 The committee appointed to confer with the merchants regarding the half-holiday movement, are meeting with encouraging success. The majority of the merchants prefer Thursday afternoon. A report will be made at the meeting to-morrow evening in the City Hall.
 YESTERDAY afternoon word was sent to the City Marshal that a demented and crippled boy, four or five years of age, was in a starving and wretched condition in a vacant house on Second South Street, where it had been left by its inhuman parents to perish. The Marshal had the child cared for, and notified the County Court of the affair.
 We publish in this issue two letters from our Ogden correspondent, "Weber," giving full and interesting details of the court proceedings at Ogden up to the hour of adjournment yesterday. The first of these letters we should have had in time for publication in last evening's issue, but for some unaccountable reason it did not come to hand until this morning.
 The lecture delivered in the Josephite chapel last evening by the Brahmin, Gopal Vinayak Joshee, was well attended. At one place the language of the lecturer was so improper as to cause several ladies to leave the hall, and he was called to order by Mr. H. W. Lawrence, who suggested that something of a less offensive character be given the audience.
 The juvenile instructor office is showing its good-will and enterprise by getting up a pamphlet containing the programme, including words and music in full, of the Jubilee to be held in the Tabernacle in this city on Pioneer Day—the 9th inst. The Sunday schools of the whole county will be supplied with their gratis on applying at the instructor office at any time after to-morrow.

 JOSEPH E. TAYLOR, City Sexton.
 Past the Allotted Age.—Sunday last was the 70th anniversary of the birth of Sister Marinda Hyde, relict of the late Apostle Orson Hyde, and in honor of the event quite a large number of her friends assembled at her residence of her son, Brother Alonzo H. Hyde, yesterday afternoon, and spent the evening in social enjoyment, during which speeches congratulatory to their nature were made by Sisters Woodruff, Kim, Horrocks, Horne, S. M. Kimball, E. M. Wells, Rebecca Riter, Julia Howe and Elizabeth Howard. Sister Hyde also responded with a speech, in which she expressed her gratification at the honor shown her. A delicious supper was served up, the table being beautifully decorated with flowers, and thirty-seven ladies partook of the tempting viands. Sister Hyde is one of the oldest living members of the Church, she having been baptized in April, 1831. Her life has been full of good works, which have gained for her a warm place in the hearts of the community, and her acquaintance with doubtless all feel to wish with us in wishing that she may yet live to enjoy many more anniversaries of her natal day.

 THE ANNUAL MEETING LAST EVENING.—THE NEWLY ELECTED OFFICERS.
 At 8 p. m. President T. G. Webster called the meeting to order, and stated that on Saturday, June 27th, a preliminary meeting had been held, at which a board of officers had been placed in nomination, and a ticket had been printed in conformity therewith; he also stated that after the reading of the annual report, the balloting for officers would take place.
 The Secretary, Mr. W. J. Bateman, then read the call for the annual meeting, and also the minutes of the last annual meeting, which were approved. The roll call showed 1,322 shares to be represented.
 The president's report was then read and approved; as was also the secretary's report, which was published in last Saturday's News. The auditor's report was also approved.
 After some discussion the balloting was proceeded with. While the tellers were counting the votes, Messrs. H. W. Naisbitt, James Sharp, Francis Cope, and W. J. Bateman addressed the meeting.
 The following ticket was declared elected, the figures indicating the number of shares cast for each officer: Thomas G. Webster, president, 1,322; James Sharp, vice-president, 1,314; L. S. Hills, (cashier) Deseret National Bank, treasurer, 1,322; James T. Little (assistant cashier Deseret National Bank) treasurer, 1,322; Wm. Bateman, secretary, 1,322; Thomas Hull, assistant secretary, 1,322.
 Directors.—William Jennings, 1,295; James Watson, 1,314; Francis Cope, 1,322; John Nicholson, 1,322; William H. Rowe, 1,190; Elias Morris, 1,322; A. W. Carlson, 1,322; William L. Binder, 874; D. James, 1,322; Elias A. Smith, 929; Arthur Pearson, 892.
 Auditors.—John H. Ruml, Jr., 944; Heber M. Wells, 1,371; John C. Cutler, 938.
 The following were the scattered votes for directors: J. P. Arnold, 423; John H. Ruml, Jr., 447; J. C. Cutler, 588; R. C. Badger, 54; G. G. Bywater, 40; T. V. Williams, 24; James Sharp, 8.
 A vote of thanks was tendered to the retiring officers for their generous services, and to the Mayor for the use of the hall, and the meeting adjourned.
DROWNED.
 ACCIDENTAL DEATH OF TWO PERSONS.
 Our correspondent at Moab, Emery County, Mr. Edward Bolton, sends an account of the accidental drowning of Robert McDonald at that place, on Saturday night. It seems that the unfortunate man, who has been residing at Moab for some time past, undertook to cross the river on the ferryboat, to bring over a couple of men. Through some oversight he loosened the wrong rope, throwing the boat into the stream, and a search made by Messrs. Thomas Reicht and Norman Taylor, assisted by many citizens, for the body, has thus far proved futile.
 Another sad affair occurred at Woodland, Wasatch County, on Thursday, June 25th, as narrated by Mr. I. P. Felt. About eight o'clock on the morning of the date mentioned, Mrs. Almond, wife of one of the employees at John Moon's saw mill, in Rhoads Valley, distant about eighty yards from the house to get some water. Her absence was not noticed till about an hour afterward, when diligent search failed to ascertain her whereabouts. The impression was that she had accidentally fallen into the stream and had been drowned, and this idea received confirmation on Saturday, when portions of her body were found. She was known to have had on a was found, caught to a piece of driftwood about a mile and a half below the mill. All efforts to find the body had been vain up to Sunday, when our correspondent wrote.
 Sister Almond emigrated with her husband last fall, from Breachwood, Green Heath, Hertfordshire, England. She leaves a family of six children. One of her sisters, Mrs. Sears, resides in this city, and another at Mill Creek, in this county.
FATAL RUNAWAY.
 TWO MEN AND A BOY THROWN OUT OF A WAGON—THE MEN SERIOUSLY HURT, THE BOY KILLED.
 The usually quiet Sugar House Ward was this morning the scene of a frightful accident, resulting in the death of one person and injury of two others. A Swedish man by the name of John Wretburg, an old resident of that ward, together with his daughter and son and a man from Mill Creek, whose name we have not been able to learn, were seated in a wagon in front of Thompson's house some distance east of the school house, when the horses attached commenced to run away, going down the hill, directly west. On reaching the school-house, the animals made a sudden turn, throwing the two men and the boy out of the wagon with terrific force, the latter alighting in such a position that the wheels passed over his body. The horses then ran into the mortar bed near the new meeting house, and a number of men engaged upon that building succeeded in stopping them without the girl being injured.
 The man Wretburg had his head and face badly cut and bruised in falling, the other man was seriously injured in the small of his back, and the boy was so fatally crushed and bruised about his head and breast that he died about fifteen minutes after being carried to Thompson's house, whence he was afterwards conveyed to the family residence some distance higher up on the bench. Deceased was about five years of age and a bright, promising boy.
 The funeral services over the remains will be held to-morrow in the Relief Society hall of the ward, and we are requested to invite the friends of the family to be present.
Third District Court.—Proceedings to-day: Joseph Chesselle, a native of France, was admitted to citizenship.
 George C. Kidder vs. First Congregational Church, Park City; judgment of default entered, and decree as prayed.
 Herman Brischler vs. O. H. Riggs et al.; motion of defendants Kate Shar and O. H. Riggs to open and set aside default herein against them, heard on record; affidavits were filed, and the arguments of E. D. Hoge for defendants and Skeels & Rawlins for plaintiffs, submitted and taken under advisement.
 John A. Freedson vs. J. J. Snell et al.; default of defendant Hamilton entered; coming on for trial, the plaintiff, by S. J. Jonasson, attorney, moves for judgment on the pleadings; motion allowed, and judgment given against both defendants.
 Mary Jack vs. J. J. Snell; Jack, coming on to be heard on report of referee, and motion for decree of divorce and five acre lot and costs; submitted and taken under advisement.
CITY COUNCIL.
 The regular session of the City Council was held in the City Hall last evening, at 7 o'clock, Mayor Sharp presiding.
 White & Sons, in a communication, stated that they had been laboring to induce their neighbor, the City Council, to co-operate with them in advancing the necessary three-fourths cost to obtain an extension of the water mains to their residences. They were personally willing to advance $250 towards the work, but could find no one else to contribute. They therefore asked that they be allowed to run a one and a half inch pipe from the main to their residence, and stated that they would take it up whenever the city desired to pull in a pipe of the regulation measurement. Referred to the committee on waterworks.
 An invitation was read from the committee on celebration at Ogden, requesting the presence of the Council, their families and the citizens of Salt Lake generally at the Fourth of July exercises. A motion was made and carried that the recorder acknowledge the receipt of the invitation.
 B. F. Galland, of the First Ward, in a petition stated that he was a poor man and desired to obtain a home on Oak Flat, four miles up City Creek Canyon. They were unable to tell him at the land office, he said, who owned this flat, and he wished to know whether the flat was vested in the city, and if so, if they would sell, lease or rent to him. On motion of Mr. Clark the Recorder directed the clerk to notify Mr. Galland that the city had no property for sale in City Creek Canyon.
 A. J. Peacock was granted a liquor license, and I Woolf a license as auctioneer.
 The following appropriations were made: To the contingent fund of the City Engineer, $100; to the contingent fund of the Fire Department $100; to the contingent fund of the Street Supervisor $100.
 After having been in session about half an hour the Council adjourned for one week.
Union National Bank.—The Union National Bank, of which Mr. J. R. Walker, of this city, is president, and which recently opened for business, is located in the building long occupied by Walker Brothers, merchants, on the corner of East Temple and Second South Streets. The place has been fitted up specially for bank purposes, the vault for the deposit of valuables entrusted to the institution being fire and burglar proof. The basement the foundation walls of the vault, situated on the first floor, are built of brickwork, enclosing a small room, where papers and books of ordinary value belonging to the bank will be stored, and which is securely guarded by heavy iron and steel doors. Resting on these walls is a ceiling composed of heavy iron rails laid closely together, and next come two feet of solid brickwork, forming the floor of the vault above, which is completely surrounded, top, bottom and sides, in a casing of drill-proof metal plating, absolutely impervious to burglars, and proof against damage by fire or explosives. This vault is divided into two compartments, into which ingress is obtained through massive double doors, of steel and iron plates, riveted in grooves lined with rubber to make them air tight, and each door weighing 5,000 pounds. These, when closed, render entrance impossible by other than bank officials, without weeks of labor. One of the compartments is used by the bank for its property, and with it is placed a seven-ton safe. The other is intended for the secure deposit of valuable papers, money, jewelry, etc., by private parties who may desire it. Here are arranged upward of 500 iron boxes, varying in size from 3 x 5 inches to 15 x 20 inches, and 18 in height, each provided with a double lock, requiring two keys to open. One of these keys is carried by the renter of the box, the other by a bank employee, thus making it impossible for a key to be unlocked without both parties being present. When open the owner can take his property into a private room alongside, and when through, return it as he sees proper, for safe keeping. The rental of these boxes is placed at a merely nominal figure, bringing them easily within the reach of business men, the price per annum varying from $3 to $25, and when articles are once placed therein, the owner has perfect assurance that they are in absolute safety for use whenever he desires. During the hours in which the bank is closed, the premises are carefully guarded by watchmen.
 In addition to all these precautions for safety, the windows opposite the vault are unobstructed by blinds or coverings, and during the night the room will be kept well lighted, so that the street watchman and passers-by have a full view of the interior, and in the extreme event of anyone entering the bank from the outside, a continuous line of work within would be prevented by the certainty of discovery.
