FLOATING FRAGMENTS.

Two vagrants were arrested last night.

Apostle George Teasdale spent Sunday in Willard.

The wind howled around fearfully on Saturday night.

Four men for profanity and drunkenness were fined $10.

"Romany Eye" at the Opera House on Tuesday evening.

Moss' Boston Operatic Minstrels on Thanksgiving night.

More snow fell during Saturday night and Sunday morning.

Elder H. W. Nalebitt visited Brigham City on Sunday.

A good way to keep butter—salt it; the boards won't eat so much of it then.

Yesterday was one to make the inside of a house preferable to the outside.

There's no danger of the world not turning round, as long as there are so many "drunks" in it.

The Bishopric of the Nineteenth Ward assisted in dispensing the sacrament yesterday afternoon.

A capable and prudent housekeeper is wanted to do the housework for a small family. See advt.

The "Denouncer" and the "Omni-bus," by the 21st Ward dramatic company, to-night and to-morrow night.

The telephone is to be extended, says the Journal, from Logan to Providence, Millville, Hyrum and Wellsville.

A runaway in the 21st Ward Saturday, of a team belonging to Castleton Bros., luckily resulted in no harm.

The Middlebrough Reunion takes place on Thursday, Thanksgiving day, in the Fourth Ward Assembly Rooms.

Don't forget the Moss Minstrels, the great attraction at the Salt Lake Theatre on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights.

Hon. John T. Caine left for Washington last night. He was accompanied by his wife, two children, Mrs. M. H. Hardy and Mrs. F. L. Williams.

A fellow named Hamill, arrested Saturday night, for insulting a young lady on the U. C. train, is undergoing trial this afternoon before Justice Spiller.

The O. R. Herald announces another cut in freight rates to 10 cents per cwt., on the U. P. and D. & R. G. lines. The U. P. office in this city knows nothing about it.

Drs. M. B. and Maggie C. Shipley deliver a free lecture in the 16th Ward Chapel to-night at half past seven o'clock. Subject: "Life and its Vicissitudes," from a physiological standpoint. All invited.

The idea suggested by the News some weeks ago, concerning street cleaning by machinery, has been partly acted upon by the city authorities. A road scraper, imported from Pennock & Sons, Indiana, is now used by the street supervisor.

A telegram from David Reese, manager of the Logan Opera House, to Messrs Caine and Clawson says: "Moss Minstrels' best show ever here. Miss King wonderful." They appear at the Theatre on Thursday night. Box office opened this morning.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Derr's Benefit To-night.—This evening the benefit performance to William Derr, the veteran Theatre janitor, will take place. The bill is a splendid one, consisting of the fine emotional French drama "Coriselle," and an attractive olio of songs, dances and instrumental selections. Give Mr. Derr a bounding benefit, long to be remembered.

Meeting of Horsemen.—The horsemen of this vicinity met at the City Hall on Saturday afternoon. A temporary organization was effected as follows: George Clemon, president; A. J. Pendleton, vice president; H. J. Funt, secretary. The subject of a permanent organization was discussed at some length and finally postponed till the next meeting. A committee was appointed as follows: John B. Winer, Ned Wallis, F. Armstrong, S. G. Ewing and Bulvar Roberts, to gather the latest and best information to be had about other societies of the kind, east and west, and prepare rules and by laws, also to confer with legislators and have a Territorial law passed, so that the society might work legally.

Much spirit was manifested, and a determination on the part of those present to form a society for the permanent good of Utah. The object is to protect and advance the horse interests of this section of country. As soon as the association is formed it is hoped that branches will be organized throughout the Territory. After all other business was disposed of the following resolutions were passed:

Resolved, That the Horse Breeding Association of Utah make it their special study to improve their own horses and use their influence with their neighbors to do the same.

Resolved, That we will not herd after countenance by word or deed the importing of stallions from the East with bogus pedigrees or refused and worn out old horses, and further

Resolved, That we encourage the importation of pedigreed horses and mares, of the best breeds in the world, and that we aid and assist the Deseret Manufacturing Society in all their fair, and be ever ready to promote the horse interests of Utah, and to discourage the use of the branding iron and lassoing.

The meeting was then adjourned for three weeks, to meet at 7 o'clock in the City Hall. The secretary was instructed to furnish the resolutions to all the daily papers.

PERSONAL.

George W. Thatcher, Esq., of Logan, was in town this morning.

Arthur Stayer, Esq., of Farmington, was on the streets to-day.

W. H. Dusenberry, Esq., of Provo, made a flying trip to the city yesterday.

J. W. Cook, of Springville, Utah County, was in town to-day on business.

David Felt, of Felt Brothers, news-dealers and stationers, was up from Provo to-day.

Mrs. Morgan, wife of his honor Judge Morgan, of Idaho, arrived in the city on Saturday evening, and is stopping at the Spencer House. She will remain in town a few days.

To-day we were pleased to receive a call from Geo. D. Williamson, Esq., Traveling Agent of the Chicago & Northwestern Railway. His headquarters are at No. 8 Windsor Hotel Block, Denver, Col.

Elder J. D. Hirst, who returned from a mission to England with the last company of immigrants, was in town on Saturday. His health was quite poor while absent. He left here in October, 1892, and was absent one year. He enjoyed his labors very much. Brother Hirst's home is in Paradise, Cache County.

Heard From.—The S. S. Oregon, we learn from the Millennial Star, arrived at Liverpool on the 2nd of November, with the following named Elders for the European Mission: August Valentine, J. W. Thomas, S. R. Bennion, William H. Corbridge, Richard Douglas, Wm. D. Salter, George F. Hunter, John L. Edwards, John Griffin, Frederick Lewis, Arthur Stayer, Jr., Wm. M. Davis, Frank Greenwell, J. W. Thornley, George J. Dent, Christopher J. Arthur, Jos. H. Armstrong, Samuel H. Allen, Alvin C. Anderson, Mons. Monson, Lars Larsen, Paul E. H. Hammer, Thomas Blessinger, Frederick Schoenfeld, Jacob Hafen, Joseph A. Smith, Eleazar Evans, F. M. Lyman, O. H. D. Peterson, Oley Olson, Ole Hansen. Seventeen of them had been appointed to the British Mission, and had already departed for their various fields of labor or gone to visit among their friends awhile. Seven of them, destined for Scandinavia, renewed their journey November 2nd. The other seven were to labor in the Swiss and German Mission. They, with one exception, would remain a few days in London and Paris, visiting places of interest, and then proceed to their destination.

Sister Josephine Smith and child and Sister Annie W. Cannon accompanied them. The former two remained in Liverpool, and the latter, in company with Elder F. M. Lyman, Jr., left there on the 3rd inst. for Bern, to join her husband. A private letter to her mother states that she reached her destination in safety two days later.

Moss' Minstrels.—The Portland, Ore.) News says of Moss' Boston Operatic Minstrels, the attraction at the Salt Lake Theatre during the Thanksgiving holidays:

"New Market Theatre was filled last evening with a happy, uproarious audience, that gave to the minstrel troupe as warm and cordial a reception as could be desired. Encore after encore was demanded, and the programme had been nearly doubled in length. People laughed until they were hoarse. The entertainment was the best in its line ever staged in this city. The artists are too numerous to allow special mention of each, but they were without exception excellent. Throughout the first part there were local gags and hits that would occasionally bring down the house. The instrumental and vocal music was far superior to the generally of that furnished by minstrel troupes. The dancing was very fine, that of Sam Morton especially being remarkably clever. But by far the greatest attraction was found in the singing of Miss Beulah Louise King. She possesses a clear, flexible, ringing voice, which she uses with good taste, and an expression that enables her to render such songs as 'The Kansas River,' and 'Gauls' Land,' in a way that touches all hearts. And in addition to this she has a robust, lady-like, but withal very genial stage presence, that immediately wins the sympathy of her hearers, thus doubling the pleasure which the mere singing would give. All in all, the entertainment was a thoroughly satisfactory one, and the company will undoubtedly do a big business the balance of the week."

Alarm of Fire.—The fire alarm, which sounded on Saturday evening shortly before 8 o'clock, was due to some sparks issuing from the chimney of D. O. Calder's new building, west of the Emporium corner, where the workmen had ignited some shavings and bits of wood to test the capacity of the boiler of the new heating apparatus. No damage was done.

The direction of the supposed fire was at first misinterpreted, it having been telephoned "Mr. Calder's new building," but interpreted on the other end Mr. Culmer's new building. This was what caused the fire brigade, which moved out with great celerity, to at first go up Mala Street towards Mr. Culmer's house, above the Kimball residence in the 16th Ward. The mistake was one easily made.

The Lightning Liar. Again.—On Saturday, Chief Justice Hunter called the attention of the bar of the Third District Court to a lying dispatch, similar to the many sent East and West from this city at various times respecting the "Mormons," only in this instance the Judge himself was made the victim of the falsifier's spleen.

The dispatch, which was taken from the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, was denounced in strong terms by various members of the bar, and a resolution of its charges was drafted and sent to St. Louis for publication in the same paper.

A Ward Reunion will take place in the 14th Ward Hall on Wednesday, Thanksgiving Eve. Clives' band in attendance.

J. A. Kessell, a C. P. brakeman, fell from a car on Friday night and was caught by the brakes of a passing car badly bruised but no bones broken.

James Ackerman, of the 20th Ward, fell from a roof upon which he was working Saturday afternoon, gashing his head and injuring his hip. No serious effects.

Chloken Charley was fined $16 for being drunk and disorderly. He said he would not be caught by the police again.

Thomas Canoy, of Corinne, while grooming a horse last Thursday, was accidentally thrown under the animal and trampled in a fearful manner. There is little hope of his recovery.

Neither mental nor physical labor can be accomplished satisfactorily unless the system is in order. When you feel tired, languid, weak, without exertion, the mind slow to act, and requiring great mental effort, you can rest assured that your liver is not acting properly, and that nature requires assistance to help throw off impurities. There is no remedy that will accomplish this so mildly and yet effectually as "Purifier of the Blood." A trial will satisfy you of its merits.
