F. D. RICHARDS,
JOS. F. SMITH.

Surrendered Himself.

This morning Bishop Elijah F. Sheets, of the Eighth Ward, against whom it is understood there has been an indictment for unlawful cohabitation, appeared at the United States Marshal's office and surrendered himself to custody. He was subsequently released on $2000 bail, the sureties being John Sharp and L. S. Hills.

Third District Court.

Proceedings today before Judge Sandford:

Patrick J. Moran vs. John W. Farrell et al.; verdict of $150 for plaintiff; 20 days allowed for motion for new trial.

A. C. Hammond vs. Alex. Glen; by consent continued to Nov. 21.

David S. Cook vs. Davis and Weber Counties Canal Company; suit for damages on trial before a jury. The canal of the defendant runs along a bluff in the plaintiff's property; on July 12, 1887, the canal burst, doing serious damage to the plaintiff's property by washing a large quantity of sand, etc., over about three acres of his land. Mr. Cook now asks for compensation for the loss resulting to him from the break.

New Officers of Z. C. M. I.

The usual monthly meeting of the board of directors of Z. C. M. I. was held yesterday. Of the business transacted, the following summary is gathered: The old board finished their business and adjourned sine die. The secretary and treasurer announced that the members of the new board had executed and filed their bonds, when the new board proceeded to organize. The following executive committee were elected: Moses Thatcher, H. J. Grant and Geo. Romney. Thos. G. Webber was elected superintendent, vice Horace S. Eldredge, deceased, and A. W. Carlson was elected assistant secretary and treasurer, of which office he will perform the active duties. This business completed, the board adjourned.

"Natural Gas."

"Natural Gas" will be presented at the Salt Lake Theatre for two nights—Thursday and Friday, October 18 and 19—by the comedians Donnelly and Girard and a great company, comprising the following artists: Jennie Yeomans, Jennie Satterlee, Ethel Corlette, Fanny Johnston, Josie Sadler, Maria Hornby, Leo Raymond, Mark Sullivan, Ben Collins, S. W. Keene, Joseph Jackson, Henry Donnelly and Eddie Girard.

The comedy success of last season, "Natural Gas," since its last production in this city, has been greatly improved, new music and business having been introduced.

The former production of this piece in this city, about a year ago, will be well remembered. It is of a class that takes well with the theatre-goers of this city.

Found Dead.

About 4 o'clock this morning a man was found dead in Peacock's saloon, Second South Street. He was lying on some chairs in a back room of the saloon, and had evidently been dead two or three hours. His name was William B. Bray, though he has been commonly known as Joe Davis. He was about 40 years of age, and had been addicted to the excessive use of intoxicants for a number of years. He is said to have been subject to epileptic fits, and it was supposed that it was one of these that carried him off. He was formerly a bailiff in the Third District Court, under Marshal Ireland's regime.

Today an inquest was held by Coroner George J. Taylor, and the jury took the view that the deceased came to his death from excessive drinking, their verdict recording it as "chronic alcoholism."

In the case of C. P. R. R. Co. vs. Abraham Hunsacker an order was entered continuing at cost of plaintiff.

In the case of Katy M. Brown vs. W. U. T. Co., an order was entered setting aside the default and allowing the case to proceed.

The case of Geo. S. Mason vs. the Union Pacific Railway Company was continued by consent.

W. H. Longhurst of Rich Co. made application for citizenship. He had come here before he was eighteen years old, but had only one witness to prove it. He presented his father's papers.

After asking him the general questions as to his age, nativity, and intentions, the court enquired, "And the principles of the American Constitution are endeared to you?"

"Yes, sir."

"Are you one of those who believe in polygamy?"

"Yes, sir."

"What is your belief concerning it?"

"I believe it to be a divine revelation."

"Is your belief in this principle of such a nature that you could obey this law, as against the principle?"

"I don't know," hesitatingly.

"If you were commanded to obey that principle, what would be your action?"

"I don't apprehend such a command."

"Well, what position do you hold in the church?"

"I am an Elder."

"What are the duties of an Elder?"

The applicant here explained the duties, one of them being "to preach."

"Does this involve the preaching of polygamy?"

"Not particularly."

"What have you advised the people in your preaching as to the principle of polygamy?"

"I have not advised them at all?"

The court then supposed the case of a member of the church who felt it his duty to enter into polygamy, asking advice regarding such a step and asked "what would you advise?"

"I am not prepared to say," was the answer.

The court then explained to him that his mere belief that polygamy was divinely commanded or sanctioned would not bar him from becoming a citizen, but he must state whether with that belief he was in a condition, under the present enforcement of the law to acquiesce to the provisions imposed by it. If he felt he could do this, there was no bar on this score preventing his admittance.

As he was not prepared to express his views on this point, his honor advised him to withdraw his application until some other time, and come again after having considered the matter more fully.

Concert.

The concert to be given in the Grand Opera House tomorrow night has for its object a purpose most laudable—relief for the yellow fever sufferers—which alone ought to call out a packed house. The best musical talent of our community will be marshaled for the occasion by Professors Krouse and Pedersen, and a fine programme will be rendered. It will embrace some solos by our best performers, and orchestral features of a high order.

PRIMARY FAIR.

Display of Children's Work in Farmington.

FARMINGTON, Oct. 2, 1888.

Editor Deseret News:

Under the management of President Aurelia S. Rogers and her counselors Julia Herr and Lucy Clark, the primary Associations of Davis Stake held a fair in the court house at Farmington, beginning Sept. 27 and ending Oct. 1.

A great variety of articles were on exhibition, showing skilful handi work on the part of the little ones who had contributed to the fair.

Articles worthy of special mention were miniature frame houses, cupboards, wheelbarrow, garden rake, hayrack, fruit dryer, wash-board, tops, puzzles, etc.; a good display of melons, squashes, beans, beets, corn, onions and other garden products; also a choice collection of fruits and flowers of different kinds, and a nicely arranged variety of quilts, tidies, cushions, rugs, mats, laces, carpets and artificial flowers.

Eighty quarts of canned fruit, thirty-five glasses of jelley—a collection of herbs, a cheese and one quilt of the articles exhibited were donated to the Deseret Hospital.

Twelve yards of carpet and $10.75 the proceeds resulting from the sale of two quilts, were donated to the Manti Temple.

The Stake and Association officers are entitled to many thanks from the parents of the children they have taken so much interest in instructing since the Primary Associations were organized.

Great credit is due Brother James and Sister Jane Smith, and Miss Kate M. Chase, for the excellent arrangement of the exhibits, their general supervision of the fair and the gratifying success attained. OBSERVER.

THE STAKE ACADEMY

Full and Running Over.

We are authorized to state that it will be useless for any persons at present to apply for the admission of any more students to the Salt Lake Stake Academy, which is now filled to its utmost capacity. On an average, about ten applications daily have to be refused for want of accommodation. So soon as there are any vacancies the public will be notified through these columns. People at a distance should pay special attention to this announcement, that they may not put themselves to the expense of sending intending pupils to this city and then find admission to the academy impossible.

Address Wanted.

Mr. G. D. Batcheldor, of Sidney, Fremont County, Iowa, desires to learn the address of Adam Smith, whose wife's name was Melissa, and who left Sidney about 1857 or 1858 and came to Utah.

San Marcial, N. M., October 5.—One of the most miraculous escapes from instant death that ever happened occurred William Elderton, a section foreman at a small station about fifty miles south of this city, Wednesday afternoon. While he was at work on the railroad track a thunder-storm gathered, during which a bolt of lightning descended, and, striking him first on the head, ran down his neck, burning those portions of his body terribly. It then ran down his right side to his waist. The current was then attracted by his watch chain, and it changed its course to his left side, striking his watch chain violently, after which it ran down his left leg and carried the sole off his left shoe. Mr. Elderton passed through this city last night on his way to the hospital at Las Vegas. The hair on the right side of his head is entirely burned off, and his right side, as far as his waist, and his left leg are so terrible burned that it will be some time before he recovers.

YESTERDAY T. G. Gill and Alfred Isom left their teams unhitched in the streets. The act cost them $2 each.

JOSEPH DAVIS was fined $5 in the Police Court today, for having been drunk.

THE LAUGH CURE.

All sorts of isms, pathies, and "cures" have had their day, their disciples, and more or less success, but the "Laugh Cure" we have always with us, or ought to have, for it is sure to benefit even where it may fail to cure. Since the most ancient "chestnuts" will often provoke the heartiest laugh, especially when served up in a new dress, we can afford to forgive the man who has collected many old and new favorites in a paper covered book called "Medical Sense and Nonsense," for 10 cents. Illustrated. It is confidently offered as an antidotal to the "blues," stimulating to the diaphragm, and accelerating to the blood circulation, and is served out by mail, "on receipt of price," by the Murray Hill Publishing Company, 129 East 28th Street, New York. d1

MR. T. C. GRIGGS,

Assistant Leader of Music at the Tabernacle and Manager of the Fifteenth Ward Co-op., Salt Lake City, says:

While camping at City Creek Cañon, my wife discovered that our youngest child had become deaf, and notified me to come immediately, so as to take them home. It seemed to me almost improbable, for when they left home her hearing was perfect; but all our endeavors to make her hear seemed fruitless.

We brought the child home to this city, thinking the deafness only transitory, but the general health of the little one became impaired and a rash covered her head, face and neck.

Seeing that time did not help the case, as she was rapidly growing worse, about the 15th of September we were recommended by Mr. Sears to Drs. Wheeler & Hasbrouck, as he thought they would give us an honest diagnosis and that their treatment would cure the child. Acting upon his advice, we consulted the doctors; they gave us hopes of restoring the child's health and hearing.

After three weeks she is restored to hearing, the rash has disappeared, and her general health is better than for many weeks.

Drs. Wheeler & Hasbrouck are located at 260 S. Main Street, Raybould's Block. Catarrh and chronic diseases. CONSULTATION FREE.
