C. Barley is the Third Victim Within a Week in Union Depot Yards.

CONVICTED OF MANSLAUGHTER

Result of Clark Murder Trial—Encounter With Burglar—Burial of J. C. Leavitt—News Briefs.

Ogden, Nov. 12.—At about midnight last night, another switchman—the third in a week—met a shocking death in the Union depot yards. C. Barley, who hailed from Harrisburg, Penn., was the latest victim. He was riding a cut of cars down the stockyards' track. When he failed to return to his engine Foreman M. Wilde went to see what was wrong, and discovered the body, horribly mangled, lying on the track near Twenty-fourth street. It is supposed that Barley fell from the top of the car and rolled beneath the wheels. He was 32 years of age and had been working in Ogden about two weeks.

GUILTY OF MANSLAUGHTER. Claud C. Clark Convicted of the Killing Of Louis Jones.

Ogden, Nov. 12.—After deliberating for about five hours the jury in the case of the slain man, Louis Jones, the colored man who shot and killed Louis Jones, also colored, brought in a verdict of voluntary manslaughter, and Judge Howell set Friday morning at 10 o'clock for sentence.

The hearing of the murder charge against Clark was disposed of in the shortest time of any murder trial ever tried in the Second district court, only two days being taken in the securing of a jury, taking of testimony, arguing the case and the rendering of a verdict.

The evidence in the case showed that the killing of Jones was not intentional, but under the law and instructions of the court, the jury could do nothing but bring in the verdict it did.

ENCOUNTER WITH BURGLAR. Mrs. Jennie Walker Finds Thief Helping Himself to Plunder.

Ogden, Nov. 12.—Mrs. Jennie Walker, who conducts a rooming house at 225 Twenty-fifth street, up stairs, had a startling experience yesterday afternoon with a burglar. While engaged in cleaning up a room her attention was attracted to a man in an adjoining room who appeared to be helping himself. Mrs. Walker stepped to the room door and asked him what he was looking for. He replied that he was looking for a friend, and then grabbed the woman by the shoulders, threw her to the floor and ran down stairs. The lady followed unhesitatingly to Twenty-fifth street, but the bold robber had run into a back alley and made his escape before she got to the street. The police were notified but have been unable to locate him. He had broken open a trunk in the room and stole $95 in money she had stored in the same.

FRUIT BUYER FAILED TO PAY. The whereabouts of A. W. Holmes, who for a couple of weeks has been buying apples from the orchardists of Weber county, is being earnestly sought by a number of them in the hope of getting payment for their fruit. At the present time attachments have been served on the railroad company by Sheriff Sobling on two cartons of apples, which were loaded for shipment to C. F. Prosser of Corville. These apples were purchased by Holmes from various fruit growers in the county, but were not paid for. Some of Holmes' relatives are Cragan Brothers, who have a claim for $1,915.50; James Brown for $177.77; W. H. Lowder, $23, and President James Pingree says that the story is a pure fabrication. The company is loaded with big orders, which it will continue to fill as fast as its big force can manufacture the cement.

Starvation Sits At Loaded Tables

You can Lead a Dyspeptic to the Table, But You cannot make Him Eat

There comes a time in the lives of a great many men and women when even a slight attack of indigestion becomes a protest. The appetite becomes fitful and fretful. Nothing on the bill of fare can coax it.

The appetite is there and yet it isn't. This makes eating a mere matter of machinery—the mouth does its work, the stomach has been working overtime and the body and the brain are paying the penalty.

There are thousands of people in every station of life who are walking the earth to-day with dyspeptic stomachs. They wear a dejected, forlorn appearance, their energy is at zero, nothing interests them, and they interest no one, their faces are shrunk, their nerves are wilted and their shoulders sag.

Everything on the table may look delicious, but nothing will be tempting. This is the true sign of a powerful to-day with dyspeptic stomachs. They wear a dejected, forlorn appearance, their energy is at zero, nothing interests them, and they interest no one, their faces are shrunk, their nerves are wilted and their shoulders sag.

Your stomach is not working, and you are fagged out. The gastric and digestive juices are dried, and the whole business needs new life. It needs something which will take hold of the food as it comes into the stomach, and let your stomach take a rest.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do that very thing. They give a most powerful impetus which helps the stomach in the process of digestion, cures dyspepsia, sour stomach, indigestion, heartburn, eructations, acidity or fermentation. They invigorate the stomach, increase the flow of gastric juice, and do something of what the stomach would have to do without them. That gives the stomach some rest, and a chance to get right again.

You will feel the change first in your mind and heart and then over your whole body. You'll feel that the tablets are doing the object you can get these effective little tablets almost anywhere on earth for 25c a package.

Send us your name and address to-day and we will at once send you by mail a sample package, free of charge. Write to Stuart's Tablets, 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

LARGE REDUCTIONS IN WORKING FORCES. Chicago, Nov. 12.—Large reductions in working forces in many industries in Chicago have been made within the last few days, owing directly to scarcity of orders and business depression.
