LOCAL BRIEFS.

The state board of land commission ers is holding its regular monthly meeting today in the board rooms.

.m J. Bowns and Annie Jones,

tary and treasurer of state union No. 1 of the Western Federation of Miners, and president of the Park City local union, arrived in Sait Lake last night CONFERENCE OF with his wife and family. He comes to attend the state miners' convention, which meets in this city during the present week. Mr. Langford is known as an able speaker, and a close studen of economical subjects. William S. Rice, a Rio Grande Western brakeman, was crushed to death in an accident at Castle Gate yesterday. A coal car in which he was riding was backed off a 50 foot coal chute, and carried him down with it to his death. He leaves a wife and two children, and a mother residing in this city. The re-mains were shipped here for burbal last night, but funeral arrangements have tor yet been completed.

The conference of health officers from over the state that was to have been held this week, with the afficials of the state board of health in this city, has been postponed until the loth and lith inst., as most of the health officers will be in attendance this week on the semiannual conference, and cannot well give he attention to this health meeting that it would call for. However, all state health officers are invited to call at the office of the secretary of the state board of health in the Mercantile building, corner of Third South and Main streets, register, and get acquainted.

Society's Efforts Among the Maories-Good News From Canada--Stake Reports.

The Rellef society conference met this morning at 10 o'clock in the Assembly Hall, with President Bathsheba W. Smith presiding, and with her counselors and many members of the board. on the stand. The pulpit was bright ' with potted plants and autumn flowers, and there was a very fine attendance. Representatives from the far north to sunny Mexico were there-and one from far New Zealand even, who spoke of the work being carried on among the Maoris, and of the interest these simple and warm-hearted women take in the Relief organizations. This representative, Mrs. Emma S. Wright, was called with her husband on a mis-Growers, will be held Friday, October 7th, at 10 o'clock a. m. at the Council Chamber, City and County Building. REPORT FROM MEXICO.

Mrs. Lexia Harris, the representative from Mexico, also gave a most inter-estig report. Three years ago the Mex-ican mission, abundoned 20 years since. had been re-opened, much to the joy of those who had remained faithful to the Church. The converts were much scattered, but had been brought together, and evinced a great interest in the various Church organizations, which had been established. She spoke of the difficulty at first of the missionaries getting accustomed to the food, whom chief features were tortillas and beans, but sold that remarkably soon they grew accustomied to the native food, and if was only when thier mission was about to end that the old distaste came back. She ended by saying that an important work was being done in that place, both in the City of Mexico, and in the colonies,

GOOD NEWS FROM CANADA.

Mrs. Mary L. Woolfe, the representative from Canada, gave news of the good work being done in that far off stake. She said the work comprised both the relief and mothers' work, a great interest being taken in the mothers' classes, and interesting lectures be-ing given. A feature of their recent effort had been the locating of the Saints FAIR AND CON-

LONDON CONFERENCE REUNION.

The Elders and Saints of the London conference will hold a reunion in the Twentieth ward amusement hall toalght, commencing at 8 o'clock. The affair will be in the nature of an English shrimp tea, followed by an excel-lent program and a dance, and all Ellers and Saints from the London conerence, are cordially invited to be present.

attered in the far north, and joint them in organizations, much to their own joy and benefit. An effort also ing made to store grain, and she felt that all would be well with them.

STAKES REPORTED.

Among the other stakes reported were Bear Lake, by Mary A. Bagley; St. Jo-seph, by S. T. Foley; St. George, by Ann C. Woodbury; Cassia, by the counselor to President Louisa Haight; Fremont, by Counselor Mary A. Rich, and Malad, by Julia A. Richards, Each representative gave most interesting refulfilling the spirit of the various or-ganizations, and told of the spirit of unity which prevails among the officers members of the Relief and other societies. Their remarks were most in teresting and were listened, to with great attention.

THE HAWAIIAN COLONY.

Leave Sait Lake at 7 a. m. via the O. S. L., U. P. and Wabash, and arrive A report that was received with much interest was that given by Mrs. Maria Marakoa of the Iosepa colony. Her report was in the Hawaiian tongue, and was interpreted by Mrs. actual running time.

Smith, revealing a gratifying condition among the natives. LOVING GREETING.

President Bathsheba W. Smith, though not in the best of health, made a short and loving greeting as a preface to the reports-which were the chief business of the meeting; and Mrs. Annie T. Hyde and Mrs. Ida Smoot Dusenberry each gave an address of a few minutes, Mrs. Hyde speaking of her delight at seeing representatives from the far off stakes, and her belief that the work of the vast organization was wonderful import.

Mrs. Dusenberry, who has just re turned from her trip abroad, told of her visit with the various Relief organizations of foreign missions, including Switzerland, Germany and England, and also with the Chicago and New York branches, which she said are in flourishing conditions. She said it was this spirit of unity which gave strength to the organizations and held them to. gether throughout the world. The meeting closed and opened with singing and prayer, and a charming feature of the session was a solo, "Fear Not, O Is-raet," by Miss Emma Ramsey, accom-panied by Mr. Tracy Cannon, the selec. tion being both beautiful and beautifully sung.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The afternoon meeting opened at : o'clock, Prof. C. J. Thomas leading the Temple choir in singing. Mrs. Alice Merrill Horne gave a most interesting talk on the Berlin Congress of Women which she attended as a delegate, her address dealing with the important work of the congress, and many rela-tive points of interest. Mrs. Emily Richards also gave an address-her remarks supplementing the first, in notes of in-terest to the society. Other stakes reported their organizations, and the enthire conference was thoroughly en-Joyed. Other speakers were Treasurer Claris.

Cures Winter Cough.

J. E. Gover, 101 N. Main St. Ottawa, Kan., writes "Every fall it has been my wife's trouble to catch a severe cold, and therefore to cough all winter long. Last fall 1 got for her a bottle of Hore-bound Syrup. She used it and has been able to sleep soundly all night long. Whenever the cough troubles her, two or three doses stops the cough and she is able to be up and well." Sc. Ioc, $1.00. Sold by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept.

Loss of Appetite *

Is commonly gradual; one dish after another is set aside till few remain. These are not eaten with much relish and are often so light as not to afford much nourishment. Loss of appetite is one of the first indications that the system is running down, and there is nothing else so good for it as Hood's Sarsaparilla-the best of all tonics. Accept no substitute for Hood's.
