EVENING NEWS.

Tuesday, - - May 18, 1875.

A CLOSE, HARD MAN.

A hard, close man was Solomon Ray,
Nothing of value he gave away;
He hoarded and saved;
He pinched and shaved;
And the more he had the more he crayed.

The hard-earned dollars he toiled to gain
Brought him little but care and pain;
For little he spent,
And all he lent
He made it bring him twenty per cent.

Such was the life of Solomon Ray.
The years went by, and his hair grew gray;
His cheeks grew thin,
And his soul within
Grew hard as the dollars he worked to win.

But he died one day, as all men must,
For life is fleeting, and man but dust.
The heirs were gay
That laid him away,
And that was the end of Solomon Ray.

They quarreled now, who had little cared
For Solomon Ray while his life was spared.
His lands were sold,
And his hard-earned gold
All went to the lawyers, I am told.

Yet men will cheat and pinch and save,
Nor carry their treasures beyond the grave.
All their gold some day
Will melt away
Like the selfish savings of Solomon Ray.

The Vatican Council to be Summoned.

VIENNA, 17.—Advices from Servia report that two of the Pedgoritza murderers have been executed at Scutari.

England Regains Her Prestige—Manifesto From Prince Napoleon.

PARIS, 17.—The Moniteur in an editorial referring to the course taken by the British government during the recent war alarm, says that England, by raising her voice in favor of peace, has naturally recovered her just authority and influence in continental affairs, and that the present ministry has acquired a degree of strength and power which will procure for it the grateful respect of Europe.

It is announced that a manifesto from Prince Napoleon, in favor of the republic and in opposition to the restoration of the empire, will soon be published.

The British Mission.—The following are from the Millennial Star—

"Gloucester, March 29.—The people of Gloucester read the 'Mormon' correspondence in the columns of the Gloucester Mercury with much interest, every paper was sold. I think another letter will appear from Sister Hawks touching Celestial Marriage. It will set the people a thinking. The faith of the Saints is increasing in this part of the vineyard. They rejoice in the idea of holding a Conference in Bristol. We anticipate a good time this summer preaching the Gospel in the open air.—B. H. WATTS."

"Dundee, April 8.—I am pleased to be able to say that I am well and happy, and that the cause of truth continues to prosper in the North. The Saints are feeling well and the Priesthood energetic. The universal testimony from beyond 'John O'Groat's,' to the Firths of Clyde and Forth, where I have the pleasure of the communion of the Saints is, that they never felt better in, or more determined to go forward in, the work of God. And as an evidence of the genuineness of this feeling and determination, several are arranging their business with a view of going to Utah this coming season, and the prospects are that quite a number will leave the North for Utah this year. An increase of the spirit of unity among the Saints is apparent; their love for each other as a consequence is increased. It is a pleasure too see them cheerfully help to bear each other's burdens, which they are doing here to an extent that I never before witnessed in my travels. Where sickness prevails and death occurs, they seem to make it personal bereavements and distresses. PETER SINCLAIR."

"Copenhagen, Denmark, April 7.—I could not at present say exactly what time the last company from here this season will leave, but in all probability, for what I now know, I should say about the latter part of August. The probable number to emigrate from here at that time, considering the present circumstances and judging from the past, I think would be about as last year, from 150 to 175 adults. It will however depend some on the fares, and what assistance may come from Utah.

"Our Utah Elders, together with the native brethren, have done much good among the people, both among the Saints and strangers. Many meetings have been held, and a large amount of books and pamphlets disposed of throughout the country; and so far as I know the brethren have labored faithfully, and discharged their duties as men and servants of God.

"After a long and to some degree severe winter, spring has now opened, causing relief to the poor, who have more or less suffered, being unable to obtain employment to procure the necessaries of life; yet I am grateful to know that our people have been measurably comfortable.

"Many are now making calculations for emigrating, and I am happy to say to the credit of the Saints, that as a general thing they have been very diligent in saving all they could for that purpose.

"C. G. LARSEN."
