THE DESERET NEWS.

[November 2, 1864.

[For the DESERET NEWS. EUREKA!

I have found it!- I have found it! Yes-a battle I have won!-My brow!-the laurel which has bound it Tells that victory has begun:

Who's the foe that gave me battle? Who-that threw the gauntlet down? Who-that made the grape shot rattle Over my devoted crown?-

The challenge!-what Goliah sent it? Bidding me in scorn depart-The bow defiant!-who has bent it To propel the poison'd dart?-

Self!-the Giant Self's the foe, Insidius foe!-with Hydra-head!-Prepares us many a cup of woe, And makes us many a thorny bed!-

Outer foes, provoke a smile 'Though they mar the "Oil and wine" Contempt I give them all the while-But Self's within, and must be mine.

Then Self be passive-stoop thy crest To me, thy victor-hence for aye-From war and battles take thy rest, And learn thy conquoror to obey! HANNAH T. KING.

G.S.L. City.

flock, and they have been abun- picture of barrenness, as he wends his name of virtue, and put to death the dantly blessed under my administration. way o'er this lonely tract. I did not desire to be their shepherd; dai of the case is stake of Zion; but how sel- pect, when I arose and greeted him, dom we inquire of ourselves if we are which he returned in a distant, though that the Spirit of the Lord will witness | caves, and holes of the steep cairn.' being under the necessity of saying, Thus saith the Lord to enforce it. I Jesus Christ. Amen.

but the Great Shepherd of all the sheep of a strange formation, as I traveled, ly- tablished religion in Scotland, still holds placed me in this position, and there is ingin the depth of this morass, but now, jurisdiction over her general assemblies, no man on earth can truthfully say as my way lay directly to it, and being in and sends her commissioners to overaught against the dealings of the lead- the vicinity of the farm, I bent my steps rule any act not in unison with their ers of this people with the Latter-day towards the house. A few stunted trees governmental instructions. Christ is Saints. We have blessed them with were the only indications of foliage the blessings of life and salvation-the around the place, and these were more blessings of this life, and of that life | like mourners over decayed nature, than | which is to come, for the kingdom and the sturdy eims of which they were the the greatness of the kingdom under the representatives. A dark colley dog whole heavens must, sooner or later, came barking at me as I approached. pass into the hands of God's people. The day was sultry, and rather than en-We are trying to prepare the minds of rage the angry cur I sat down on the the Saints for the reception of this great steps of the mound, till some one, would power, that they may prove themselves come out of the house. Presently an competent and worthy to hold it. There old man appeared and silenced the inis of a faithful Elder who does not furiated animal. His white locks and earnestly for the redemption reverend aspect inspired me with resprepared to enter upon that work. The genteel way. I told him that I was willing to bestow His bounties upon us | ral newspaper, and as my way was some | acuteness and vigor of our senses. Being | school-mates, some sixty years ago, in | less than Sharp.' to believe, then it would be necessary to associates, who were persecuted for sion? say, Thus saith the Lord, to operate up- their religion. This mound was their and heather. heard, or read, of bloody Claverhouse, | daughters put them to death also. children?' withering look, as he pointed to the port.' ashes of a rye straw for every word that in their truthful bearings, on life scenery days of bloody Claverhouse. Do you fare. think, sir, that an act of toleration, adherents to papacy. Episcopacy sir, Often had I observed a large mound although Presbyterianism is the esnot the head of that church-remember that my friend. 'Tis the King, King George the Fourth if you please, a greater w-e-master than Henry the Eighth.'

> At this juncture of his polemical relation I could not help laughing at his enthusiasm, while I admired his sincerity, and historical knowledge.

'But,' he resumed, 'the H-s of Loch-n will never yield to the oppression and suppression of religious liberty, although they "give our roofs to the fiames, and our flesh to the eagles," as Sir Walter says. Yes, while grass grows and water runs, never, never Lord is very merciful to us, and more traveling as a canvaser for an agricultu- will the solemn league and covenant be broken by the sons and adherents of than we are to receive them, or prepar- miles nearer to K- by taking the the Camerons, the Guthries and Rened to appreciate them; for if we were Moorland road, and being curious to wicks, who fought and bled at Bothnow prepared to receive the fullness of learn something of this mound, which well, at Drumclog, and on the Moors of His kingdom, we would be far advan- had often attracted my attention, I Clydesdale, Mearnus, Kyle and Carrick. ced in the knowledge of God to what hoped he would satisfy my request, if Never will they acknowledge popery or we are. I have often remarked that in not too impertinent, by informing me prelacy! This mound will stand as a spiritual things we are one; and we have why such a pile of earth had been monument and a witness of their vows, also got to become one in temporal raised, and for what purpose? His re- their determination and valor, and things as we are one in spiritual things. served manner rather cramped my should their sons have to take the cold Br. Kimball has told you that the Lord curiosity; however, after telling him of earth for their bed, and the sky for their does not mean that we shall be one in the place of my nativity, and the name covering, as their fathers did, and this property, in the height of our persons, of my father's family, he became more mound for their watch-tower, they will color of our hair and eyes, in the size familiar, giving me to know, that my never yield to a second Grahame, more and expression of our features, or in the grandfather and himself had been bloody than Claverhouse-more relentthus physically one would not make us the parish of Blantyre. After asking While I looked at his white locks, as one as the Lord wishes us to be one. me a hundred questions, relating to they shock by the motion of his head He wishes us to be one in our efforts to | names, and families of which I had not | giving sanction to his protestations, I advance His kingdom. He wishes every the most distant knowledge, except the felt lost in the sublimity of his patrionman, every woman, and every child names of a few farm-steads, and ham- ism, and the sincerity of his veneration. that has attained to years of discretion | lets, in the neighborhood of his inquiry. | Never shall I forget those white locks, to be one in putting forth their hands, He told me that his forefathers had that reverend face, and uplifted hand to their means and their influence to bring lived on this farm [pointing to his heaven, against usurpation, bloodshed, about this desired object. I could give house] for some hundreds of years, and and treachery against Scotland's rights. you, Thus saith the Lord; but the faith | that he had been in the possession of it, And who could not but admire-who we have embraced is so reasonable, as proprietor, for half a century, 'and,' would not love and follow such an unrational and consistent, and so easily continued he, 'although I am not free flinching determination in a more truthproved, that I am not under the neces- to the ungodly professors of religion --- ful cause, and honor a covenant more sity of saying, Thus saith the Lord. If I will tell you my friend, that, this certainly made, for the redemption of I wanted you to believe a mass of folly mound, is the monument of past intol- not a nation, but a world, laboring and nonsense, such as others wish you | lerance, the labor of my father and his | under the sceptre of universal oppres-The old man kindly invited me to his on the fears of the more ignorant and lookout, their watch-tower, and these dwelling, which I accepted, and here, I superstitious of mankind. The truth glens and hollows among the hills were had another display of family kindness, always stands upon its own foundation, their gathering places, and their taber- sincerity and veneration. They took and speaks for itself; for, at this time, | nacles, where they met to worship God, | pleasure in showing me the Bible of every Elder and Saint should so live when they durst venture out of the Renwick, and also the room he slept in, the chair he knelt at in secret and unto them the truth of my words, and | The old man's eyes glistened, moist- family devotion, and his staff. These the words of the apostles, without my ened with the tears of pity, which relics of a good man were held by them dropped over his furrowed cheeks, as he in as much veneration, as the coat of pointed to the dark misty breaks in the Joseph was by his father. I was shown now say to the brethren and sisters, Be | hills, and the gray broken crags, that | the cave of three brethren, who were ye blessed in the name of the Lord frowned over the barren waste of fern | taken by Claverhouse and put to death. Near the opening of the cave a huge 'Have you not read,' he inquired, pile of rocks, marked the place of their 'the history of the Covenanters, when interment. Another old cairn, on the the strong hand of Episcopacy thrust side of the hill was the burial place of a out our ministers from their churches, whole family who perished by the hands and their flocks, and put men in their of the ruthless soldiery, who first shot pulpits by the force of arms and the the father, then his sons, and after desepoint of the bayonet? Have you not crating the bodies of the mother and and his merciless troopers, fiends in | 'There;' said the old man, 'is the cave human form, who rode through these of three brothers by the name of Nesbet, glens, and shot down men, women, and who were taken to Kilmarnock, and hanged and beheaded. Their bodies I looked at the old man's visage, as he were burned there in the churchyard, paused for breath, but the tear was dried and their heads were taken to Edinand the flash of his eyes had a scowling, burgh and set on spears in the west I felt pained at the recital of cruelty. 'Yes sir,' he continued, 'the very and desired him to take me to the top of novelist. Invasion, persecution, rebel- heather around you grows red from the the mound, which he did. I could see blood they have shed, and looks up to for miles in every direction. The landheaven, from this seered soil, crying for | scape was an unbroken strath of moss, vengeance on the government, who sent | hills and heather: far to the west I could see the firth of Clyde, the Highland 'But,' said I, 'these days of persecution | Isles to the west, and Ailsa craig, on the of Joseph Smith, in which I was an ac- that to the none intrusion party, headed have passed away, and "the act; of bosom of the sunlit waters. On the tor, relating to a few men in Nauvoo by the Rev. Dr. Chalmers, when up- toleration," now allows you and every north-east side of the mound in the diswho sought to make it appear that the wards of five hundred ministers, left other man, no matter what may be their tance he showed me a solitary house religious opinions, the liberty of wor- like his own, which he told me was the birth-place of Robert Pollock, who bad 'Hold there,' he cried interrupting me, recently died, leaving behind him a 'protest against the present iniquitous, book entitled "The course of time," Socinian, Latitudinarian established We found our way back to the house church, and the same spirit of persecu- where the old woman and her family tion will burn, hang, drown and shoot were waiting on our return, who kindly down God-fearing men, as it did in the invited me to partake of their frugal The day being far spent I accepted of The apartment to which I was intro-

THE LAY OF THE PEN.

Scratch, scratch, scratch, Paragraphs, Items and News, Essays, Tales and Reviews, With the blackest kind of blues.

Scratch, scratch, scratch, Marriages, Debts and Duns, Eulogy, Gossip and Puns, Accident, Panie and Pain, Scratch, scratch, scratch, With a vacuum in the brain! Scratch, scratch, scratch, Battle, Riot and Raid, Music and Cash and Trade, Who is and who isn't afraid!

Scratch, scratch, scratch, Apology, Challenge and Slur, Of It, of Him and of Her, Invention, Humbug and Truth, Folly, Fashion and Youth. Scratch, scratch, scratch, Suicide, Sermon and Joke Metaphysic, Science and Smoke, With upward and downward stroke, Ruin and Vice and Shame, Virtue, Honor and Fame.

Scratch, scratch, scratch, "It's easy as nothing to do," "I could do it better than you"-Such are the comments you hear, 'fo be considered a "Queer," And nothing at the end of the year.

Scratch, scratch, scratch, "You're everybody's tool;" The reader calls you a fool; "The editor is an ass," So says the critical mass; If the paper stops they howl, If it's a minute too late they growl.

[Written for the DESERET NEWS. SCRAPS FROM THE NOTE BOOK OF AN OLD REPORTER.

Scratch, scratch, scratch, OI slave of the mighty Press, The "devil" demands a "mess," For subscribers that never pay-O! isn't it jolly, say?

REMARKS By PRESIDENT BRIGHAM YOUNG, G. S. L. City, Oct. 7, 1864.

OTHER DOCTORS AND ADDRESS AND

[REPORTED BY G. D. WATT.]

The brethren who have spoken have been disposed to speak concerning the testimony they have within themselves | days of the first Roman invasion, down of the truth of this work. It made me to the Pretender, in 1745-and to the ex- and sanctioned their bloody deeds.' think of a circumstance in the history pulsion of the Covenanters, and from printed word was all in all, and im- their churches, by law established, in mensely superior to the living testimony consequence of governmental usurpa- shiping God as they please.' of the Holy Ghost in the believer, and tion. All these put together form a to the power of the living priesthood. broad sheet for speculation. The cus-I attended one of their meetings, which | toms, religion, and natural developewas held in Joseph's house, arose to ment of the country give a coloring to speak, and took for my text, "ye Saints | the mental painter, an eminent interest, of latter days, I would not give you the where the lights and shadows are cast is contained in the Bible, Book of Mor- and character. mon and Doctrine and Covenants, so far the believer."

man to testify publicly that I am a pro- The report of a gun occasionally, and why was it granted? Why? because while the old man, his two sons, and phet; nevertbeless, if any man feels joy the whirring sound of a covey of they could not kill out the defenders of myself, talked till bed-time on many rein doing this, he shall be blest in it. I patricks, broke the monotony of the religious rights. Tofight against papacy ligious topics. The fire-place, which have never said that f am not a prophet; | cooing dove among the deep moss haggs, when Catholicism had regal power, was was built in the centre of the room, and but if I am not, one thing is certain, I and the dark turf banks of this solitary treason, and death at the stake. And the chimney above head, occupying have been very profitable to this people. wild; but all outside of this, there was when King William, made Protestant- nearly one-half of the roof, gave one the In the providence of God He has nothing to enliven the weary traveler ism the law of the land, then his reli- idea of very primitive architecture. A placed me to take charge of His whose mind becomes assimulated to the gion when it prospered, obtained the great peat [turf] fire, with a piece of tar

How many men of honest, simple hearts, Tho' ignorant of God, and self, Have braved the rage of bigotry For principles they little understood, Yet, persecution dragged them into fame And gave them what the world admire-a name! LEO.

The mountains, hills, dales, straithes, glens, and heathery heaths of Scotland are fraught with a thousand reminiscences of local interest, and form in its annals an endless volume, for the pen | earth. of the historian, and the tales of the lion, resistance, feudalism and clanship form the stamina of its records from the Traveling on my mission of research, betters the condition of any people? their hospitality and enjoyed myself, astheir efficacy is concerned to save any in the Moorlands of Clydesdale, I came What right has any government to pass much to my satisfaction, in their conman, independent of the living priest- in sight of a solitary farm house, around acts of toleration? What government versation during the evening. hood of the Son of God, and the testi- which for miles there was nothing to should dare to meddle with men's relimony of the Holy Ghost in the heart of attract attention, save the bleating of gious opinions? And let me ask again, duced was their kitchen, dining room the sheep, the cry of the plover, and sir, who gained for Scotland, this and work shop, where the women sat at I have never particularly desired any the mournful wail of the peesweep. hypocritical act? the covenanters! and their little spinning-wheels working,