I, John T. Caine, Recorder of Salt Lake City, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a full, true and correct copy of an Ordinance entitled "An Ordinance Licensing and Regulating the Sale of Spirituous and Fermented Liquots," passed by the City Council of said city, August 23rd, 1881, as appears of record in my office.

The success which attended the recent western experiments in boiler explosion, undoubtedly entitled the experimenter's theory to respectful consideration. It is claimed that the explosion alluded to, which attained results that government officials have vainly labored after for years, was due to superheated water, and Mr. D. T. Lawson, who conducted the experiment to its successful termination, believes that many other explosions are due to the same cause. The theory is that when over-heated water is relieved for an instant from
