

sipated in their habits, having nests especially rakish. The most unprofitable consignment possible, is to ship a sea.

PRESERVATION OF SIGHT.—The eye should never view an intense light. The light of a flame should never fall upon any part of the eye during use. Bodies of all colors should be equally viewed, and after regarding a bright or primary color, repose should be sought by looking at a tertiary color. An unsteady flame is hurtful during reading or writing.

The eye is liable to damage from being employed on black objects by artificial light, because it is insufficient for the purpose. The observation of objects at the reflecting angle is hurtful, from the intensity of the light. All coverings to lights are injurious, as the clearness of the flame is diminished; and ground-glass shades are particularly detrimental.

Reading during railway traveling is hurtful, because of the constant unsteady motion which is imparted to the book. The observation of close objects during rapid locomotion is trying and detrimental to vision. Glass of neutral tint, blue or green color, may be employed to protect the eyes from a bright sun in the middle of the day; but they are injurious when the light is not painfully intense. Rapid transition from darkness to intense light is liable to be followed by blindness.

HOW TO BE RICH.—Nothing is more easy, says Mr. Paulding, than to grow rich. It is only to trust nobody—to befriend none—to get everything, and save all we get—to stint ourselves and everybody belonging to us—to be the friend of no man, and have no man for our friend—to heap interest, upon interest, cent upon cent—to be mean, miserable and despised for some twenty or thirty years, and riches will come as sure as disease and disappointment.

A modern writer says: "I never give a man credit for having the power to do what he never does. Plausibility is very imposing, no doubt; but when I see one of whom people say, 'He has talent, he has genius, if he would use them right,' I think it is a sham, and not the real thing; for sound talent and true genius don't go with a laggard spirit—they are like a spur in the heel to keep a man advancing."

If thou art a master, be sometimes kind; if a servant, be sometimes deaf.

There is plenty of room in the mind, if people only think of furnishing its apartments.

LOST, STRAYED, &c.

LOST.

STRAWBERRY or Roan COW. A part of one horn broken off, also the brush of the tail off. Any person that will bring her or give information will be rewarded by JENNINGS & WINDER, at their Meat and Provision Store.

N.B. Jennings and Winder exchange Boots, Shoes and Leather of all kinds for Red Pine Bark, Oil, and good Hides. Bees killed and dressed for $1, or will pay $1 and take the hide.

STRAYED OR STOLEN. FROM the range near Lehi, in Utah Co., a small dark COW, with a little white on one or both sides, called, on account of her wild look, the "buffalo cow." Whoever can give any information about her to William Snow will confer a great favor and earn the best of all rewards—a good conscience and perhaps something more.

Also, lost last summer, on the top of, or coming down the Little Mountain, a good AXE, which is sadly needed by the owner. [37-2] MRS. Z. SNOW.

STRAYS.

I HAVE in my possession the following described cattle:

One pied COW, about six years old, point of horns broke off, branded S. S. J. R. R. on the high horn, and a brand on the high hip not visible.

A red and white five year old COW, with a brand on the high hip not visible.

A two year old red HEIFER, with a little white on her face.

A one year old brindle STEER.

The owners will please call and pay expenses and take them away. JAMES GORDEN, Pound Keeper, 37-3 Big Cottonwood.

STRAYED OR STOLEN.

FROM the care of Vincent Shirliff, two miles south of this city, on November 2nd, one re'low HORSE, with black mane and tail, branded D on high fore shoulder, six years old, a dim or grey star on his forehead, low, heavy built, marked on the top of neck by the collar.

Also, one bay MARE, four years old, branded A C on left shoulder, and thus on left hind thigh, marked on the back in a number of places by the saddle, mane naturally hangs to the left side.

Any information that will lead to the discovery of said horses will be thankfully received and liberally rewarded by [37-2] LEVIE RITER, or VINCENT SHIRLIFF.

FOR SALE.

THAT Valuable Property formerly owned and occupied by Dr. Andrews, on East Temple street, two doors south of Hooper & Williams' store. For particulars apply at Jennings and Winder's Deseret Meat and Provision Store, or to E. Bellingsley, Provo.

FRUIT TREES FOR SALE.

A CHOICE Lot of Apple Trees, budded from scions brought from New York last spring; 2000 prize currant trees; 5000 seedling peach tree; a few plum and apricot trees; by L. S. Hemenway, 4th Ward, G. S. L. City. Wheat, corn, or store orders taken in exchange. 35-3

'By their fruits ye shall know them.'

THAT no one may have any excuse for the cheerless and dreary aspect of their lots and grounds, and also to give every one the privilege of sitting under their own vine and fruit tree, the subscriber is happy to announce that he has commenced the Nursery business in this city, and has now on hand a quantity of fine Peach trees, budded from the most select and choice varieties in the Territory; also a small lot of Apricots, hard and soft shell Almonds, which will be exchanged for all and every kind of produce that those wishing to buy may have. The public hands can be supplied on titling. Manure and labor will also be taken.
