

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

WORTH KNOWING.—If true, the following, from a newspaper correspondent, is invaluable. He says:—

"For many years I have worn India rubber waterproofs; but I will buy no more, for I have learned that good Scottish tweed can be made perfectly impervious to rain, and, moreover, I have learned how to make it so; and for the benefit of my readers, I will here give the recipe: In a bucket of soft water, put half a pound of sugar of lead and half a pound of powdered alum; stir this at intervals until it becomes clear; then pour it off into another bucket, and put the garment therein, and let it be in for twenty-four hours; then hang it up to dry, without wringing it. Two of my party, (a lady and gentleman) have worn garments thus treated in the wildest storm of wind and rain, without getting wet. The rain hangs upon the cloth in globules. In short, they are really waterproof. The gentleman walked, a fortnight ago, nine miles in a storm of rain and wind such as you rarely see in the South, and when he slipped off his overcoat, his underclothes were as dry as when he put them on."

FUNERAL OBSEQUIES.—The funeral obsequies of Miss Annie Lockhart took place this morning at the 13th Ward meeting house. The stand was draped with black, and the Hall was crowded to overflowing with citizens, who had assembled to pay the last tribute of respect to the deceased, a stranger, who had died far from her home and kindred, and native land. Among those present were President Young and many prominent citizens; also Kate Denin, the actress, who seemed to be deeply affected, and all the gentlemen and ladies of the Salt Lake dramatic company and the attaches of the Theatre. On the stand were Elder George Q. Cannon, President Joseph Young and Bishop E. D. Woolley. The Tabernacle choir, with its leader, Brother George Careless, and the 13th Ward choir, led by Bro. John Tullidge, sen., were present and combined. Professor Orson Pratt accompanied on the organ and played voluntaries while the audience was passing out.

The service commenced with the hymn, "O my Father, thou that dwellest."

The opening prayer was offered by Elder Geo. Q. Cannon. Hymn.

"Farewell all earthly honors."

Elder Geo. Q. Cannon read a portion of the 15th chapter of the first epistle of Paul to the Corinthians, and made suitable remarks thereon.

The hymn,

"We have met dear friends and brethren," was then sung, and the assembly dismissed by prayer by President Joseph Young.

After the conclusion of the services the coffin was borne near to the entrance of the hall by the pall bearers, Messrs. John B. Kelly, William Derr, R. F. Neslen, Daniel J. McIntosh, John C. Graham and Jas. M. Hardie, when the audience, which had hitherto remained seated, arose and passed out, all who desired having the opportunity of taking a last look at the features of the deceased.

The remains were followed to the cemetery by Managers Caine and Clawson, Kate Denin and ladies, Treasurer, Thos. Williams, and Messrs. Margetts, Lindsay, Thorne, Crowther, Harris, Reed, Haines, Baker and Scrase; and Mesdames Bowring, De Bar, Misses Ward, Clive, Evans and Platt, all of the Dramatic Company, and a large number of citizens.

The coffin was very elegant, being covered with purple velvet and silver-mounted. On the lid was a plate with the following inscription:—

"Annie Lockhart, aged 32. Died Nov'r. 18, 1869."

The portion of the lid covering the face of the deceased was thrown back while the congregation was passing out, affording a full view of her features.

After the interment, while in the cemetery, Manager Caine thanked President Young and other citizens for their carriages, and all present for their attendance on the occasion.

Everything that could be done for the deceased lady's comfort, both before and after death, was done by Managers Caine & Clawson and by those in attendance upon her; for being a stranger in a strange land the keenest sympathy of all around her were enlisted and each vied with the other in acts of kindness in soothing her passage to the grave.

THE NEPHI SHOOTING SCRAPE.—A letter from Elder Samuel Pitchforth, in relation to the shooting scrape which took place near Nephi city, on the 12th instant, informs us that, upon investigation of the case, it appeared that Hewitt, the man who was shot, had been engaged by Mr. Myers and his partner, a man named Hallock, to take charge of a ranch, some sixty-five miles from Treasure Hill, White Pine co., Nevada, and that he, Hewitt, had sold the cattle belonging to the rancho and "cleared out," taking with him two wagons, six animals and what other loose property he could find. As soon as Myers heard of the robbery he started in pursuit, accompanied by a man named Long, and travelling day and night, they overtook Hewitt near Nephi. The shooting, however, it was proved before the Magistrate at Nephi, was accidental, and Myers was discharged.

LEVAN.—Bro. James Wilson, of Levan, Juab county, writing on the 14th instant, says that everything is prospering in that settlement. In two or three weeks they will have their meeting house finished. Improvements are going on fast; many new houses have been built, and some of the citizens are putting up good granaries for the purpose of storing their grain. A good many people are removing from other locations to Levan and building the place up very fast. Sickness is unknown there, and their stock range, for summer and winter, cannot be excelled by any in the Territory.

FROM SATURDAY'S DAILY.

TO ALL SEVENTIES WHO HAVE NOT BEEN PLACED IN QUORUMS.—They are hereby notified to send in their names and genealogies to Joseph Young, Sen., Salt Lake City, and they will be placed in Quorums and notified accordingly.

Presidents of Quorums in the city will please inform me of any vacancies existing in their respective Quorums.

JOSEPH YOUNG, SEN., Salt Lake City, Nov. 19th, 1869.

PROGRESS OF THE UTAH CENTRAL.—A telegram per Deseret line says the rails were laid to the switch at Kaysville last evening. Iron is on hand to complete the road to Farmington.

HOME MADE BOOTS AND SHOES.—We understand that it is the intention of Mr. William Jennings to open an establishment in the early part of the coming week for the sale of home-made boots and shoes. The business will be conducted on the premises lately occupied by Messrs. T. & W. Taylor, on the West side of East Temple Street. This is a good, and very necessary move. There is a large market here for this class of goods, and with the discarding of the old-fogy system of manufacture, and the importation of machinery with the latest improvements, with men thoroughly posted in the method of using it, it cannot help being lucrative.

If manufacturers can import the raw material from the East or West and make it into boots and shoes here and realize a paying profit, we can see no reason why they cannot, by using every facility within their reach, manufacture both the leather and the boots and shoes here and make it pay still better. We are glad to see somebody ready to inaugurate the movement, and hope the experiment will prove successful, and have no doubt that it will if the public will sustain home manufactures as they ought to do and as it is manifestly their true interest to do.

CO-OPERATIVE DRUG STORE.—This Branch of Zion's Co-operative establishment will open on Monday, with the largest and best assortment of goods in the Territory. In addition to drugs and chemicals of all kinds the stock will include the choicest wines and liquors and all descriptions of paints and oils. Physicians' prescriptions will be carefully filled, and all orders from city or country promptly attended to.

RETURNED MISSIONARY.—Bro. Henry J. McCullough, who left here on a mission to England, on the 20th of May, '67, reached this city last evening. He labored first in the Sheffield Conference; but lately, has presided over the Redding Conference. He has enjoyed himself finely while away, but expresses great pleasure at again reaching the valleys of the mountains. He left for his home in Fillmore this afternoon.

FROM FRIDAY'S DAILY.

LECTURE.—Mrs. St. Clair has made arrangements to lecture in the Theatre to-morrow evening. Subject, "Six Months in Utah." This is the lecture that has created so much comment in the press of the West, and on account of which the lecturer has been accused of being a partisan and hireling of the Church Authorities here.

The entertainment will conclude with the famous burlesque entitled, "The Latest Edition of Black Eyed Susan," in which, Kate Denin will appear. Miss Annie Ward will also appear on this occasion, having kindly consented to postpone her departure in order to take part in the performance of this burlesque.

A. RUNAWAY.—Yesterday morning a span of horses, drawing a buggy in which were two small boys, when near to Bro. B. H. Schuttler's residence in the 20th Ward took fright, and started off southward at a furious rate. One of the little fellows jumped out, the other was to timid to do so or, probably held on in hope of controlling the team, which, however, kept on for some distance; and in attempting to turn eastward one of the horses ran against a shade tree and broke his neck, falling dead instantly. The carriage was smashed badly, but very luckily the little fellow it contained escaped with only a severe fright.

DISTRICT COURT.—Pursuant to adjournment, the Third Judicial District Court met this morning. His Honor Judge O. F. Strickland, of the First District acting on the request of Hon. C. C. Wilson, the presiding Judge, he being now on business in the east.

The docket was called and one case disposed of.

The traverse Jury was adjourned till the 20th of December. Court adjourned till to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock.

"DISTINGUISHED MORMON VISITORS."—With this heading prefixed, the following paragraph appears in the Omaha Herald of the 18th.

"We had great pleasure in receiving calls yesterday from Hon. W. H. Hooper, delegate in Congress from Utah. Mr. Hooper left for Washington last evening, and is in excellent health and spirits—the same genial gentleman that he was when we first knew him fifteen years ago.

"Mr. Hooper was accompanied by Mr. W. C. Staines, who is the agent of Brigham Young in Omaha, concerning the iron for the Utah Central Railway, Gen. Burton, and Mr. Theodore McKean.

"These gentlemen all unite in confirming the statements of other less known citizens of Utah concerning the alleged schism among them to the effect that nothing of the kind exists.

"This party also say that the Utah Central road is still going ahead, and that they took a ride on it as they came down over thirteen miles of completed line from Ogden to the flourishing little town of Kaysville."

The same paper contains a letter signed "Penobscottville" dated "Dakota City, Nov. 18th," giving an account of a lecture on "Mormonism," delivered at that place by Dr. J. D. M. Crockwell. The writer says the Doctor was known to most of the old pioneers in that region, and for two hours he addressed his audience, proving that polygamy was sanctioned, or at least "winked" at by the Old Testament. "Penobscottville" says, the lecture "was really interesting to those of us who wished to learn the interior workings of the system of 'Mormonism.'" And he adds in conclusion,

"I must not fail to state that the women of our village were much incensed when they heard that the old doc. had four wives, and was liable to quadruple the number at any convenient time in the near future."

HEARD FROM.—A letter from Elder Andrew Galloway, dated the 18th inst., written from Utica, Oneida Co., N. Y., says that he and Elder Thomas Higgs reached that place on the 11th instant, and had met with a hospitable reception.

SAN PETE.—Our traveling agent, writing from Fort Ephraim, on the 16th inst., says "I attended meeting at this place on Sunday and from the fullness of the house I judge the people here are enjoying the spirit of their religion. This settlement is one of the most thriving in this part of the Territory. The people are mostly Scandinavians, industrious, frugal and united. They are proud of their Bishop, as all who are acquainted with Bishop Peterson and his go-ahead qualities will acknowledge they have reason to be.

I notice many improvements since I was down here last spring. The carpenters, joiners and cabinet makers have established a manufactory upon the co-operative system, one of the best in the Territory, and their success has been such that the people talk strongly of starting immediately other branches of business upon the same plan. A co-operative store is now also being carried on successfully and goods are sold as cheaply as at any store south of Salt Lake City."

ST. GEORGE.—By letter from Bro. Joseph E. Johnson, dated Nov. 8th, we are told that he has just got up and enclosed the pioneer wine house, a two-story building. The weather there was then "charming, everything green and lovely, flowers and plants as green as mid-summer, and strawberries ripening most deliciously. They have had grapes ripe since the 10th of July—four months of grapes, daily ripe and luscious."
