GREAT BRITAIN REAT BRITAIN STANDS BY JAPAN

Whatever Latter's Peace Terms May be. She Has Sympathetic Approval of England.

SUCCESTIONS FROM WASHINGTON

As to How Cause of Peace Might be Secured Do Not Change the British Government.

Washington, July 36 .- Japan comes to Washington conference assured that, whatever her peace terms, they will have the sympathetic approval of Great Britain. Several auggestions from Washington to London that the cause of peace would be served by an explanation to Japan from her ally fa-Noring moderation in her demands upon Russia have not availed to change the British government in its apparents unalterable determination to stand by Japan, however severe she makes her conditions of peace.

Nor has the British government seen its way clear to render assistance to Washington in the efforts which this overnment is making to obtain an ar-istice. Advices reaching here show that London is opposed to an armistice until Japan has been satisfied that Russin's plenipotentiaries are prepared to do more than discuss means of ending the war; if Russia is ready to concjude peace and has so empowered her ipienipotentiaries. Great Britain, it is believed, might favor an armistice, but even in such event it is said she would not be willing to offer Japan advice on the subject,

It is understood in Washington, Lord Lansdowne's position is that, as the loyal ally of Japan, Great Britain car afford to take no step nor assume at attitude that would in the remotest degree redound to the advantage of Ja-pan's enemy. However much London may wish peace for humane reasons, her lavally to may wish peace for humane reasons, her loyalty to Japan, whose pledged ally she is, prevents her even from indirectly bringing pressure to bear by suggestions, advice or otherwise, at Tokio regarding negotiations, the effect of which might serve to moderate Japan's peace conditions or hastein a truce. When Japan asks her ally for advice the Lendon government, it is dvice the London government, said, is prepared immediately to give i but this advice will be based on Japan's interest as a primary consideration. Nor is this attitude on the part of the London government mislaterpreted in Washington, as indicating that its officials do not share in the wish of the neutral powers for peace. It has beer made plain that the activity of the president has the full sympathy of the British peaple, although their first thought, it is declared, must be in the interest of their ally.

At the same time the London government, in its exchanges with the American embassy in London, has not hesi tated to declare its confidence that Ja pan's terms will not be unreasonable viewed in the light of the results of the war. As it was recently expressed one cognizant of the British attimegotiations preceding the war or since the war began, found Tokio assuming an unreasonable position. Japan has been exceedingly reasonable throughout this struggle, and we are not at all apprehensive that she will bring to Washhington demands that are immed-

Washington demands that are immoderate or unreasonable."
Believing, as official Washington does, that Japan will not insist on the dismantlement of Vladivostok, should Russia fail to agree to it in return for the neutralization of Port Arthur, the cession of Sakhalin, which it is understood will be among the essential con-ditions, will, the officials here believe prove the most serious obstacle to peace in the far east. Sakhalin had not been captured when the president initiated his efforts to bring the bellig-gerents together. The fact that up to that time Japan had not taken a foot of Russian territory simplified, in the opinion of Washington and Berlin, the oblem of bringing about peace nego-

It is understood conight from a source which, although not official, is well informed, that Russia will vigorously oppose the cession of Sakhaim. Whether, in the event of Japan's insistance on this as a condition precedent to peace, Russia will yield, is a matter of speculation so far as the officials here are concerned, but in quarters friendly to Russia serious doubts are expressed. tiations. Russia serious doubts are expressed whether M. Witte brings with him the authorization to yield Russian territory whether he will be willing to ask or whether he will be willing to ask for auch authority.

Keen interest is feit here in the negotiations, which, it is understood, are making substantial headway between Japao and England, looking to the renewal of the Anglo-Japanese alliance. The scope of the alliance, it is known, will considerably exceed the present union, though to what extent neither Europe nor Washington has been able to learn. The announcement of the main points of the new alliance soon after the conclusion of the Washington sonference would not surprise dipconference would not surprise dip omatic circles here.

London, July 31 .- The Daily Teles Rraph's correspondent on board the Kalser Wilhelm der Grosse on which M. Witte, the Russian peace envoy, is a passenger, sends an interview which he has had with M. As it is, M. Witte said, he regarded himself rather as an imperial courier sent to ascertain the terms of Japan. He was prepared to make peace, nevertheless, he added, as his powes were very complete, and he would discuss the demands based on Japan's actual military. mands based on Japan's actual military and naval successes in a business like spirit of give and take. PEROR OF CHINA. The emperor of China has recently conferred upon Wilbur E. Houpt, an attorney of Buffalo, the decoration of the order of the Double Dragon. I seems that Mr. Houpt was a classmate at Yale of the special Chinese fail commissioner sent to America last summer, and the latter to show hi friendship obtained the order from the Chinese court. The decoration is a splendid jewel, the body covered with a green enamel inscribed with the legend of the order in gold letters. The center contains a fine display of sapphires. The whole is encircled by sunrise argent. On the margin of the field are twin dragons trying to swallow a rising sun of coral.
