Mollie McCarthy's Racing Days

Over.

New York, 30.—The announcement that Mollie McCarthy was to run, drew a large crowd to Brighton Beach yesterday that has been seen at a race in this vicinity for years. Turfmen from all parts of the country were present.

The following is the dispatch announcing her withdrawal:

Saratoga, 29.—Mollie McCarthy has pulled up lame in her preparation for the first of the week, but had arrangements made for shipping her, and hoped to the last moment it was not serious. I am sincerely regret to say her injuries are permanent and she will not be able to race.

L. R. MARTIN.

The World intimates the mare was intended to start, and says such a supposition is strengthened by the rumor circulated that Baldwin, the owner of Mollie, was also owner of Fortuna, although entered in the race by Pursey & Co. The latter story is, no doubt, untrue, for Martin, who was present at Brighton Beach last yesterday, positively denies the story. He said that about Mollie's injuries, he said he was really afraid that she never would be able to get Mollie again in condition to race. That she is not broken-down, strictly within the meaning of the word, but so lame in the off-foot that he did not think she could be cured. This, taken with the fact that Martin is an expert with horses' feet, evidently means that Mollie will be retired from the turf and become one of the most valuable brood mares in the country.

Grant says that in his Presidential term of eight years he has received whatever honor attaches to the position, and that he does not desire to be President again, and does not conceive of any possible circumstances which could induce him to consent to be a candidate.

Still, while all this is true, he adds that if it should happen at any time that the republican party should need him for any purpose, he would not fail to respond.

The Tribune, in an editorial on this information, and on previous authenticated statements by Rear Admiral Ammen, declaring substantially the same thing, and affirming that Grant has expressed a willingness to accept the Presidency of the Inter-Oceanic Canal Co., says this decision of Gen. Grant not to re-enter public life is a surprise. As we have seen, Grant has not written a word for a third term might hand his name down to posterity as the "great defeated." It is no reflection upon his past services to say that his declining health has deprived him of the opportunity
