the employment agency and had not authorized the agency or anyone else to hire men for him. He said that on one occasion he was greatly in need of men and he went over to the Orpheum building and asked Mr. Renton to let that life him have four of his men. The four men sent by Renton, it afterwards appeared, were men employed through beared, were men employed through the agency. Two of the men, Mr. Smoot said, proved to be good work-ers and reside in this city and the company intends to keep them. When the employment contracts were called to his attention he said that he told the men to take them back and he refused to honor them. That was the but with the employment business, The committee took the whole matter under advisement at the conclusion of Mr. Smoot's talk.

Hendricks said: "That was ancient history, We had gone into that before. We told them (the society) to call the loan, We marked the valuation of the property down to $150,000. They kicked on that, and we told them that if we made any change it would be less. They then foreclosed the mortgage on the proper-ty, bid it in for $20,000, and they have Mr. Hendricks also replied to the and, Heinfleks, Jorome of New York, who had said it was funny that the newspapers could get a copy of the ev-idence taken in the Equitable investi-gation when he (the district attorney) could not. Mr. Hendricks said: could not. Mr. Hendricks said: "If Jerome wanted a copy of the tess-timony why did not he ask for it? He understands the Japanese position and fully realized hereit he war that an aggressive policy being pursued under the lead of Viceroy Alaxieff and M. Bezobrazoff, president of the Yain Timber company, and the cotrole of adventurers' connected with them would drive Japan to take up the sword. At one time Witte talked over the situation with the Marquis Ito, president of the Japanes privy council, end one of the leading statesmen of Japan. Practically it was Witte's dis-sepproval of Russia's far eastern policy of the evention of a viceroyalty in the far east which caused his downfall as minister of finance.

WHY MURAVIEFF DECLINED.

Paris, July 13.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Echo de Paris states that the declination of M. Mu-ravieff to head the Russian peace mis-sion was based parily on the state of his health and parily on the fact that his allowance for expenses to cover the period of his account in America period of his solourn in America was only 15,000 roubles, which amount he considered insufficient owing to the great cost of living in the United States.

PRESIDENT IS ADVISED.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 13.-President Rooscyclt received from the Associated Press the first definite news of the declination of M. Muravieff to act as the principal plenipotentiary of Russia In the conference and of the designation by the Russian emperor of M. Witte is the leading Russian envoy. Official notification of M. Witte's appointment has not reached the president from Petersburg, although it may come at any time.

Unomcially the designation of M. Witte is regarded as most propitious. It is believed that his appointment is an besurarce that peace in the far east is now in sight.

a Director of the Equitable As Life Assurance Society.

New York, July 13 .- Senator Depew has not resigned as a director of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, This announcement was made today by Chairman Paul Morton of the Equitable, when his attention was directed to an interview with the sena-tor in Paris yesterday which was printed here today. Mr. Morton said that just before Senator Depew sailed for Europe a few works ago he called at the Equitable offices and told the chairman that he would resign as a chairban that he would result as a director and that he had no objection to his $20,000 year position as special counsel to the society being cancelled or abolished. No formal presentation of the resignation ever had been made, however, and Mr. Morton said he was unprepared to say whether or not it would be accepted if tendered. Senator Depew's connection with the so-clety as special counsel will terminate on August 1. It having been announced some time ago that the position would be abolished at the end of the present

FOUND DEAD IN BED. Mrs. Elizabeth B. Stoker Dies Suddenly

Of Heart Failure.

Mrs. Elizabeth B. Stoker, wife of Robert Stoker, was found dead in bed short-ly after 6 o'clock this morning, at her home, 173 D street. Mrs. Stoker retired home, 173 D street. Mrs. Stoker retired last night in her usual health. About 5 o'clock this morning her daughter spoke to her, at which time she ap-peared to be all right. An hour later members of the family noticed a pe-cullar expression on their mother's face, and on going to her bedside to in-vestigate, were startled to find that their loved one had closed her eyes in the sleep of death. A physician was im-mediately called in and he attributed death to heart trouble, with which the deceased had been afflicted for some time.

Mra. Stoker was the daughter of Wil-Jam and Jane Browell and was born Aug. 7, 1845 at North Shields, county of Northumberland, England. She had been a resident of this city for a num-ber of years and was highly respected ber of vears and was highly respected by a wide circle of acquaintances. She leaves 12 children and 15 grandchildren. The funeral will be held Sunday, July 16, at 12:30 p. m., from the Twentleth ward meetinghouse. RATTLE OF THE ANTLERS

David Lindsay of Kaysville Charged With Second Offense.

(Special to the "News.") Farmington, Utah, July 13 .- David Lindsay, the 17-year-old son of J. B. Lindsay of Raysville, was arrested this morning by Sheriff Wate, charged will stealing a horse and buggy belonging to Ed King of Layton. The young man, R appears, took the rig from the Lagoon at 10 o'clock last night and drove to Kaysville, where he turned the animal loose, as if to make it appear that it had run away. The onumstances, however, were too transparent to be infeunderstood, and the parent to be migunderstond, and the thief was taken into custody this morning. It is probable that the charge will go hard with him as Lindsay was found guilty only a short time ago of burglary in the second degree, but the court suspended sentcher pending good behavior. Now he will have this charge to meet, as well as the additional charge of grand larceny.

SIGNED BY HEWLETT.

Acting Mayor Approves of Report to Ex. tend Sewer System.

Acting Mayor Frank J. Howlett to-day attached his signature of appro-val to the report of the sewer, en-ginacting and special water commit-reest which recommend an important addition to the sewer plans for which special bonds have been issued by the city. The report, which was adopted by the council on Monday night, pre-vides for the construction of an in-tercepting main sewer running from East Temple and Ninth Bouth streets west to Eighth West and thence north to Ninth North street in addition to the other sewer extensions mentioned in the original plan. By this change it will be necessary to expend $155,000 on the sewer improvements instead of $150,000 as at first contemplated.
