LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

CHANGE OF TIME ON THE UTAH CENTRAL R. R.—On and after Thursday, May 19, the regular trains will leave this city for Ogden at 5 a. m., and 2.45 p. m. The accommodation train will leave Ogden at 5 a. m., and Salt Lake City at 4.40 p. m. For further particulars see advertisement in to-day's issue.

FIGHTING THEM.—A grasshopper war is being vigorously carried on in many of the wards of the city. The residents of the 20th Ward are making an onslaught to-day. There is ample room for the display of inventive genius in the invention of an efficient plan to destroy the destructive pests.

PETTY STEALING.—We have heard lately of a number of cases of petty theft in the upper wards of the city. There is now a prospect of its being checked. Several boys were this morning brought before Justice Clinton on a charge of stealing chickens, pigeons and sundry other things. A confession from the boys revealed the fact that others were implicated. The police are "going for" them, and the case is not yet disposed of.

DULL.—The weather is dull, business is dull, the people are dull, the "hoppers" ditto; in fact, everything and everybody seems to be yawning—especially about the pockets. The clouds have looked threatening the last two days, and while, if it comes, will have a tendency to brighten things.

STOP IT.—The reprehensible practice of turning cattle out to run at large in the meadow land known as the Seventh Ward pasture, is still indulged in by some, to the great injury of the land there, which is soft and easily cut up. Those persons guilty of this offense are generally such as own no land there, or, owning land, oppose every measure adopted to improve it. There is need to be had in other parts without injury to any one, and a due regard to the rights of others would prompt a man to turn out his stock in such parts and not to let them trespass on private rights. If this practice be persisted in, we see no other course for those to take who are intruded upon in this manner, than to seize and impound the cattle, and let them be held for the damage done. There are some people whose ideas of honesty are very vague, when there is no penalty inflicted for trespass. Such persons sometimes have a wholesome dread of punishment, and when they think it will follow they never transgress proper bounds; but if they could turn the stock into a pasture at night and get them out the next morning without being discovered, they would do so every night through the summer.

BASE BALL.—A match game, even inings, was played between the first nine of the "Eureka" and "Alert" Base Ball Clubs on Saturday last, resulting in the annexed score:

Eureka:	R	O	Alert:	R	O
McCurdy c	4	2	H Pratt p	7	1

Duration of game—2 hours.

CONCERTS IN THE SETTLEMENTS.—Magnus Olsen and troupe, well known as the best quadrille band in Salt Lake City, start on Wednesday next on a tour through the northern counties of the Territory, with the intention of giving concerts in the principal settlements. We can assure our country friends that they will get their money's worth in listening to Magnus and his band.

CALL AND GET IT.—There is a message at the Deseret Telegraph office for John Scott, from Logan.

PLEASING.—Local took a ride through West Jordan, Cottonwood and Mill Creek wards yesterday, and remarked with surprise and pleasure the great amount of land which has been brought under cultivation and the extensive improvements that have been made in these parts, since he last visited them. If the same progress is made in the next two or three years, Salt Lake Valley from north to south, and west to the "Sand Ridge," will appear one vast garden. At present, for beautiful, romantic scenery those wards are hard to surpass. It is only marred by the presence of the grasshoppers which in some places are quite numerous.

INDIANS IN TOWN.—Tabby, (the sun), and To-quer-oner, (black fox), with some of their men came in yesterday on a visit to Col. Tourtelotte, Superintendent of Indian affairs for the Territory. They talk and feel first rate. They say they are not going to steal and that their men have gone to the settlements to get tah-tup, (bread). Thirty lodges, under An-ter-ro-ye-hoo, have gone to fight the Sioux; and twenty lodges have gone to Wash-ikie to trade. They report that the Navajos or Pah-wiches, are a good deal disaffected; but as soon as they (Tabby and To-quer-oner), return they say they will send a delegation of their men to invite the Navajos to come in and trade, stop stealing, and be friends with the Mormons. They also report that Hawes, a soldier discharged from Bridger, who was killed last winter, at the junction of White and Green rivers, met his death at the hands of Elk Mountain Indians.

BROILED HOGS.—The Cincinnati Daily Enquirer of the 12th gives an account of a recent barbecue on an extensive scale in that city. The hog-pens attached to the distilleries of J. W. Galt & Co., owned by Messrs Fort, Sedler & Co., and W. T. Balley, Esq., containing 400,200 hogs, were entirely consumed by fire. The scene is described as "one of unmitigated grandeur"—great columns of flame, now fed by the grease from living fuel in some of the pens, shooting upwards thousands of feet, and thence rolling off eastward in dense masses of black smoke.

"The outcry of the frightened droves as they crowded one top of the other into the corners of the pens remotest from the fire, until its rapid approach first scorched and then consumed them, awed the spectators, who stood looking helplessly on, even more than the fiery spectacle."
Of all the hogs a little over a thousand were saved, there being three thousand literally roasted alive; and unlike the Chinese pig of Ho-ti of which the Enquirer gives an account as a traditional story of the manner in which roasted hog originated—they were too much roasted to be edible.
The loss on the hogs is estimated at $75,000 with an insurance of $15,000. The loss on the pens $33,000, with no insurance.
