HAPPY NEW YEAR

NOTICE

Advertisers in the Daily or Weekly "News" whose contracts do not expire until after Dec. 31, 1898, and subscribers who have paid beyond that date are notified that arrangements have been made with the publishers of the "News" to carry out their contracts.

RELIGIOUS PUBLICATIONS

Important history shows that religious publications, whether directed against entire communities or restricted to certain localities, are kindled and fanned into flame under some special pretext.

MONEY IN WAR

War is always expensive, but it appears that there is a way of making it much more so. It is not surprising that the money market is so tight.

THE GIB

Eastern papers devote a great deal of space to the prevalence of some local epidemic in the city of Gib. The epidemic is said to have been first reported in Gib, Ontario, in 1898.

CHINA GOING

The Chinese Imperial Government is now in a somewhat embarrassing situation, but it is not yet in a position to surrender.
