The Robber Caught. - The man who committed the robbery at the house of Mr. Albert Dewey, yesterday morning, was caught this morning by officer John Y. Smith, on East Temple Street. He gives the name of A. Forsberg, is a resident of Grantsville, and only came to this country about a year ago. There were found on him, belonging to Mr. Dewey, $72 in gold, $15 in greenbacks, a small bar of silver of the value of about $3, and a Mexican dollar, being all the money stolen excepting about $12. On being pressed to tell where the box and papers were, he conducted the officers to the carriage house of Dr. Anderson, where he had secreted them. The box, thus recovered, contained $277.50 in County and Territorial scrip, and a number of very valuable papers.
