circuit courts and district courts of the United States at Columbus, Ohio, and transferring certain counties from northern districts of that State was taken up and passed.

On motion of Cockrell, the Senate again went into executive session, and then adjourned until tomorrow.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, 13.—After some routine business, consideration was resumed of the resolution for printing Glover's report. The question was referred to the committee on printing, with instructions to inquire how the House lost possession of the report, and who now has possession of it.

The bill appropriating $4,000 for furniture in the House, passed.
Garfield's motion that the librarian purchase works on finance, and politics, economy, for the House, and means committee was adopted; 172 to 67.

Many Executive communications were received and referred.

Money matters of the committee on pensions, submitted a report to accompany the bill for the establishment of return letter offices.

The House went into committee of the whole on the report of the committee on rules.

Dunnell objected to rule 30, prohibiting any amendment to a resolutions bill which changed the existing law, unless it retrenched expenditures. The rule was understood, and the committee on House to the control of a bare majority of the committee on propositions. He opposed the rule requiring the committee on communications to prepare the report for the committee on appropriations. He denounced the attempt to make the river and harbor bill appear to be a gigantic scheme.

Barber opposed that proposition also.

Whitthorne believed one committee should control appropriations.

Brown took the opposite view, making the appropriation committee the sole arbiter was setting up an advisory committee to make the Speaker an autocrat.

The committee then rose.

Mr. Shellenbarger introduced a bill to reduce the national debt, and to reduce the interest and improve the public credit. Adjourned.

Appropriations Delegate Cannon's family bill introduced.

WASHINGTON, 13.—The democratic members of the House and Senate committee on appropriations have agreed that all apportation bills shall be brought forward and passed through the committee as rapidly as possible, in such a way as to avoid all danger of prolonging the session by unimportant discussions. The amounts will therefore be almost invariably laid out last year's figures without attempting further material reductions, and without endeavoring to add political riders. The only bill likely to reopen any of the questions which were so prominent at the extra session is the Marshall deficiency bill now in the Senate of preparation by the Judiciary committee.

It is alleged that among the deficiencies for which money is asked, is one of about $1,000 to pay for the services of deputy marshals of election appointed at the California congressional election. The feeling among the democratic members of the House is strongly in favor of inserting a proviso in the bill to prohibit the use of any portion of the appropriation for such purposes, either past or prospective, and if the measure is thus reported, the opportunity for political discussion will undoubtedly be improved.

The House committee on elections took up today the case of 000,000,000, Ninth Indiana district, on a pending motion, which was denied; yes, 6 ayes, 8 noes.
