LOCAL BRIEFS.

Utey Behind Counter.—Chief Clerk Harry Utey of the Kenyon is out of the hospital and is receiving guests with his old smile.

Recital for John Drew.—A special organ recital was given by Prof. J. A. McClellan Saturday afternoon in the tabernacle in honor of John Drew and members of his company.

Funeral of E. B. Chester.—The funeral of E. B. Chester, the west Fifth South street restaurateur, was held yesterday afternoon under the auspices of the local lodge of Eagles, with burial in City cemetery.

Race Whitney Improving.—Race Whitney who has been seriously ill with rheumatism is reported to be decidedly better with marked improvement from day to day, so that his complete recovery is only a matter of time.

Bank Corrects Report.—The officials of the Commercial National bank wish to correct the report that it was a bank where the vault recently was left unguarded, bringing out the police. The occurrence was in another bank of this city.

Typos Select Officers.—Austin Davis, president, and A. Thompson, secretary, are the officers of the Salt Lake Typographical union No. 115. The union meeting was held yesterday and this ticket agreed upon to go before an election committee May 22.

A. C. Smith Retires.—A. C. Smith, who has been in the drug business in this city for 23 years, has retired on account of failing health. Mr. Smith came from New York in 1875, to take a position with the Z. C. M. I. drug store, going into business for himself in 1882.

Mission Secretary Coming.—Rev. Dr. Lloyd, secretary of the board of missions of the Episcopal church, will be in Salt Lake May 17 next, to work over the local field. The annual convention of the church of this diocese will be held in St. Mark's cathedral on the 27th inst.

Falls in the Street.—A man named Daniel Ryan, aged 26 years, fell in an epileptic fit at 110 west Second street yesterday. He fell to the pavement and received a bad gash in the hip. He was taken to the emergency hospital where the wound was closed up, after which Ryan was taken to his room.

Idaho Town Prosper.—A. H. Vogler has just returned from Twin Falls, Ida., where he says he found astonishing evidences of permanent progress. Preparations are making for the erection of a 100,000-bushel wheat elevator, and electric lines are being run in all directions, one being built to connect the Falls with Wells, Nev., direct.

Snow Service in Mountains.—Chief Inspector R. Benedict of the Forest service returned Saturday evening from a southern trip, and reports a scarcity of snow in the mountains, which means that the winter season will not do so well on the summer ranges this season. However, livestock in the forests are at present in satisfactory shape.

Graham in New Position.—Fred C. Graham is now in active charge of the short music and small instruments departments of the Clayton-Danvers Music company. Mr. Graham has become such a fixed feature in the Salt Lake musical world that any musical event of importance with which he was not identified in some way would suggest "Hamlet, with Hamlet left out."

Will Enforce Food Laws.—State Food and Dairy Inspector Peterson has returned from a trip through Weber and Davis counties, where he made an inspection of the slaughter houses. He found conditions considerably improved generally, but says he will file a complaint against one slaughtering firm in Davis county. Mr. Peterson also saw several Salt Lake slaughter house owners who were brought into court for maintaining unclean houses.

Studebaker Officials Here.—Chairman Fred H. Clark, the executive committee of the Studebaker company from South Bend, Ind., and General Manager Hayden Eames of the same company in Chicago, arrived Saturday evening from the east, and registered at the Alta club as guests of Manager C. A. Quigley of the Salt Lake branch of the Studebaker company. The visitors are on an inspection tour of the western houses, which they find in good condition.
