THE passage of the Edmunds bill has attracted but little notice among the people to-day, there not being the slightest ripple of excitement, nor anything of more than ordinary interest.

S. W. ECCLES, general passenger agent of the D. & R. G. W., went east this morning, to attend a meeting in Chicago for the revision of the classification of freight, and to consider Utah pool matters.

A RUNAWAY occurred on Second South Street to-day, the playing of the Sixth Ward Band having started a fractious team. When turning down West Temple Street, from Second South, the wagon was overturned and one horse thrown directly on top of the other, but no serious damage was done.

LOCAL NEWS.

More Diphtheria. — Two deaths from diphtheria have occurred since our report yesterday, and two new cases have developed, one in the Fifteenth and one in the Nineteenth Ward.

The "Instructor."—The Juvenile Instructor, that old favorite among the Latter-day Saints, commenced its 21st volume on the 1st inst., in a new dress, which gives the excellent articles with which it is filled an attractive appearance. The Instructor is deserving of an extensive circulation, and we trust it will receive it.

The Suicide.—The name of the man who committed suicide in Ogden on Thursday was John Johnson. He fastened the rope around a rafter and then around his neck, and jumped off a table. On a leaf in his diary was written, "I am not able to work; too honest to beg; to proud to steal." On another leaf was, "I am tired of life; I can't work, and have no money." Papers in the possession of deceased showed that he had been naturalized in this city July 27, 1877, and had later been in Blackfoot and Lemhi County, Idaho. He was buried yesterday.

The Contributor.—The contents of the December number of this excellent magazine are: The Missouri Persecutions, ill, by B. H. Roberts; What we know about the Sun; Maida's Christmas, Ellen B. Ferguson; Logan Temple Lectures, History, James A. Leisbman; The Acadians, B. H. R.; Water Spouts, S. G. W. Benjamin; New Year, O. F. Whitney; A Hymn to Christmas, J. L. Latey; Editorial, Prize Souvenir Medal; A Jersey Cattle-Farm; and Absurdities of Religion, John Q. Cannon. "Maida's Christmas" is the Holiday Story for which a prize of $25 and the Contributor Souvenir Medal is given. It is a beautiful narrative and will be read with interest, as will also the splendid New Year Poem by Bishop O. F. Whitney.

Raid on Paris.—By telegram to the NEWS from Paris, Bear Lake Co., Idaho, we learn that the citizens of that place were thrown into excitement this morning by the news that seven deputy marshals were in town and had arrested J. Lewis, Sen., C. H. Wright and H. Dustin on warrants charging them with unlawful cohabitation.

The marshals came into town during the night and surrounded several houses about four or five o'clock this morning. Another arrest has been made at Bloomington of Peter Jacobson.

Several houses were searched but no more arrests have been made.

The Contributor Company.—The articles of incorporation of The Contributor Company have been filed with the County Clerk, and a certificate of incorporation was issued by the Secretary of the Territory to-day.

The purpose for which the company is formed is to continue the publication of the Contributor, to engage in printing and publishing, bookbinding, engraving and electrotyping in all their several branches; to buy and sell books and periodicals; to found and manage a library and to deal in works of art. The corporate existence is to be for 50 years, and at Salt Lake City is to be the principal office and place of doing business.

The capital stock is placed at twenty thousand dollars, divided into two hundred shares of the par value of $100 each. Ten thousand dollars is fully paid up, being subscribed by the following: Junius F. Wells, forty-five shares; Richard W. Young, twenty; Heber J. Grant, five; John Henry Smith, five; F. M. Lyman, five; O. F. Whitney, five; Moses Thatcher, five; B. H. Roberts, five; Joseph F. Smith, five. The remaining one hundred shares are deemed to be the property of the Company, to be sold by order of the Board of Directors. The private property of the stockholders is not liable for the obligations of the company.

The Board of Directors of the corporation for the first year is as follows: Junius F. Wells, President; Moses Thatcher, Vice-President; B. H. Roberts, Secretary and Treasurer; H. J. Grant and O. F. Whitney.

The Contributor was established in 1879, as the organ of the Mutual Improvement Associations, and at once met with popular favor as a representative magazine of home literature. It has succeeded remarkably in developing the literary talent and elevating the literary taste of the young people of Zion, being also read with interest by the older people of the community. Its field of usefulness is very great, and with the new company to harbor its interests it cannot fail to attain a conspicuous growth, large circulation, and to fully occupy the place designed for it. We wish the Contributor Company every success and commend the magazine it publishes to the patronage of the people.

Lehi Notes.—Our correspondent "Jim," from Lehi, under date of 6th inst., says:

"Last evening we had a visit from Prof. Brimhall, Supt. of the district schools of Utah Co., who gave us a very interesting lecture on intemperance, which was listened to with marked attention by both old and young. His lecture was illustrated with charts, etc., which made it all the more interesting to all.

"The holidays passed off here very lively. We had a few cases of drunkenness and a sore head or two, which enriched our city treasury somewhat, and also gave our Justice's Court a job or two on Christmas eve. A stabbing affray also happened at Cedar Fort, Henry Hacking, the son of John Hacking, Esq., of Cedar Fort, was stabbed in the arm by young Dorxater of the same place while at a party, without cause, so far as learned. The case was tried before Justice Webb, at Lehi, and a fine imposed of $10.00 and a little good advice administered, as the party who did the cutting was very young.

"During the holidays several parties were given by the Young People's Association; our choir gave us a fine concert, which was a grand success financially, and our Sunday school gave a variety entertainment for the benefit of that institution, which was a credit to all who took part in the same. The poor were not forgotten by our worthy Bishop, who sent some of the delicacies of the season to help cheer and make their hearts happy. Nor was the Bishop himself forgotten, our choir and brass band both called upon and serenaded him on the eve of Xmas, and on the morning of Christmas the employes of the People's Co-op. Institution presented him with a beautiful, gold-headed walking cane, as a memento of their appreciation of his kindness towards them. It was presented by W. E. Racker, secretary of the institution, with appropriate remarks. The brass band called in soon after and gave some of their fine selections and were in turn regaled with a sumptuous repast given by the Bishop.

"We still have a merry time in the future. The Sea of Ice Company is expected here soon; the Two Orphans Company of Springville will follow, and last, though not least, our old dramatic company of Lehi, who have been on the shelf so many years, have decided to come down, with J. W. Taylor, the old comedian, at their head, and give the citizens a good night's entertainment in the shape of "The Flower of the Forest."

"Snow is falling and the ring of the merry sleigh bells will soon be heard."

A "Temple of Justice!"—The case of the people vs. J. W. Farrell, convicted in the Justice's Court on Tuesday last of resorting to a house of ill-fame for lewdness, was called up in the Third District Court this morning, and on motion of P. L. Williams was dismissed in accordance with the doctrine enunciated by "I-refuse-to-prosecute" Warlan, and yet the regulation of such crimes is left to the local statutes.

THE Thirteenth Quorum of Seventies will meet, in the Twentieth Ward school house, on Monday next, Jan. 11th, 1886, at 7 p.m. The scattered members in the Eighteenth and Twentieth Wards are also desired to be present.

THOMAS C. JONES, Clerk.

New Roadmaster.—The following notice was issued by Genl. Superintendent John Sharp, of the Utah Central Railway, yesterday:

Mr. A. F. Doremus is appointed engineer in charge of roadway and bridges and roadmaster, with headquarters at Salt Lake City.

Mr. James Latimer, is appointed assistant road master, with headquarters at Juab, appointments to take effect at once.

Thistle Valley Items. — Brother August A. Hjorth, writing from Indianola, Sanpete Co., says the inhabitants of that place, who are a mixture of whites and Indians, are in a prosperous condition. The Relief Society of the place is doing better than it has done in the past. Its officers gathered up and distributed among the poor on New Years day a lot of the good things of the earth, which made the hearts of the recipients glad. The Primary Association is also doing a good work there among the children. Improvement associations have not been organized in that ward yet, but it is expected that they will be soon among both sexes. A good day school is in operation there, with 40 scholars in attendance, and the Sunday school is very well attended. Brothers F. Christensen and J. Mower, home missionaries from Fairview, lately visited the valley, and greatly encouraged the people by their instructions. A wish is expressed that a missionary who understands the Indian language might be sent there to labor more particularly for the benefit of the Lamanites.

There is not much snow in the valley, but the weather is cold. The thermometer registered ten degrees below zero at noon on the 8th inst.

An Interesting Picture.—A scene that is certain to arouse serious thoughts and revive interesting though painful memories in the minds of old-time Latter-day Saints who behold it, was presented to us this morning by C. W. Carter, the photographer, of this city. It is a photographic copy of an old lithographic print issued by S. Brannan, at the office of the Prophet, in New York, and illustrates "the extermination of the Latter-day Saints from the State of Missouri in the fall of 1838."

In the foreground of the picture is a tent, in which the court-martial is being held which sentenced the Prophet Joseph Smith and others to be shot in the presence of their families. In the rear is a body of soldiery, whom General Clark is informing that they shall have the honor of shooting the "Mormon" leaders. Still further in the background are depicted the town of Far West, with its barricade of logs, and some of the more blood-curdling atrocities to which the Saints were subjected at the time of the siege. Though not strictly truthful in all its details, the picture is well worth preserving as a reminder of one of the darkest scenes the Church has passed through and some of the most fiendish outrages ever committed by beings wearing the human form, the record of which will forever tarnish the escutchion of Missouri and this nation.

Mr. Carter has secured the copyright of the picture, and is issuing it for sale in two sizes, upon the lower margin of which are explanations of the scene.

Teachers' Association.—Pursuant to adjournment, the Salt Lake County Teachers' Association met in the Fourteenth Ward Assembly Hall, Saturday, Jan. 9, 1886, County Supt. Stewart, presiding. After the usual opening exercises and considerable miscellaneous business, the programme of the day was carried out as follows:

A recitation in primary geography, conducted by Miss Constance Neibaur, who gave a practical illustration of her method of introducing geography to new beginners. Quite an interesting exercise and enjoyed very much by all present.

Mr. T. F. Howells next followed on teaching penmanship. He first required a specimen of their writing, from his pupils, then showed them the necessity of having good penholders and pens, as good workmen require proper tools to accomplish their work. Gave them plenty of exercises, as practice makes perfect. Quite a number of questions were asked by the teachers.

In the "discussion on moral training," Prest. Stewart called upon A. S. Geddes, who made a few remarks upon the suuject, and C. F. Wilcox followed.

The question was then laid over with the other one for discussion.

Mr. Wm. Deane criticised the proceedings in a very able manner.

As the association adjourned to the lower room, singing was dispensed with.

The programme for Jan. 23, 1886, is as follows:

1. Lecture on drawing, Professor M. Lenzi.
2. Lecture on orthography, Mr. Louis Howells.
3. Hints on good books, Mr. J. H. Parry.
4. To what extent should play be allowed in the schoolroom at noon and recess, Mr. Wm. Shipley, Mr. A. W. Woolley, Misses E. Bowman and Kate Snedaker.
5. Continuation of discussion on moral training.

Critic, Miss E. Finch.
