Special Correspondence.
Heber City, Wasatch Co., Jan. 11.—The other night about 11 o'clock Mr. Wheeler, the proprietor of a saloon, at Midway, was held up by two men, securely bound with ropes and relieved of his cash and other valuables, after which the pair made their escape. A number of the large sheep owners have started out with hay and grain to bring their sheep from the reservation to this place preparatory to shipping them on the Utah desert. The snow is so deep on their present range that it makes this move necessary.

A number of the sheep men of this vicinity have sold their next clipping of wool, at what they consider a very good price.

The coal famine continues and unless something can be done to relieve the situation at once, much suffering will result.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

Successful Gathering of Uintah County Pedagogues—Nature Study Theme.

Special Correspondence.
Vernal, Uintah Co., Jan. 4.—Although not a school teacher from Uintah county was in attendance at the state institute at Ogden, yet they feel they are not the losers this time. The fare to Ogden and return is over $50, and five or six days lost in the journey. So the teachers held an institute of their own, in discussions of nature and kindred subjects. Prof. Paul has brought a new light on the subject. The study of nature will interest farmer and housewife as much as teacher and pupil. The laboratory is "all out doors" and the equipment, the weeds, plants, and animals we see every day but have never learned their relationship to man's development and civilization.

This new phase in nature study should arouse the people to the necessity of immediate and determined action to combat the silent but effective warfare being waged by noxious weeds, and make game wardens of every farmer in the land, so the helpful birds may not be exterminated.

When the teachers fully realized what the Deseret News has been doing for them they adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, That we, teachers of Uintah county, in institute assembled, do hereby express our appreciation of the work on nature study as given in the Deseret News.

We also express the hope, considering the value of this work to the state teachers, that the "News" may continue to publish similar articles.

Prof. Paul leaves tomorrow morning by stage for Dragon and thence to Salt Lake. With him will go a load of students returning to school.

The weather here is ideal at present, clear days, cold, and plenty of snow. Sleight parties have been quite the fashion of late. The lumber teams are all busy getting in the winter supply from the mills.

A benefit dance was given Thursday evening in the Vernal Opera House for Ernest Eaton, who is on a mission.

The old officers of the court house are cleaning up and will have everything shipshape for their successors, who go in Monday. Utah county has had a good set of officers and the belief is that the high standard will continue.

Shocking Experience of Six Miners Crossing Mountains—One Missing.

Special Correspondence.
Frisco, Beaver Co., Jan. 11.—Mr. Burton of the Revenue mine, in the Pine Grove, mining district, about 45 miles south of Newhouse, came into Newhouse a few days since, and reported that eight Austrians who had been employed by him there desired a team to go out and bring them in. Two outfits immediately went out, but when they arrived, only two men were there, the other six had started out over a mountain trail over a cut-off, of about 20 miles. When the teams arrived in the evening at Newhouse, it was learned the Austrians had not arrived. Messrs. Thomas and Evan Jones started right back with fresh outfits to search for the missing men on the trail they supposed they would come. About midnight Mr. Evan Jones received an answer to his shoutings, and found one man seated in the snow almost frozen stiff. He was helped into a bed and kept warm. The other man of the party is still missing. The dead

RICHFIELD.
DISTRICT COURT SESSION.

Petty Litigation Expensive to County—New Reservoir Proposition.

Special Correspondence.
Richfield, Sevier Co., Jan. 12.—A marriage license was known issued to Charles L. Jensen of Salt Lake and Miss Edith Warkenski of Joseph. They were married by the county clerk.

The district court today transacted the following business: The case of J. H. Lewis vs. the B. G. W. Railway company the plaintiff submitted his evidence at the conclusion of which the defendant moved the court for a non-suit. Upon hearing the arguments the court instructed the jury to bring in a verdict of no cause of action which was done.

The jury in the case of Oluf Andersen vs. Brigham Sanberg brought in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff awarding him damages in the sum of $2,500. This was a case in which the plaintiff held the title to a strip of land used by the defendant and others for a number of years as a road. The plaintiff closed the road and the defendant removed the obstruction resulting in the suit for damages. The trial of the case consumed five days and the costs will be in the neighborhood of $500, not counting attorneys' fees. The greater part of this expense will fall upon the county. What the taxpayers will have to pay would be paid for the land in question more than 10 times. Many leading citizens here are of the opinion that the law ought to be changed which grants a person a jury in a civil case for an unlimited amount at the expense of the county by simply paying the small sum of $5.

RESERVOIR COMPANY ELECTION.
The annual meeting of the Otter Creek Reservoir company was held today. The following officers were elected: Simon Christensen, president; William Ogden, secretary and treasurer and the following directors: Royal H. Barney, A. W. Bohman, Lewis E. C. Petersen and J. A. Moore. The question of constructing another reservoir upon the Sevier river a short distance above Murphys was considered and the majority of the board favored the proposition. The estimated cost of this reservoir will be about $100,000 and if it is built it will result in the reclaiming of practically all of the bottom land in the valley which is irrigated from the Sevier river. It appears quite probable that something will be done in the near future towards launching this enterprise.

Those who are familiar with the condition of the snow in the mountainous section of the water supply for next season are assured. There is no snow upon the level in the valley and very little frost in the ground. Those who have been in the habit of putting up ice are fearful of the result. It is not supply any of the product this winter. There is some talk of building an ice plant and the move ought to be encouraged if it would give us a pure article while now much of the ice put up is wholly unfit for use being secured from sloughs and stagnant pools of water.

MALAD, IDAHO.
DEMISE OF JOHN THOMAS.

Diphtheria at St. John Closes All Public Gatherings.

Special Correspondence.
Malad, Oneida Co., Idaho, Jan. 9.—Tuesday, Mr. George Stewart left for Salt Lake City to undergo a surgical operation.

The funeral of John Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thomas, will be held at the family residence tomorrow. The deceased was about 32 years of age. Death came as a great relief from a painful illness, from which he had suffered for eight years. He was highly esteemed in the community.

DIPHTHERIA AT ST. JOHN.
There are two cases of diphtheria in St. John. Strict quarantine regulations are being observed. The schools are closed and all public and private gatherings are prohibited for eight days.

Mrs. Lorenzo Evans is very sick with inflammatory rheumatism.

Sheriff Thomas Evans succeeded in locating and capturing the escaped prisoner at Bues, Nevada. He was brought to Malad Wednesday.

The people are enjoying fine sleighing. There is about nine inches of snow on the level.

DEATH OF A. P. DAVIS.

Esteemed Citizen Succumbs to Attack Of Blood Poison.

Union, Or., Jan. 9.—Abraham P. Davis died last night after intense suffering for four days from blood poisoning. Mr. Davis leaves a family of 10 children.

EVANSTON, WYO.
DEATH OF WM. J. ANDERSON.

Severe Storm Raging in Wyoming—New Bank Proposition.

Special Correspondence.
Evanston, Wyo., Jan. 12.—A very severe snowstorm is raging here today. The wind is blowing and the snow is piling up in drifts. The sheep ranges are already in bad condition with encrusted snow, and this storm will make matters worse.

The matter of the new bank is progressing very favorably. Several local parties who are interested have been in consultation with the Salt Lake parties this week, and it is expected the organization will be completed in the near future now.

William J. Anderson, stock man and manager of this place, died at Long Beach, Cal., on Jan. 8, 1907. Mr. Anderson was born at Canandaigua, N. Y. (at which place he will be buried), on Aug. 20, 1860. Mr. Anderson was afflicted with heart trouble and several years ago decided to seek a lower altitude, and has spent considerable of the time in California since then. His death is regretted by his friends and associates. His sisters, Mrs. Thomas Blyth, Mrs. Harvey Booth and Miss Anna J. Anderson, survive him. The remains will reach here tomorrow, and Mr. and Mrs. Blyth will accompany the same to New York.

TAYLOR, ARIZ.
LLEWELLYN HARRIS DEAD.

Noted Pioneer Indian Missionary and Interpreter Closes Busy Career.

Special Correspondence.
Taylor, Navajo Co., Ariz., Jan. 8.—Llewellyn Harris was known as a faithful member of the Snowflake stake, passed away at his home in Shumway, Tuesday, Dec. 18, after an illness of a year.

He was born in 1832, near Llandovery, Carmarthenshire, South Wales, he left Wales when about eight years of age with his widowed mother and came to America. He came to Utah in 1853 and the following October moved to Cedar City, Iron county, where he helped to build the old fort at that place, as a defense against the Indians, and helped in building up several towns in the southern part of Utah, and took an active part in all of the Indian wars there for over 20 years.

In the winter of 1882, 8 and 4 he went with Jacob Hamblin and others to explore the territory of Arizona to look out for the interests of the Saints. They visited several Indian tribes and made friends with them.

He married Pattience Sibyl Groves, in October, 1856 and six children were born to them, one son and five daughters.

In October, 1878, he was called to go on a mission among the Indians and native races of Arizona, New Mexico and other places, where he labored faithfully among the Lamanites, many sick among them being healed under his administration by the laying on of hands.

In the fall of 1895, he moved with his family from Escalante, Utah, to Arizona, locating at Shumway where he has since resided.

Funeral services were held at Taylor in the ward meetinghouse, Dec. 20, presided over by Bishop James J. Shumway, most of the Saints, from Shumway, and many from Taylor and Snowflake were in attendance, where testimonies of Bro. Harris' faithfulness were born by Elders Joseph W. Smith, William H. Solomon, Littleton L. Perkins, William G. Shumway, F. P. Deham, William J. Flake, James I. Shumway.

PULSATIONS OF A WATCH.
The lifetime of a good watch is 50 years. In its daily duties the balance vibrates 18,000 times every hour, 432,000 times a day, or 157,680,000 times a year. The halving makes a similar number of vibrations, and an equal number of ticks from the escapement. If it is a really good watch, multiply 157,680,000 by 50, which gives 7,884,000,000 pulsations for 50 years. The chances are that the watch may even then be in serviceable condition.—Amateur Work.

Merited Success.
"And who," we asked, "is the gentleman in the superb motor car?" "Cotton," the great "ad" writer, our informant replied. "He is in the medical line, and can describe a disease so splendidly that every healthy man will think he's got it."
