SABBATH MEETINGS.—In the morning Elder J. A. Godie made some interesting remarks about his trip east. He was happy to say that the prejudice so long existing against us was going away, because we are becoming better known; and he was satisfied that tens of thousands will yet receive and rejoice in the truth. Elder E. W. Tallidge, just returned from a two years' mission to the Eastern States, discoursed upon the evidences of God overruling and controlling the affairs of the world, and of the special manifestation of His power in connection with this work and people.

Elder Z. Jacobs, just returned from a mission to England, followed. While there he had been in preaching the gospel and bearing his testimony to the people, and rejoiced unspeakably to be once again with the Saints in the valleys of the mountains.

Afternoon. Elder A. Miner spoke of his labors in Britain, and of the joy he had experienced in performing the duties of the mission from which he has just returned.

Elder T. B. H. Stenhouse spoke of his faith and feelings, and of his hopes with regard to the future of his native country—Scotland. Bishop L. R. Young gave some good advice to the newly arrived immigrants. He touched upon the speedy and comparatively easy manner in which they had made the journey, compared with the manner in which it has been made by the immigrating Saints in past years; and counseled them with regard to the circumstances which surround them.

Pres. D. H. Wells also gave some valuable advice to the newly arrived Saints; and said that those who had agreed to go and work on the railroad should keep that agreement faithfully and proceed to the work as soon as possible. His remarks were brief but very instructive.

THEATRICAL.—"Elizabeth" was repeated on Saturday evening at a crowded house, and was received with as much applause as on its previous presentation. Many would like to see it again; indeed it is a play that should have "a run."

On Tuesday night "Camille," the unfortunate and repellant; who is elevated by pure love, yet, through a sense of duty, tramples it under foot, and gives herself to misery and a premature death, will be performed. This play was performed during the engagement of Julia Jean, and Camille was the character in which she first appeared here. It is a part which gives opportunity for the display of a very high order of histrionic ability, and we have no question but Miss Jean will shine in it. The characters are well cast.

A PERPLEXING PERKINEMENT.—Last Friday a few of the boys working below Lost Creek, in Weber Canyon, concluded to pay a visit to the city, and by commencing unusually early got through a fair day's work by noon. They then started, coming through Round Valley, over the Weber, past Porterville, and making for the divide between City Creek and Porter cañons. Night fell and it grew dark around them, while the path was through thick oak brush where, at times, they were compelled to make their way on hands and knees. Some time about midnight, they being a little scattered, and still a dozen miles from the city, tired and worn out, their number was increased by the sudden and startling appearance of a bear which stepped out into the track, some of the party being in advance of it, and some behind. Hearing upon its hind legs, it seemed about on bestowing a powerful fraternal embrace on the nearest; but they declined its advances and made themselves scarce, "talking loudly" to it, or, in other words shouting to scare it. They succeeded so far as to have the track clear of so unwelcome an occupant in a short time, and they "worked their passage" down the cañon, being in closer proximity several times to members of the brute family than they cared to be. As it was tolerably dark they could not tell whether it was a brown bear or a grizzly, but from its size they took it to be the latter.

CALLER.—We had the pleasure of a call this morning from Seneca D. Kimbark, Esq., of the firm of Hall, Kimbark & Co., importers and dealers in iron, steel, nails and heavy hardware, Chicago. The gentleman arrived last week but has been somewhat sick since. He is, however, now recovered. He commends the prudence and wisdom of our merchants with regard to purchasing, until the railroad terminus is considerably nearer; but looks for a heavy trade between Chicago and Utah. We wish Mr. Kimbark a pleasant sojourn during the brief remainder of his stay in the city.

ARRIVAL.—Mr. L. B. Davenport, the eminent tragedian, arrived on Saturday night, by stage from the west, with his wife and child.

AT LOGAN.—By Deseret Telegraph, we learn that yesterday forenoon, the meeting at Logan was addressed by Elders John Taylor and Geo. Q. Cannon; and in the afternoon by Elders L. Snow, C. C. Rich, Geo. Q. Cannon and President Young. The meetings were numerous attended, and very interesting. The President and company started homeward at 5 p.m. last night and came as far as Wellsville, left there at ten minutes past eight this morning, and arrived at Brigham City at thirty-five minutes past eleven. Held meeting there, which was concluded at half past three this afternoon. The party would reach Ogden to-morrow, and thence to-morrow to this city.

ANOTHER TRAIN IN.—Captain Haight's train, of 40 wagons, bringing freight and 275 passengers, got in to-day about noon. There were six deaths during the trip from Laramie, all children under four years of age. They left on the 20th of July, stopped a day each at a couple of points by the way; and consequently made the journey in 25 traveling days.

LOCUSTS IN DAVIS AND UTAH COUNTIES.—Bishop Stoker informs us that the grasshoppers reached Bountiful again yesterday. They have been in other parts of Davis County for about a week, and have been doing some damage to the late corn. Judge Peacock, of Mant, who reached the city to-day, also states that they seemed to be doing injury to the corn in Utah County. The harvest, however, is too far advanced for their destructiveness to be much felt now; and if they leave without depositing their eggs, the present visit will not be a serious one.

FIRE AT LA PORTE.—There was a most destructive fire in La Porte, California, on the 10th, by which the entire business part of the town, besides several dwellings, and the China town, were almost destroyed. The loss to the business part of the town was about $300,000.

UNFORTUNATE.—W. J. Duffy, of Lowell Hill, Little York Township, Cal., was lately thrown from his buggy and broke his leg. He had the same leg—his only one—broken last fall, and was unable to walk at the time of the late accident. His left leg was twice broken and twice amputated; and this is the third time for the right leg to be broken.
