

CADET BATTALION TO GO TO SEATTLE

High School Boys Plan Trip to Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition.

BOARD GIVES ITS APPROVAL.

Proposition Submitted at Session Held Yesterday Afternoon—Supervisors Are Re-Appointed.

The famous high school cadets will attend the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition, but the date will have to be changed to some time during the summer vacation. This was decided yesterday afternoon at a special meeting of the board of education. H. P. Henderson was instructed to take up the matter with Gov. Spry, who is now in Seattle and have the date changed. The governor was desirous of having the cadets there on Utah day, which is set for the first part of September. The board wants it changed to some day in August so that the cadets will not miss a week of school in making the trip.

That the cadets will make the trip to the exposition is practically a certainty. In case it is made, it will serve as a substitute for the annual encampment, which has been a feature with the cadets for several years past. Last year the cadets made their respective trip to San Francisco to act as the personal escort to Admiral Robley D. Evans, who was then commanding the Atlantic fleet, and they made a record for themselves upon that trip that placed them in the highest rank both in general conduct and as a trained military organization. Two years ago they had their encampment near the shores of Utah lake, near American Fork, and that was also a notable occasion.

WILL COST $15,000.

This year the trip to the Seattle exposition will involve the expenditure of a large sum of money to enable the cadets to make the journey. It is estimated that it will require at least $15,000 for transportation alone, as there are approximately 300 cadets who would make the trip. Half of this amount could, it is said, be raised within the corps, leaving the remaining half to be secured from outside sources. It is not thought that this feature, however, will prove a serious obstacle to the visit of the cadets to the exposition, as it is known that several men of wealth have expressed a willingness to contribute liberally toward helping the boys on their way. It is not forth that the cadets would, in a measure, be representative of the city and state, and especially of the school system in vogue in Utah, and as such might be regarded as a part of the exhibit from this state of which all might be proud. So that on such a basis it is thought it would not be stretching a point even to ask for a small appropriation from the general committee having in charge the expenditure of funds provided with which to make an exhibit from Utah at the exposition.

PROPOSITION IS FAVORED.

At all events there are those who in their enthusiasm over the success of the high school cadets on their famous trip to San Francisco believe that the Seattle junket could be undertaken and that the cadets would acquire themselves with fully as much credit to themselves and the state as they did upon that memorable journey.

It is known that Principal George Eaton of the high school and Capt. Webb of the high school military department are in favor of the proposition, in case the proper arrangements can be made, and the approval of the project by the board of education will give it an impetus that will set the matter in full swing, and make the watchword of the cadets henceforth to be "On to Seattle."

The board, at its session yesterday, reappointed the supervisors and the principals at the meeting for another year. The persons who will be advised that their services are requested next year are:

General Supervisors—Miss Rosalie Pollock and John S. Welch.
Special Supervisors—Music, W. A. Wetzel; art, J. Leo Fairbanks; manual training, D. W. Parrott; physical education, Miss Martha Johnson; director of sewing, Miss Anna L. Corbett.
Principals—High school, George A. Eaton; elementary schools, Josephine Chambers, Grace E. Frost, Mary Dyson, P. N. Poulson, W. D. Prosser, W. J. McCoy, W. W. Barton, E. S. Hallock, J. H. Coombs, Evelyn Kelly, Elizabeth V. Fritz, Mark C. Brown, L. M. Quattrough, Harold J. Stearns, D. L. Coombs, Edna Powers, A. B. Kosler, Oscar Van Cott, H. R. Poulson, E. E. H. Scott, E. D. ALL MILK MUST PASS THE TEST

City Food Inspector's Ordinance
Is Approved by Council Committee.

MEATS MUST BE INSPECTED.

Licenses Will Be Revoked Unless Requirements Are Lived Up to by Slaughterers.

After laboring for several weeks, Walter J. Frazer, city food inspector, induced the municipal committee last night to take action on the new milk ordinance which he has prepared. The committee decided to report favorably on its passage, and it will be taken up Monday night.

The ordinance is a step toward purifying dairy products which are sold in the city. It provides for the inspection of all milk and cattle and all dealers in milk, whether they live in the city or not must secure permits before they can sell any milk in the city limits. The names of the milkmen from whom milk is obtained must be kept in the stores of all who sell milk. The government score is to be used, which provides for a rating of 45 by this system. Milk must be sold in sealed bottles. Butter must be marked by a standard of purity and skimmed milk must also be marked. The use of viscous and similar substances are prohibited. Ice cream must contain 12 per cent of milk fat and only three ounces of gelatin will be allowed to one gallon of ice cream.

A stringent ordinance regulating the sale of meats was also reported on favorably and will probably be passed Monday night. The ordinance provides that all meats sold in the city shall bear the stamp of government inspection.

This action followed a report on the condition of several slaughterhouses in the city limits. Mr. Frazer said that Hopworth & Sons' slaughterhouse had no refrigerator, that the walls of the place were unsanitary and that they are killing hogs there in violation of the city ordinance. Several residents corroborated his statements before the committee. A representative of the Inter-Mountain Packing company was present and said that every animal was inspected by government employees in the slaughterhouses. Hopworth was given a week to remedy the conditions at his place. Unless he complies by that time, his license will be revoked.

DELAY IN PAVING.

State Street Residents Were Promised Improvement Last Year.

Residents of State street, between Seventh and Ninth South are loudly protesting these days against the delay in paving those two blocks on State street. Two years ago a considerable majority of the property owners petitioned the city council to have the improvement made, and the promise was given that pavement should be laid forthwith.

Now the city says that the paving cannot be done because the municipality has no money to pay for the intersections, and unless the new pave succeeds in which the attempt is being made to force abutting owners to pay for the intersections, the improvement is not likely to be done in a long while. "It is a piece of pettiness on the part of the city," said Ed. Stromberg, of 414 South State, today. "The two blocks contain the worst bits of road in the entire county. There is pavement above and macadam below, but when there is the least moisture the 30 rods are almost impassable. Traffic from the country is diverted at Ninth South, and the city is a disgrace to the people who want the improvements and are ready and willing to pay for them."

CHIEF BANDIT BREAKS OUT.

Leroy Corbett, Leader of the "Highway Robbers' Union," Escapes.

After being detained in the Utah Detention home about 24 hours, Leroy Corbett, aged 31 years, chief of the "Highway Robbers' Union," succeeded in breaking out and delivering his two companions, Leonard Powell and H. J. Rydman, aged 10 and 12 years respectively, Chief Probation Officer Guardello Brown with the assistance of two other officers took up the chase and soon apprehended them. They were taken back and put under surveillance and will be arraigned Saturday in the juvenile court. Two more boys were taken into custody yesterday who are believed to be members of the gang, but they deny it.
