(Special Correspondence.)

PROVO, June 19 .- Two petitions askwhippings administered to boys at the Institution with leather straps, the whippings being so severe in some in-stances that the skin and flesh on their backs were in shreds. Witnesses also told of Supt. Thomas asking girls questions of the most indecent and re-volting character causing them as well ing that no liquor licenses be issued after Dec. 31 of this year were presentafter Dec. 31 of this year were present-ed to the city council last evening. One from a sub-committee of the prohibition committee and one from the board of frustees of the Brigham Young univers-ity. Both petitions were referred to the committee on judiciary and the city attorney, with instructions to arrange for a convention of city and county officers of the county to consider the question of uniform action throughout the county on the prohibition question. A representative of Nat Reis' carni-val, now operating here, appeared and asked for a reduction of the license for the reason that the company was not questions of the most indecent and re-volting character, causing them as well as the matron and others to bow their heads in shame. Several instances were related of girls being disciplined by having their long hair cut. off short and they were placed in cells on a bread and water diet. and they were placed in cells on a bread and water diet. A narrative that aroused a great amount of feeling among the members of the committee was told by Mrs. D. T. Tracy, former matron of the school, the treatment of Rosetta Coyle, who had been kept at the school for a length of time and had an attack of appendi-citis. When she was ordered to the hospital an old rickety spring wagon with mattress in the bottom was taken to the cottage and the girl loaded in. Mrs. Tracy said that she protested to W. E. Kneass, assistant superinten-dent, and he said that it was good enough and that Thomas said it was all right. While en route to the hospital, every time the wagon would go over a bump the girl would groam with pain. At the hospital the girl vas operated upon, but being in such a weakened rondition and the case having gone so long, she was unable to withstand the shock and died the next 'day. Mrs. Tracy testified as to the cuestions Thomas asked the girls in her presence which were not repeated at the hearing but had been written on a plece of naror and masted around amount the the reason that the company was not making any money. Referred to the committee on license.

JOSEPH BIRCH,

John Bergan and Evan Carlson, for-mer employes at the school, told of the severe whippings that had been admin-istered to the boys by them at the di-rection of Supt. Thomas as well as by nim. Two boys, Bird Hughes and Peery Bacon, were punished so severely that they could not work for some time aft-grward on account of their weakened condition caused by the loss of blood Hughes' back was a mass of flesh and blood, and in one place a piece of flesh about five inches long had been cut out with the strap and placed back bood, and in one pace a piece of flesh about five inches long had been cut out with the strap and placed back in place after the whipping. The boy was unable to work for a week. The Bacon boy was so severely beaten on the back that Carlson said he had to help him remove his shirt. Other cases numerated by the witnesses told of the brutal manner in which many boys were terribly beaten. Carlson was asked if he complained to any of the officials about the condition of the youngsters. Carlson said he called up T. B. Evans, who was then chairman of the board of trustees of the school, and told him to come down, to the school and bring a doctor. To this he replied, "We will take the matter up at the next sitting of the board." Carlat the next sitting of the board." Carl-son says he was given a notice to be present and attended the meeting, but present and attended the meeting, but the matter was not referred to in any way. In reply to questions from Atty. Johnson, Mr. Carlson said he did not mention the matter at the board meet-ing because he had laid the matter be-fore President Evans and he was afraid of losing his job. A short time before the boys were punished Mr. Carlson said he had his salary raised by Supt. Thomas. Two weeks after the meeting of the board, referred to, he was dis-charged and told "it was best for the institution." institution."
