ögden, April 6 .- A marriage license was granted by Doputy County Clerk E. G. Burlick to Joseph Pesco, aged 27. and Miss Eliza A. Beech, 22, both of Ogden City, and at 5:30 p'clock yesterday afternoon they were joined in the bonds of wedlock by Judge J. D. Murphy at his office in the city hall. The marrying of this couple will no doubt rause the dismissal of the suit brought by Mr. E. T. Hulaniski against Miss Bach, charging her with perjury. Judge Hulaniski, when seen last evening, concerning the cuse, stated that he had not yet fully made up his mind is to whether he would ask for a dis-missal of the suit, but was inclined to be Jenient in such unfortunate cases, and presumed that he would not proseanimony belowe sturping con-eming the alleged crime. Judge Hulaniski then swore to a maplinit charging the young lady with perjury, and was determined to prosecute her, but now that the young man has married the girl who loved lim so desperately she will not be pros-evied on that charge, so that the marrige has no doubt saved her from the mison cell.

West Jordan's oldest and most highly respected residents. In his death ou Thursday last, Utah lost her first broom maker, as well as a Civil war and Elack Hawk veteran. George Matthew Webster was born Aug. 28, 1832, at London, England; em-migrated to Illinois in the ball of 1843 with his father and mother and one brother. Lived in Illinois until he en-tered the army to take part in the Civil war. During a forced march he took sick with pneumonia, and on ad-vice of his doctor he returned home. Civil war, During a forced maren de took sick with pneumonia, and on ad-vice of his doctor he returned home, but soon decided to come west. He soon met some people going to Califor-nia, and accompanied them to Utah, with a mule team. He arrived in Salt Lake City, June 10, 1863. Shortly after reaching Utah he came to West Jordan and began to investigte "Mormonism" and finally embraced the Gospel and was baptized by Bishop A. Gardner Jan. 26, 1863, in Jordan river. He start-ed the first broom factory in Utah at West Jordan in 1864. In the spring of 1867 he went to the Black Hawk war, and returned late in the summer. On the 28th of October. 1887, he married Elizabeth Sprattling; they had nine children, six boys and three girls, eight of whom are now living. He also leaves a wife and 16 grandchildren.
