

FLOATING FRAGMENTS.

The Book of Mormon is on sale at the office.

Blue noses and overcoats have come suddenly in vogue.

Next General Conference of the Church will open on Friday.

A Bishop and two Counselors for the Twelfth Ward were selected last night.

The sudden fall in the temperature of the atmosphere is almost unprecedented.

There will be a grand concert, for the benefit of the Desert Sunday School Union, in the Tabernacle, on Oct. 6th.

Ella Wheeler warbles "Love is Love." When Ella gets a husband she will find that love won't be enough for him. He will want a well-cooked meal about three times a day.

The number registered in Beaver Creek up to Friday noon amounted to 490. The other precincts have not yet been heard from, but it is rumored that the Frisco list is very light for both parties.—Beaver Creek.

"Old Bismarck" has proved a success at the Fourteenth Street Theatre, where it is cleverly acted by Frank Mordant. Mr. Mordant is gratifying proof of the fact that there is still hope for the "American" drama.—Star.

There will be a special meeting of the Stockholders of the Utah County Cooperative Stock Association held in the Vestry of the Meeting House, Provo, at 10 a. m. on Friday, September 22, 1882, for the consideration of dissolving the Company.

E. C. Nims, General Passenger and Ticket Agent of the Denver and Rio Grande R. R., states officially that a stretch of only 250 miles remains to be built to connect with the Utah system, and track to be laid at the rate of three miles a day.

The body of one of the little girls that was drowned in the Pleasant River at Fort Steele, early in the summer, was recently found on an island just below the post. The body was badly decomposed and had been torn by hogs. It was interred at the post.

We have received from Joseph H. Pary, the "Poplar Magazine" for October. The former contains a due likeness of Sir Garnet Wolseley K. C. B., whose recent campaign in Africa gives additional evidence of his ability as a military leader.

The through stage was stopped and fired into, Tuesday evening last, at 15 p. m., between Sawtooth and Vienna, but immediately returning the compliment to the would-be pillagers, was permitted to pass on unharmed. About $200.00 in the treasure box.—Wood River Times, 9th.

Intelligence has reached us of a serious accident that happened a few days ago, at Beaver Canyon, to a man named Jacob Bliker. He, in some manner not fully explained to us, was caught between two logs and very seriously injured. He is now lying in Providence in a very precarious condition.—Utah Journal.

Long-haired men are generally weak and fanatical, and men with short hair are the philosophers and statesmen of the world.—London Lancet. We will bet ten to one that the editor of the Lancet is as bald as a billiard ball and spout all his spare cash in hair restoratives before he settles down to the above conclusion.—Ex.

An effort is being made to get reduced rates for Salt Lake October Conference via Oregon Short Line Railroad. At ordinary rates the round trip would cost about fifty dollars. If they will make it, a great many will probably take the opportunity of "riding on the rail," a view of the road from Montpelier to Ogden being a great additional attraction.—Bear Lake Democrat.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Book of Mormon.—Parties wishing to purchase the Book of Mormon can procure it at this office; we have now another supply on hand.

Great Musical Treat.—A grand concert is in contemplation for the benefit of the Desert Sunday School Union, to be held in the Large Tabernacle, Salt Lake City, on Friday, October 6th. Look out for a rich treat by 400 Sunday school children, now under course of training by Mr. Evan Stephens.

Home From the West.—Mrs. R. B. Margetta arrived home yesterday from a visit to Sacramento, where she had been stopping for about two months. She was called to the West by the sickness of her daughter, Mrs. Pembroke, who has, we are pleased to say, recovered from a very severe sickness.

Should be Stopped.—Along the edge of City Creek, in the canyon, clumps and rows of young and thrifty box elder trees have hung over the stream, keeping the water cool by their grateful shade and preventing evaporation. It is to be regretted that of late parties have been cutting them down and carrying them off, to be used for firewood. This should not be done.

Twelfth Ward Bishopric.—The First Presidency of the Church and Presidency of the Salt Lake Stake attended the Twelfth Ward meeting last evening. Hyrum B. Clawson was appointed, ordained and set apart as Bishop of the Ward, successor to the late Bishop A. C. Pyper. John Drue and Martin Lenz, formerly Counselors to Bishop Pyper, were selected for Counselors to Bishop Clawson.

A Laramie Tragedy.—A terrible tragedy occurred at Laramie on Saturday night week. "Broncho Sam," of mixed race, being partly of negro and partly Spanish blood, was the principal figure in the affair. His wife, a Cherokee Indian woman, told him she was going out to work to get clothes for both of them, their wardrobe being somewhat slender. As she was about to leave the house he drew a pistol and shot her. After a struggle with a colored man, who attempted to prevent the act, he shot himself. Both wounds were considered necessarily fatal. The cause of the deed was jealousy. "Broncho Sam" was known in the west as a tamer of wild horses.

Registration.—Registration closed on Saturday throughout the Territory. In this city the result of the week's work was as follows:

First precinct, 1,000; 2nd precinct, 1,431; 3d precinct, 867; 4th precinct, 678; 5th precinct, 1,147; total, 5,223.

We have received reports from the following precincts of Cache county: Logan, Thomas Rowland deputy registrar, number registered, 784. Smithfield, number registered, 273. Mendon, number registered, 150.

From Davis County we have Kaysville, where, 370 registered. Farmington, Walter Walker, deputy registrar, number registered 203.

We have some reports from Utah County.

Pleasant Grove.—Number registered, 370.

Spanish Fork.—A correspondent writes:

Nearly every person entitled has been registered. The number up to date, 2 p. m., is about 525; 15 or 20 more are expected to register before the close. Liberal names may reach 13. Everything is quiet. The registrar here is a gentleman.

Springville.—Number registered, 522. About a hundred eligible persons were absent at work on the Denver & Rio Grande Western R. R., and consequently could not register.

Close of Volume Three.—The last number of the Third Volume of the Contributor is out. It presents the following delectable table of contents:

Sermons and Writings of the Prophet Joseph. XII. The Government of God: Canada, Oregon, Utah; The Secret of Beauty, H. W. Nabbitt; The Musician's Dream, Music; Self Culture, John H. Kelson; Discovery of America, Wm. Robertson; The Restoration, H. Edward H. Andersen; A Trip to Denmark. XI. Elsinore and Helsingland, De Vallibus; A Tunisian Court; Among the Ancient Indian Mounds, Jos. L. Townsend; Editorial Volume Four; Registration; The Echo Canyon War. X. Vaux; Motive of Reading; C. F. Richardson; Curiosities of Luxury; Association Intelligence; Notices.

The Contributor is a magazine of which Utah has good reason to be proud, in appearance it is second to no other publication of the Territory. Its matter is invariably choice and well written and mostly the product of the pens of local authors. The magazine has had a successful and useful career so far, and a still brighter future is ahead of it.

Gave Him the Slip.—A couple of days ago a man was arrested out on Price River, along the line of the D. & R. G., for stealing horses. There being no constable or any other officer of the peace thereabout at the time, an employee of the D. & R. G. Railroad Company undertook to make the arrest. The prisoner was put on the cars at Fish Creek, and accompanied by the amateur constable, started Provo-ward, and a dispatch was sent to this city announcing the fact, with the request that an officer meet the party at the Provo depot on the arrival of the train. The officer went down to the depot when the train came in, but no prisoner was there, and the only explanation given was that when the guard was indulging in a nap, the prisoner had quietly and unobserved slipped away while the train made a short stay at this Creek station.—Enquirer.

Fell from a Building.—This morning Hyrum Mikeseel, aged about 23 years, while at work in the upper portion of the new paper mill on Big Cottonwood, slipped from a joist and fell through, going clear to the cellar, descending probably a distance of twenty feet. He sustained severe bruises about the chest, and his head and side, and his face, besides a badly sprained ankle. He was brought to town by Mr. Milo Anderson in his carriage, and taken to his residence in the Twenty-first Ward. As he had not been surgically examined at last accounts the full extent of his injuries was not known.

A Tramp Typo.—A tramp printer, who calls himself John B. Wallace, and claims his home to be in Salt Lake City, and to whom we gave a couple of weeks' work, and allowed him to sleep in the office, repaid us for our kindness by stealing a revolver and a lot of clothing, the property of Mr. C. E. Blydenburgh, from the office Thursday night. The revolver he "soaked" for liquor at a saloon on the south side, the clothing he had on when captured. Jack now lies in jail with a very fair chance of enjoying an opportunity of learning a new trade at Joliet next winter, where he will be provided with quarters at the expense of the Territory.—Rawlins Journal.

Walker Opera House.—To-morrow night A. M. Palmer's Union Square Theatre Company will open their engagement at the Walker Opera House. They begin with one of the most popular of modern plays, "The Banker's Daughter," which, judging from the national reputation of the company, will be played in splendid style. The engagement will continue during the entire week, including a Saturday matinee.

A Car Burglarized.—The Ogden Herald sent word on Saturday night a C. P. box car was entered and burglarized. A bale of dry goods was unpacked and part of them was stolen; other articles were also taken out of the car.

The missing goods were found hidden in a clump of sunflowers near the car shops. Eight tramps were arrested on suspicion of being the thieves.

Wants to Hear.—We have received a note stating that Samuel Turnbow, or any of his children, of this city, will confer a great favor upon the children of his brother, Joseph Turnbow, by communicating with Mr. Pleasant C. Turnbow, Troop Smith County, Texas; or Mrs. Frank Knight, George's Camp, Jones County, Miss.

Priesthood Meeting.—The next regular monthly meeting of the Priesthood of the Salt Lake Stake of Zion will be held on the last Saturday in September, (30th inst.), beginning at 11 a. m., in the Salt Lake Assembly Hall.

WM. W. TAYLOR, Clerk of Stake.

The County Clerkship.—We understand that William Nelson, an "appointee" of the Governor to the Clerkship of Salt Lake County has been making inquiries in regard to the amount of the bond necessary to be filed by a person filling that office.

The Immigrants.—By telegram to President John Taylor, we learn that the company of immigrants in charge of Elder Wm. Cooper, left Omaha yesterday (Sunday) morning on a special train for the West. They will probably reach here to-morrow night or Wednesday morning.

Disappeared Again.—A short time since we stated that W. W. Rhode, the wife desorter and swindler, who disappeared suddenly from this city some time since, had been found in the Exchange Hotel, San Francisco, by an agent of a Salt Lake firm from whom he obtained goods he did not pay for. The agent gave him an hour or two in which to make up his mind to settle the account. He made good use of the period of grace to secure his escape. He has not since been seen nor heard from.

A Troublesome Tramp.—On Saturday night a dilapidated tramp entered the house of Mr. Jenkins, a few miles southwest of the city, during the absence of male members of the household. He demanded food, which was given him by Mrs. Jenkins. He asked the lady where her husband was; said he had escaped from prison, and talked and acted so as to cause Mrs. Jenkins great uneasiness. Finally a male member of the family arrived and Mr. Tramp was unceremoniously sent off. He proceeded to the railroad track and took to the congenial occupation of "counting ties."

Precautionary Information.—In this part of the country, where explosives are extensively used, the following information, which appears in an exchange, may prove of value to some people:

Nitro-glycerine looks like oil. Workmen seeing it leaking from a box or can have sometimes mistaken it for sweet-oil, and have tried to pull the box tighter with a hammer. This causes a terrific explosion. The way in which the blasting powders are made is by taking some such substance as sand or sawdust and mixing nitro-glycerine with it. The most common of these powders is "dynamite." It looks much like moist brown sugar. Some others are called "gunpowder," "black powder," "mice-powder." The nitro-glycerine soaked in the sand or sawdust can be carried about without spilling, and can be more safely handled.

In the same manner, if nitro-glycerine should be spilled upon wood or cloth and should soak into the substance, there might be an explosion if the thing were afterwards struck or tossed about. When ever you visit a quarry, or new railroad, or any other place where blasting is going on, or any factory or establishment where nitro-glycerine or blasting powder might be made or kept, it is well to be careful about meddling with any yellowish-looking oil or any oily-looking powder.

A Frightened Family.—Last evening the family of Dr. O. C. Ormsby, including himself, experienced a dreadful fright. At about eight o'clock the Doctor left his residence in his buggy to drive to his office at the Pioneer drug store. Immediately on leaving his house Mrs. Ormsby heard a sound as of some one on the back stairs, and sent her little boy Oliver, aged about 9 years to see what it was. The boy went into the hall where he met a man of large size, who had a long black mark, which revealed no feature except his eyes. The child was so terrified that he could only start to run toward the room where his mother was crying out, "Run, mother, he's coming." With this exclamation the boy fell into a convulsion produced by fright. Mrs. Ormsby ran into a hall, seized the boy under one arm and ran out of the front door to the gate. Here the boy revived and started after his father. He arrived at the drug store just as his father was unfastening the horse, only a few minutes after the doctor left home. The latter could only glean that a masked man was in the house frightening his wife. He darted towards home, but overcome with fright, anxiety and exertion his strength failed him when he reached the Logan house, where he was obliged to pause. He met two neighbors there, whom he asked to proceed at once to his house. They did so, but the burglar was gone.—Utah (Logan) Journal.

To Dr. M. Don:

Dear Sir.—It is with much pleasure that I write to you, knowing it is my duty to do so, after the kind service you have rendered to my wife and children, and I can say that there is not one in twenty who would have had the patience to watch over them night and day as you did, until you saw a change for the better. I do believe if I had called you in time my other two children would have been here now, and if I can do you any good I certainly shall do so in recommending you to my friends. If you feel disposed to make use of this you can do so. Accept of my best wishes. Yours truly, MELVIN D. COOK.

READ THE FOLLOWING TESTIMONIALS—SALT LAKE CITY, June 29th, 1882.

This is to certify that we had Messrs. Simmons & Co. repair and paint our stables at the race track, in this city, which leaked badly. A few hours after the roof was painted these came a very hard rain storm, and we are pleased to say our roof did not leak a drop. We cheerfully recommend this paint as being both fire and water proof, and as a preserver of roofs it seems to us to be the very thing needed in this section of the country. J. T. TRAVIS, J. T. GILMER.

CALIFORNIA BREWERY, SALT LAKE CITY, July 18th, 1882.

This is to certify that I have used M. S. Simmons & Co.'s Wood and Fire Proof Paint, and I think it not only a good paint, but that it is economy to use it, as it is lasting.

HENRY WAGNER.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, July 11th, 1882.

This is to certify that I have had my roof painted with Simmons & Co.'s Paint, and I think it a good paint, and I believe it to be more lasting than any other paint in use in Utah.

ANDREW GEBHART.

UTAH CENTRAL RAILWAY, SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, July 20th, 1882.

We are using M. S. Simmons & Co.'s Paint on the Utah Central Railway, and consider it a good paint. We are painting our wind mills and water tanks to preserve the wood and iron. We also consider it a good paint for tin and iron roofs.

SAML. H. HILL, P. A.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, July 22nd, 1882.

We had M. S. Simmons & Co. to paint a part of the Wasatch Building, and believe their paint to be a good one.

N. GEORSECKE.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, July 22nd, 1882.

I have seen buildings painted with M. S. Simmons & Co.'s Paint, and I cheerfully recommend the same for iron, tin and shingle roofs. I consider it a first-class preservative for all kinds of wood work, and it is especially adapted for railroad tanks and buildings, also for barns and smelters, as it is both fire and water proof, besides being economical to use.

B. M. SHUFF, Arch.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, August 22nd, 1882.

This is to certify that I am using M. S. Simmons & Co.'s Paint, and I consider it a good paint, a better paint than I have been using heretofore, and I believe it to be more lasting.

DAVID JAMES.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, August 24th, 1882.

I having used Simmons & Co.'s Roof Paint, do certify that it is all they claim it to be.
