Is it any wonder,
In view of the immense amount of adulterated baking powder used by the masses of people in food, is it any wonder that there are diseased gums, decayed teeth and disordered digestion? To escape these evils, use Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder, the only kind made by a Physician, with great care.

EVENING NEWS.

Friday, December 7, 1877.

PRICE OF GOLD.

Corrected daily by the National Bank
SALT LAKE CITY, December 7, 1877.
Buying at $1.03 1/2; Selling at $1.05 1/2.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Thermometer 46 degrees F. in the shade at 1 p.m. to-day. Clear.

Detained.—Hon. Geo. Q. Cannon was in Chicago on Sunday, where he was detained one day on account of having missed the railroad connection at that point.

Cold.—The weather in Cache Valley of late has been very clear and cold, the mercury having been generally in the vicinity of zero. There has been but little snow thus far.

Lecture To-night.—There will be a meeting of the Central Committee of the Y. M. M. I. Association to-night at the Council House, beginning at 7 o'clock. Elder Joseph F. Smith will be present and will deliver a lecture.

Hook and Ladder Company.—The members of the Eagle Hook and Ladder Company are hereby notified that there will be a special meeting at the Fireman's Hall tomorrow evening (Saturday), at half-past seven o'clock. A punctual attendance is desired.

By order of the Foreman.

Married.—Yesterday, at their own residence, in the 10th Ward, Mr. William Grimsdell and Miss Jane G. Buckle were united in wedlock, Judge Alex. C. Pyper performing the ceremony. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. William Grimsdell, an employee of this office. The bride is the daughter of Mr. John Buckle, of Buckle & Son, tailors of this City.

We wish the young couple a prosperous voyage over the ocean of life.

A Commencement.—The good people of Brighton Ward have commenced the erection of a new meeting house. The foundation has been laid and covered up for the winter, preparatory to erecting the body of the structure in the Spring. Bishop Schoenfeld supports the site, deeding the ground to the people.

Attempted Suicide.—The following is a special to the NEWS—

Phovo, Dec. 7th.

Desert News.
Robert Witt, aged 22, son of J. W. Witt, of Heber City, after taking his partner home from a dance, at that place, at 230 this morning, attempted suicide, by shooting himself in the left breast, supposed fatally.

Postponement.—A telegram, received from Mr. J. K. Emmet, states that, owing to his extraordinary success, at Virginia City, he has been induced to remain over one night longer, postponing his engagement until Saturday and Monday, instead of Friday and Saturday, as originally advertised. Tickets purchased for Friday will be good for Saturday. Those for Saturday good for Monday.

American Fork.—We were pleased to meet with our old friend Bishop L. E. Harrington, to-day. We learn from him that the people of his diocese are engaged making a good wagon road in American Fork Canyon, for the purpose of carrying on the lumber and timber business.

A new addition to the meeting house in the town has been erected, 30 by 50 feet, the building being now large and commodious. The old house having been much too small to meet the wants of the people.

Educational matters are flourishing in that place. Four schools are in operation.

Mischiefous Boys.—Last night a gentleman who was passing the city pottery, lower part of East Temple Street, caught a couple of boys throwing rocks through the windows of that building, smashing the glass and knocking over and breaking pieces of crockery that were in sight. He gave chase to the lads, caught one of them and delivered him to a policeman. He also obtained the name of the other.

The smashing of windows of unoccupied offices and dwellings by reckless boys is a common nuisance, and when they are caught such doings they should be captured, as that one was last night, that a few examples may serve to check this species of mischief.

A Pleasant Surprise.—Yesterday evening Brother George H. Taylor, superintendent of the Fourteenth Ward Sunday School, who has been connected with that institution about fifteen years, was notified that he was wanted at the Ladies' Relief Society Hall of the ward.

On reaching there he found a large company assembled, composed of Sunday school teachers and scholars, pupils of the theological class and members of the ward generally. After singing a poem, by Sister East, addressed to Brother Taylor, was read, after which one of the scholars, in behalf of the Sunday school, presented him with a handsome silver ice pitcher and bowl.

The affair was a complete surprise to Brother Taylor, and he was somewhat overwhelmed. He replied in a neat and fitting speech, in which he modestly stated that the success of the Sunday school was not altogether owing to his efforts, but also to those of his co-workers in the same cause.

Brief and happy speeches were made by President John Taylor and Elder Wilford Woodruff, when an excellent supper, which had been prepared and spread, was partaken of, the balance of the evening being spent in musical and other exercises of a sociable character.

District Court.

The only case before the court to-day was that of Samuel K. K. v. Lord Claud Hamilton. The trial was concluded, and the case taken under advisement.

Mischief.—Last night some malicious or mischievous person smashed a window in the house of Brother John H. Pieknell, in the Tenth Ward, by throwing a couple of rocks through it.

Police Court.—Yesterday afternoon a young fellow named Hewlett made a disturbance and abused and resisted the officers when they arrested him. This morning he was fined, on two separate charges, $10 and $25.

William McBride, a discharged soldier, stole a pair of drawers from Mr. Reggell's clothing store. He was fined $5.

Philharmonic.—The concert given by the Philharmonic Society, at St. Mark's School-room, last evening, was an artistic success. The audience manifested their pleasure by frequent applause, the only regret of the evening being caused by the unavoidable absence of Mrs. Hamilton, which was quite a disappointment.

Buck's Forty-Sixth Psalm constituted "part first" of the programme, and was rendered in a very efficient manner, particularly the choruses, "The Lord of Hosts is with Us," and the martell, "Be Still, Then."

Part Second was miscellaneous, and the various songs, duets and sextette gave ample opportunity to Mrs. Seigel, Miss Shearman and Messrs. Black, Schnell, Hollister, Young and Carlisle for a display of their vocal powers. Mrs. Seigel was especially fine. The instrumental selections by Messrs. Carless, Pratt and Kennell were characteristic of their well known ability.

The Society should feel encouraged by the success attained at their first concert.

Shooting Scrape.—Last evening Archibald Anderson, who resides near Washup, Summit County, arrived in this city to receive surgical attendance. He had three backshots in his body, one in the lower part of the jaw, near the neck, another in the right arm, and the third in the left wrist. They were shot into him on Wednesday afternoon, as he was on his way home from Washup, by one of two brothers named Frazier, who waylaid him. After being shot he drew his pistol, and he and one of the Fraziers, not the one who did the first shooting, fired at each other, without doing further injury. Mr. Anderson then retreated to his home.

The difficulty arose from a dispute about a water ditch which ran through Mr. Anderson's land. The matter was taken into a justice's court by the Fraziers and the case was tried by a jury of six men, who decided that there was no cause of action, causing the complainants to feel even more bitterly against Mr. Anderson than previously.

It is expected that the Fraziers will be arrested for attempted murder.

Dr. Benedict extracted two of the bullets from Mr. Anderson's body. The wounds are not necessarily dangerous. The most serious one is that located near the neck, being in close proximity to an important blood vessel.

"Fritz Our Cousin German." This is what the Virginia city press has to say about the artist who is to appear at our Theatre to-morrow evening, his appearance to-night being impossible.

Mr. Joseph K. Emmet opened at National Guard Hall, yesterday, playing to a fair matinee in the afternoon, and to a packed house at night. That Emmet's "Fritz" is popular on both sides of the Atlantic, is attested by the fact that he has been produced two hundred nights at the Royal Adelphi, London, and over two thousand times in America. The story is a simple, yet pleasing one. Fritz's father and mother and baby sister left England some eighteen years prior to the opening scene in the play. For a time they live in New York; then the mother dies; the father goes to California, makes his fortune; returns to New York; dies; and the child is adopted by Col. Crafston, who appropriates its inheritance to his own use. The boy, Fritz, remains in his native village, and while pursuing his studies, principally of a musical character, falls in love with a pretty German girl, Katerina, who he moves to London, and then to New York. Fritz arrives in New York, and is met by his Katerina. The curtain rises, disclosing the lovers seated upon the luggage in Castle Garden. He is singing a low sweet lullaby to Katerina, accompanying himself upon the guitar. Col. Crafston and his daughter Julia, and his adopted daughter Louise, pause for a moment near the singer. Louise is strangely affected by the song, its words and music, and the soft accents of the voice, faintly awakening memories of childhood's days. Lawyer Grim, hitherto a pliant tool of Col. Crafston's, witnesses the attraction of Louise and, upon hearing Fritz's story, attempts to solve the mystery, and unite brother and sister. Fritz is introduced into the concert room of Colonel Crafston, and entertains the young ladies with songs and dances. Later, he wanders out into the grounds, and faintly touching his guitar, sings a sweet song to his sister, loved yet lost. Louise approaches and listens. Fritz tells her the story of her life and his own. She will not believe him, and orders him to quit the grounds. Music and memory are busy at her heart-strings and in her brain, and she asks him to stay and tell her again. Then with hope and doubt evenly balanced, and all a brother's love welling up in his heart, he warbles the lullaby with which her father had hushed her to sleep in the cradle of her youth. Light breaks through the clouds of years, and she is weeping for joy on her brother's bosom. Here is the grand idea of the play—the all-powerful influence of music in the German heart.

Fritz "Water-Cress Girl," and "The Mountain-Guide" are thoroughly artistic representations; his "Milk-Woman" and "Bologna-Sausage Boy," capital hits; his "Querkant Receipt," and his "Hello, Shanghai, how is de Food?" very liable to draw one into conversation. But the beautiful and the living idea of the play is seen in the reunion of the brother and sister through the instrumentality of music. It was this which the audience carried away in their hearts.

Genealogical.

R. F. Cummings, Jr., is making preparations to go to the eastern States, for the purpose of obtaining the genealogies of such members of the Church as came from that part of the Union, or whose ancestors were natives of that region, who may wish to secure their services. While on his recent mission there he did considerable work in that line and acquainted himself with such facilities as will enable him to obtain family genealogies with a fair degree of completeness.

Latter-day Saints from the eastern States will doubtless appreciate this opportunity to employ a competent person to obtain their genealogies, as it is a most important part of the work required at their hands by the Author of the gospel to perform the ordinances of salvation for their dead.

In another column Brother Cummings' advertisement appears.

DIED.

In the 20th Ward, S. L. City, Thursday, December 6th, 1877, of typhoid fever and inflammation of the brain, ALBERT EDWARD, son of Geo. A. and Lizzie W. Combs, aged two years and eleven months.
