PRICE OF GOLD.

Corrected Daily by BANK OF DESERET, SALT LAKE CITY, June 24, 1872.
Buying at $1.11; selling at $1.14.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

TABERNACLE.—At the Tabernacle, yesterday morning, an excellent discourse on the first principles of the gospel, was delivered by Elder M. B. Shipp. In the afternoon the time was occupied by Elder George Q. Cannon.

THEATRE.—On Saturday night Mr. J.M. Hardie's play, "The Stolen Pocket-Book," was presented at the Theatre. As a literary production the piece does not rank high; the plot, however, is tolerably good, and the characters of the piece were fairly rendered by the dramatic company.

To-night Mr. Charles Wheatleigh, the popular comedian, makes his appearance in the favorite comedy "A victim of Circumstances," and in the farce, "Forty Winks." He will be supported by Mr. Hardie and the ladies and gentlemen of the stock company.

CHANGES AND APPOINTMENTS.—Elder Robert McQuarrie is appointed to succeed Pres. J. A. Leishman in the presidency of the Durham and Newcastle conference, and instructed to proceed to that conference at his earliest convenience.

Pres. J. A. Leishman is appointed to succeed Pres. John Pyper in the Presidency of the Glasgow Conference, and instructed to proceed to that conference as soon as Elder McQuarrie is ready to succeed him.

Elder David Duncanson is appointed a traveling Elder in the Glasgow conference, to labor as he may desire.

Elder Jesse Gardiner is appointed a traveling Elder in the Bristol conference, with permission to choose his time for reporting himself to its president as ready for instructions from him.

Elders W. H. Kelsey and Joseph Wadley are appointed to travel and labor in England as may please them.

Soon as Elder David Cazier is ready to take the presidency of the Bristol conference, Pres. E. A. Box is appointed to proceed to Manchester to succeed Pres. G. P. Ward in the Presidency of the Manchester conference.—Millennial Star, June 4th.

DEPARTURE.—We understand that Bailey D. Johnson, Esq., one of the delegates to the Baltimore National Democratic Convention, left for the east this morning for the purpose of attending that political gathering.

MOVEMENTS OF HOME MISSIONARIES YESTERDAY.—President Joseph Young addressed the Saints at Centerville, morning and afternoon. Bishop Reuben Miller and Elder W. G. Young held two meetings at South Cottonwood. Two meetings were held at Neff's Schoolhouse, when addresses were delivered by Elders David Candland, J. P. Freeze, and R. F. Nealen; in the afternoon Elders R. F. Nealen and David Candland addressed the audience, and J. P. Freeze bore testimony.

Elder George Teasdale spoke to the Saints in Draperville in the morning and afternoon. Elder David Candland addressed the audience in the Second Ward Schoolhouse, in this city, in the evening. Elder R. F. Nealen spoke to the congregation in the 10th Ward Schoolhouse, in the evening, warning the young concerning the allurements and temptations that were being introduced among the people of this city.

These meetings were well attended, much good instruction was given and a good spirit prevailed.

NEARLY DROWNED.—Last Thursday morning a little child one and a-half years old, son of Mr. V. E Boessel, of this city, fell headforemost down a well in the rear of the store at the corner of Main and Fifth streets. His mother saw the accident and, giving the alarm, the child was rescued just in time to save its life.—Ogden Junction.

UNIVERSITY EXCURSION.—We are requested to announce a call for the pupils of the Deseret University to assemble at the Social Hall, on Wednesday at 6 p.m., for the purpose of obtaining tickets for the train leaving the depot at 8 o'clock on Thursday morning.

HABEAS CORPUS.—One of the women tried by Justice Clinton the other day for prostitution, was taken before Judge Mollan on Saturday on a writ of habeas corpus. The Judge did not sustain the writ and the woman was remanded to the custody of the city authorities. Is this the first time that this habeas corpus business has been treated sensibly in the higher courts? If it is, then we wish to give due credit for the inauguration of this kind of treatment of such cases.

INDIANS GATHERING.—By dispatch received by President B. Young late on Saturday evening from Moroni, Sanpete Co., we learn: "The Indians coming in from the settlements report that the Elk Mountain and Green River Utes and the Yamgies are gathering over the mountains east of the Sevier settlements and have hostile intentions. The Reservation and scattering Utes are gathering on the divide between Fountain Green and the head of Salt Creek Kanyon. They now number one hundred and thirty lodges and are increasing every day. The Indians prowl about the settlements at nights trying to steal horses. We are desirous to get Tabby and others here to-morrow for a talk, and will try to get him to send a party out to talk with the Indians and have the murderers of young Heiselt captured."

The dispatch also states that the people are being urged to vigilance. This is exceedingly necessary. Energy and vigilance properly exercised just now may avert serious trouble. The people of every settlement should put themselves in a posture of defense. No stock should be suffered to run at large upon the range without efficient and sufficiently strong guard, and proper precautions should be taken by men and boys going to the kanyons or to other exposed places, or in traveling between the settlements to go well-armed and in companies of such strength that attacks can be repelled. No measure that can be taken by the settlers will be more likely to preserve and insure peace than to be prepared for war. Indian nature can readily appreciate the hopelessness of engaging in a contest where plunder and scalps are to be obtained only by hard fighting. But a few successes in robbing and murdering will embolden them, and make a peace much more difficult to effect.

FRATERNAL.—We had a pleasant visit this morning from J. J. Smart, Esq., editor of the Iowa State Reporter, published in Waterloo, Iowa. He also conducts a blank book manufactory and bindery in Des Moines. Mr. Smart came with the Iowa editorial excursion party, but remained behind in order to gain an acquaintance with the resources of the Territory, and an insight into the social and moral status of the people. He has just returned from a visit to the mines and expresses surprise at the vastness of the mineral deposits of the mountains of Utah, and is fully repaid for his visit here.

ANOTHER BIG FESTIVAL.—The British singing societies are to have a grand time in the Crystal Palace, Sydenham, on the Fourth of July. Among them will be a choir of 500 voices from South Wales, consisting exclusively of miners, fishermen, colliers and their families.

EMIGRATION.—Another company for Utah will leave Liverpool on Wednesday, June 26th, to be composed only of those having means of their own for their fare and expenses from their homes to Ogden or Salt Lake City, and those who may be advised from this office. All who are thus prepared and wish to go on the 26th of June, can do so by forwarding their names and ages to this office at least one week, so far as possible, before the day of sailing, and being in Liverpool on or before the 25th; they will not need any further notification.

At present the date of the sailing of the next company after the 26th inst. is not determined.—Mill. Star, June 4th.

FROM GUNNISON.—We had a call from Bishop Joseph Horne, of Gunnison, Sanpete Co., this morning, who informs us that two days' meetings were held there June 15 and 16. The main subjects treated upon by the speakers were the emigration of the poor, and the education of the youth.

The people of Sanpete do not believe that they are on the eve of another Indian war.

Reports have been flying about to the effect that a man in Salt Creek Kanyon and a man and woman in Beaver had been killed by Indians, but both rumors were entirely without foundation.

LAKE EXCURSION.—The excursion on the steamer City of Corinne, which was postponed from last Friday, will come off on Wednesday. The cars to connect with the steamer at Lake Side will leave the depot at 8 o'clock in the morning, arriving on the return at 7.30.

DIED.

At Beaver, after an illness of three months, ELIZA, wife of John Reynolds, aged 23 years. Deceased was a native of Utah.

In the 3rd Ward of this city, on Sunday morning, 23rd, instant, of canker, LUCY JANE, daughter of Samuel and Jane Stringfellow, aged 4 months and 6 days. The funeral took place this afternoon.

Mill Star, please copy.

At the residence of his son Homer, Cedar City, Iron County, March 29th, JOHN DUNCAN, at the age of 92 years and 20 days. He was a member of Zion's Camp.

At Dunton Bassett, near Lutterworth, Leicestershire, England, of old age, DAVID ELLIOT, aged 84 years.—Mill Star.
