

LOCAL ITEMS.

PERSONAL.—By telegram to President B. Young, dated St. George, 6th, we learn that Elder H. P. Folsom, who left this city in poor health to fill his mission South, felt first rate from leaving Parowan until he reached the sand; from which time he suffered with sickness until yesterday.

CHICKEN CREEK.—The following telegrams were received last night:

Chicken Creek, Dec. 6.

Pres. B. YOUNG.
Opened office at 6 p.m., Charles C. Jones, operator. Go to Fillmore to-morrow.

A. M. MUSSER.

Chicken Creek, Dec. 6.

Pres. BRIGHAM YOUNG.
We thank you heartily for the Telegraph Office just opened. Will try and appreciate the favor by living nearer our God. Please name for us our new settlement, beautiful for location, three miles north-east of this place and just surveyed.

ABRAHAM PALMER, Pres't.

THEATRICAL.—To-night "The Hunchback" will be played, with Mr. and Miss Coudock in the roles of Master Walter and Julia. We hope to see the house crowded, for the drama is a most interesting one, and there is no question as to the excellent manner in which these fine roles will be enacted. The cast embraces the names of Miss Adams, Messrs. Lindsay, Graham, Dunbar and others.

In the farce of "Bow'd Out" Mr. Margotta sustains the part of Yearner, the hypocritical scoundrel who gets "bow'd out." It is a very laughable piece.

Miss Nunn sings a favorite ballad between the play and farce.

WILL COMMENCE.—The classes in the Council House will commence Monday morning. Professor Calder informed us this afternoon that he has already received the names of sixty pupils. We hope the number will soon be sufficient to fill the building, and compel an addition being made to it, knowing how important their advantages are, and the great good that result from their organization.

THE WEATHER.—The following was the state of the weather at noon to-day, received over the Deseret Telegraph Line:—

Logan; a little cloudy but warm; hard frost last night.

Brigham City; pleasant; a little cloudy.

Ogden; fine and warm.

American Fork; sun shining and warm; a few clouds.

Springville; mild and pleasant; a few hovering clouds.

Payson; somewhat cloudy, but warm and pleasant.

Nephi; fine but cloudy.

Fountain Green; sun shining, but cold.

Mount Pleasant; warm but cloudy.

Fort Ephraim; mixture of clouds, with sun shining at intervals.

Cove Creek; cloudy with slight breeze from the north.

Beaver; cloudy but warm and pleasant.

Parowan; very gloomy; clouds look heavy.

St. George; very misty but clearing off now.

Thermometer 60.

At the hour of our going to press there was every indication of a storm in this valley.

BEAVER.—By br. Isaac Riddle, just in from Beaver, we learn that peace, prosperity and plenty abound in that region. They have had no trouble with Indians lately; and believe the savages are quiet for the season. Public improvements are claiming the attention of the citizens; among others, the new meeting house, for the finishing of which the materials are on hand. It will be, when completed, a fine building, erected with a good quality of burnt brick. Shortly before he left three horse thieves were arrested and tried before Judge Murdock, who sentenced them respectively to six, four, and one, years imprisonment, with $300 of fine added to the thief who got the four years. They are now in the Penitentiary. The grasshoppers arrived in Beaver late in the season, and some fears are entertained for next year. The crops for the past harvest turned out very good, and thrashing is nearly got through with. They are plowing and sowing considerable wheat, preparing for a crop next season.

NORTH OGDEN.—Mr. Henry Holmes, our agent in North Ogden, informs us by letter of the Dedication of the new meeting house there, on Sunday last, Dec. 1st. President Lorin Farr, Bishop C. W. West, and Elders Walter Thompson and Joseph Farry, of Ogden City, attended the meeting. President Farr offered the Dedication prayer, and with Bishop West and Elders Thompson and Farry gave much valuable instruction to the Saints, on a variety of subjects having a bearing upon their present and future welfare and happiness. The building is 34 by 24 feet, with a gallery 14 by 24 feet; and the means to build it was raised by voluntary contribution. They have also a good schoolhouse on the same block, 34 by 24 feet. Their day and Sunday Schools are well attended; and the Saints manifest a desire to assist in every good work. During the past season they have taken up twelve new farms, which have been fenced, under contract, by Mr. Elihu Warren, with lumber and good sawed posts, the whole being a valuable addition to their farming lands on which they hope to raise grain the coming season. Bro. Holmes speaks of the beautiful location of North Ogden, with the abundant resources of range, water and timber that they possess, which through the blessings of God, they hope to fully develop.

INFORMATION WANTED.—Bro. R. R. Birbeck writes from Cedar, Iron Co., desiring to know the whereabouts of David Needham, William and Levi Naylor, John Fowkes and John Winterton, formerly of the Nottingham Conference. Elder John D. Chase, for whom he inquires, resides at Moroni, Sanpete. He also informs us that George Brooks, of Heywood's Cross, near Leigh Sinton, Worestershire, England, is anxious to hear from his two daughters who emigrated to this country some years ago.

MARRIED.—On Saturday, Nov. 30, by Elder Wilford Woodruff, Mr. John E. Evans, and Miss Mary Elizabeth Jones.—[M. Star please copy.
