CONGRESSIONAL

SENATE.

The Neutrality question discussed, etc.
Williams from the committee on public lands reported, with amendments, a bill granting land to aid the construction of a railroad from the Columbia river to Puget Sound.

A bill passed to enlarge the public grounds surrounding the capital.
Sherman offered a preamble declaring that the United States observes with deep interest the civil war now existing in Cuba, and sympathizes with the people, as with the people of all the American nations or colonies in their efforts to secure independence from European powers; and resolved that we recognize the existence of a war between Spain and Cuba and that we observe strict neutrality between the belligerents. Sherman said he desired to call the attention of the committee on foreign relations to the fact that the people of this country would not much longer stand the cold indifference of this Government toward Cuban affairs. The resolution did not propose to recognize Cuban independence, but simply the condition of war. Sherman said the committee had somewhat considered the subject, but the facts before them, as to the actual condition of Cuban affairs, were not sufficient to warrant any definite action. Sherman remarked that the fact that Spain had built thirty gunboats in our ports to put down what was called a little rebellion was sufficient warrant for his resolution. The resolution was referred to the committee on foreign relations.

Nye introduced a bill to relinquish the interest of the United States in the military reservation of San Francisco.
Corbett introduced a bill granting land to aid in the construction of a canal in Oregon. The bill to abolish the franking privilege was taken up. Drake renewed his amendments to continue the existing privilege of the law in favor of the publishers of newspapers and periodicals. The bill was discussed till the expiration of the morning hour, when the unfinished business, namely, the Mississippi bill was proceeded with.

Vickers spoke on the arrangement and reconstruction policy, and said he was willing to support the imposition of conditions the same as in the case of Virginia.
Tipton opposed the conditions, believing they would prove futile and abortive.
Drake called attention to the fact that the Senators who had attacked the Senator from Massachusetts were those who, upon reconstruction measures, had taken sides with the Democrats. If conservative Republicanism was to develop itself in the Senate, as opposed to radical Republicanism, he desired the fact to be stated.

Fowler spoke upon the general situation, which provoked somewhat of a personal colloquy with Nye, which was finally terminated by the Chair deciding that a remark made by Nye was out of order.

HOUSE.

Various Bills discussed.

Among the bills introduced was one for the further reduction of the army. A resolution was adopted calling for a report of the expenditures of the Freedmen's Bureau.
The House went into a committee of the whole on the legislative appropriation bill.

A discussion again arose on a motion to strike out the appropriation for reporters for the Congressional Globe, it being stated that the publishing of the proceedings of Congress could be done at the public printing office for sixty thousand dollars a year cheaper than in the Globe.
Dawes said the question of the Globe came up every session. A new contract was made last year, and he was willing to abide by that contract.

Without discussing the question the committee rose.

A resolution was adopted calling for information on the aggregate expenditures for public purposes in the District of Columbia, since the establishment of the seat of Government.
Cobb, of Wisconsin, announced the death of his late colleague, Benjamin F. Hopkins. Eulogies were pronounced, and resolutions adopted, and the House adjourned.

MISSOURI.

Important School Bill.

St. Louis.—The House yesterday passed a bill debarring officers from having the control of the disbursement of school money and from discriminating in salaries on account of sex.

TENNESSEE.

Loss of Life by Steamboat Explosion.

The steamboat Maggie Hayes from New Orleans for Pittsburgh, blew up at Chute-sixty-six, near Helena at two o'clock yesterday afternoon, killing Captain Martin, the second engineer and eight deck hands. The second clerk was badly scalded; the passengers are all safe. The boat and cargo became a total loss. A pleasure party from Cincinnati was aboard, but all escaped.

NEW YORK.

Salt against French Cable Co.—Report of Sanitary Committee—Rumors of Conspiracy in France, etc.

NEW YORK.—Collector Bailey has instituted suits against the French Trans-Atlantic Cable Company, for penalties in a hundred cases in which the company is accused of giving un-stamped receipts for money to its patrons.

The four seamen of the ship Neptune who alleged that they were cruelly treated by Captain Peabody and his two mates on their late passage from Liverpool, are now lying in the Long Island hospital. In addition to their statement, four others testified as to the cruel conduct of the captain towards the crew. Captain Peabody has, on several former occasions, been arrested on similar charges.

The sanitary committee report to the Board of Health upon the Fisk concrete pavement, in Fifth Avenue, says that the fine dust to which the pavement has been ground is causing sickness and death to the residents and visitors on the avenue. Cases are given where it has produced sore eyes, catarrh and hastened consumption.

Several European steamers are now over due at this port, and they have undoubtedly been detained by severe storms: they are the Atlanta, Onward, Washington, Manhattan, Java, Ville de Paris and Anglo Saxon.

A letter from Brussels says parties who intend to create a revolution in France meet regularly in that city; they have already involved a large number in the conspiracy, and they positively declare that there is the greatest dissatisfaction among the French soldiers, and that several regiments can be relied upon to join the revolution whenever the word is given.

OHIO.

Distillers in Court.

CINCINNATI, O.—An application has been made to the Court of Common Pleas by the distillers of the second district, to restrain Collector Pullan from collecting, by distraint, the tax assessed under the rule requiring 48 hours fermentation, instead of seventy-two, as heretofore. The distillers claim that this assessment is a violation of the provision of the Constitution, "that no one shall be deprived of life, liberty or property, without due process of law." A temporary restraining order was allowed until Monday, when the application will be made before Judge Murdoch, of the Supreme Court, who will decide the case in reference to the Bible in public schools on that day.

CHICAGO.

Trade West—Outrages by Illicit Distillers, etc.

CHICAGO.—The Tribune's Washington special says the ways and means committee heard a delegation of whiskey men, who wish the time extended for taking the whiskey out of bond from one year, as now, to three years; they argue that fine whiskey is not fit for market till it is three years old. There are thirteen million gallons of this whiskey in bond. The delegation also want the tax on distilled spirits collected by direct tax at the place of manufacture, to cover the special tax and fees, so that when the spirits leave the distillery there shall be no further trouble about the matter.

The House banking committee have examined Gen. Porter, the President's private Secretary with regard to his knowledge of the gold conspiracy, obtaining important evidence relative to the efforts of the ring to involve the President and family in the scheme.

An Omaha special says the travel westward is unusually heavy this week, and that the hotels and regular trains have been occupied by a larger number of passengers than at any other time this season.

An Atlanta, Ga., special reports more outrages upon revenue officers by illicit distillers.

KENTUCKY.

A Shocking Occurrence.

LOUISVILLE, 11.—At Springfield, Tennessee, last evening, Thomas Herkermith, a lad of fourteen, accidentally shot and killed his cousin Mrs. B. H. Bibb. The boy is now a raving maniac.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Temperance Legislation.

BOSTON.—The majority committee of the House submitted the license law for suppressing public bars and drinking shops, and allowing licensed inn keepers and common victuallers to sell liquor to a guest by the decanter on the premises. Licensed liquor dealers are given permission to sell, not to be drunk on the premises; the license fees are fixed at from one to fifteen hundred dollars. The minority committee reported, taking strong ground against the license in any form.

HAVING successfully practiced Homeopathy to some extent for the last 22 years, in India especially, on the disease of children, to which it is peculiarly adapted, its remedies being tasteful and easily administered the undersigned will be happy to give advice and medicine GRATIS to any parties who may personally apply to him at the residence of Bishop Thos. Jenkins, 4th Ward, before 8 a.m. or from 4 to 5 1/2 p.m., who are required to bring a couple of small clean bottles or large vials with them for the medicine.

Should patients not be able to apply personally, those who attend on their behalf must be able either to describe distinctly the symptoms of the complaint or bring a written statement of the same, which, if severe, Mr. M. will if possible, endeavor to visit.

Freewill offerings, however small, will not be refused on the recovery of the patients, but no demand will, in any case, be made either for medicine or attendance.
