Corner Crosby,

THE EVENING NEWS.
Wednesday, Nov. 23, 1874.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THE THERMOMETER 56 degrees F. in the shade, at 1 p.m. to-day. Cloudy.

Thanksgiving Day.—The printers, like the rest of the great public, desire to keep Thanksgiving Day, in accordance with the proclamation of the President of the United States and the Governor of this Territory, consequently there will be no issue of the News to-morrow.

Littell's Living Age for Nov. 21 contains "The Mystics of the Fourteenth Century," "Story of Valentine," "Soudley in his Sings," "Alice Lorraine," "Mr. Bryant's Birthday," "Mr. J. Stuart Mill's Religious Confession," etc.

Music Received.—"Hymn of the Pilgrims," from Wagner's Opera of "Der Tannhauser," by Oscar Mayo; "The Hidden Path," a ballad by George F. Root; and "Pit-a-Pat" polka, b. f. l. Bristow. Published by John Church & Co., 66 W. Fourth Street, Cincinnati.

Fine Residence.—Mr. Le Grand Young has had a fine residence built on South Temple street, a short distance east of the Eagle garage. It is a good, substantial building, and well situated. The enclosing wall in front of it, on a line with the street, is in course of being lowered.

More Sneak Thieving.—Day before yesterday the Wardrobe Brothers, carpenters, were at work on the new residence of Mr. David P. Kimball, in course of erection, on the bench, north-west of City Creek. They left the building a moment while it rained; they left a quantity of tools under some rustic siding, but when they returned their tools had vanished. A sneak thief had been there while they were away.

Leslie's Newspaper.—Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper has reached its one thousandth number, and in commemoration thereof a beautiful presentation plate, entitled "Meditation," and a supplement, showing the progress of the Newspaper during the last twenty years, is given with the memorial number. The same number also contains the commencement of Parjeou's holiday story of "The King of No-Land." May be had at Dwyer's.

Conspicuously Exact.—This morning a deputy H. S. marshal presented himself before an individual with a subpoena, requiring him to appear as a witness in a case pending before the Court. The document was read, but the seal of the Court not being upon it, the person, thus summoned, said he would not badge until that part of the judicial endorsement was obtained, and the marshal had no alternative.

Fine "Murphies."—This morning we saw a sample of potatoes, raised by Brother Perigine Sessions, of Bountiful. We had the curiosity to weigh a couple of them, which the party bringing them to the office said were the average size, and found that each of them turned the scale at two pounds. They were of two kinds, the New Hampshire and the Chili, which had been raised on the same ground for fifteen years successively.

Morning Court Proceedings.—This morning the public could not get admittance to the Federal Court room for some time after the usual time because of the deputy marshal not being able to find the key of the west door, and the spectators had therefore to gain ingress by passing through the marshal's office. The Court showed some symptoms of indignation at this circumstance, and said if Marshal Maxwell could not prevent such an occurrence he could and would do so. The Marshal was sent for but could not be found, when the chief deputy, Mr. A. K. Smith was admonished about seeing that a recurrence of the circumstance did not take place.

In the matter of the first paper of B. T. Stewart having been destroyed while the building was burned and the evidence was burned and the affidavit asserting that he had taken off his declarator papers, Proceedings. Attorney General, after mature reflection on the subject, he had concluded that to grant the final papers of the applicant on the ground stated would be establishing a bad precedent, in which view the Court concurred.

A more named Forbes, brought down with the weight of eight summers, appeared in Court as an applicant for naturalization. He was very hard of hearing, and the Court, in catching him, had to step down from the rostrum close to the applicant, and pitch his voice upon a high key. The gentleman was a resident of Kayville. When asked if he intended to obey the laws he answered, "My native Scotch dialect, that I speak with fluency like a native of the north." He called originally from Fifehire, Scotland, but whether it was "Frie the Law Toon O' Kirkcaddy" was not stated.

Some other applicants were not heard, when Judge Sutherland left to leave to make a plea of abatement in a criminal case, when the Court stated that he, Mr. Sutherland, could only be permitted to do so when the prosecuting attorney was present. It was suggested that Mr. Carey was probably in the jury room, and a message could easily be sent to him by the Marshal, but it was arranged that the case of Cora Conway vs. Jeter Clift et al. be proceeded with, as the plea could be heard by the Court some time during the day, and an arrangement had been made between Mr. Sutherland and

Immense Bargains
RELIABLE TESTIMONY.

CARL C. ASMUSSEN,
 BEING very desirous to dispose of all the fine Jewelry, Watches, Clocks, and Optical Goods, at the lowest possible price, I have a large chance for the public for immediate sale.

THE JEWELRY is selected with the utmost care both for beauty and excellence. The work has been exposed to the public both for advantage and good selling.

All goods are warranted.

Appended are testimonials from most reliable gentlemen well known in the Territory:

The Watch I bought of you in 1897 got most excellently never varies a minute has never had any repairs to it since I bought it. Although it has been exposed to hard usage.

A. C. BEWITT,
 Big Horn, D. T.

"The Watch I bought of you last year is just as good as new. It has been exposed to having lost it twice in the water, once the depth of six feet, besides a great many other hardships, and stands all with perfect ease, being always right to time."

John Salvo, Camp Douglas,

"The Watch I bought from you is all that can be desired. As a timekeeper it beats anything I ever had, and stands the shocks and rough usage without the least variation."

John Salvo, Camp Douglas,

And the fine Gold recommends for Messrs. W. C. Olmsted, Salt Lake City; C. J. Lambert, Paper Mill, Salt Lake City; C. J. Lambert, Jewelry Instructor, Salt Lake City; C. J. Lambert, Architect, Salt Lake City; Cyrus Bates, Tooele City; Bishop, Salt Lake City; Bishop, Salt Lake City; Archibald Gardner, West Jordan; L. S. Stevens, Willow Creek, and many hundred others.
