Help Her Sell a Patent and Charges Are Dropped.

After being censured bitterly for his tand taken in the matter, an effort was made last night by several members of the city council to override the veto of Mayor Bransford on the resolution to force the Commercial Gub and simiher organizations to procure a city satoon license. The veto was sustained, however, Councilmen Fernstrom, Couburn, Raybould, Hodgson and Hall being the five members out of the 14 who voted against it.

As soon as the resolution came up Jouncilinan Pernstrom moved to have day afternoon, Albert, the 11-year out son of Ferdinand Kehl, of $35 Fayette dvenue, was struck by a San Pedro train, and was so badly injured that he died a few minutes afterwards. The acclient occured at 4:40 o'clock, near what is known as the Rio Grands crossing, Ninth South and Eighth West streets. With the boy at the time were three other boys, two of them his brothers. Herman and Robert All crossed safely in front of he motion was made by Councliman Pernatron that the council should pro-send with the trial of the two subcon-ceepers charged with violating the Sunay ordinance and allowing women in is saloon after hours. Councilman lack objected to the council being a obert. All crossed safely in front of he fast approaching train, but Albert, vidently bewildered, started to go ack, then faced about, when he was Black objected to the council being a division of the criminal court and asked to have the cases heard in the police rourt and then if they were found guil-ty-that the connell could revoke their licenses if it saw fit. The case of William Strong, proprio-tor of the bar at No. 64 Commercial street, was laid over for a week be-cause a complaint had already been field in against him. John Baer, who conducts the Lion saloon at No. 126 south State street, against whom ioevidently bewildered, started to 40 back, then faced about, when he was struck and huried into the air. The train was stopped as soon as pos-sible, the boy placed aboard, but died before the Short Line depot could be reached. The accident was witnessed by fleorge A. Cannon, A. H. Cannon and D. H. Clayton, who were riding by in the time, and who tell the story substantially as given above. The train was in charge of Engineer Thomas W. Hanson, Fireman George Smiley and Conductor W. H. Blood. The body of the boy was removed to the parents' home, the family being grief-stricken at the awful calamity. The funeral will be held on the boy's eleventh birthday. Feb. 18, at the Cannon ward meetinghouse. auth State street, against whom in-simulation was secured by three council-ion, was called to show cause why his ense should not be revoked. Council en itaybould, Murdock and Hodgson who were the informants, made charges against the saloonkseper of operating a wine room in the rear of his saloon and allowing women to enter there aft-er hours. Their evidence was not con-clusive in many points. They heard women's voires and Councilman Ray-bouid said that when the door of the wine room was opened he saw a woman sitting there with a man. There were no drinks served, however, that the councilmen had any knowledge of. ho were the informants, made charges as in his saloon on Saurday tright, 'eb. 6, at which thus the councilmen-ntered his place on a simming exedition His explanation was, how-Mayor Brown of Murray and sev ral cilizens appeared at the county ce to see him on a business propo ommissioner's office yesterday afterplace to see him on a business propo-slion. He says that she declared that she had an invention for laundrying lothes and wanted him to help her sell her patent. Baer has known the woman, he says, for several years and oon and asked that while the Utah Light and Railway company was petitioning for a franchise that the commissioners assist the residents of the smeller city to obtain a 5-cent that she does anything she can to pro-vide for herself. Baer said that she did not drink and that he was the only he similar city to obtain a s-cent are. The commissioners did not seem lisposed to insist on the reduction in are. They hold that if they secure rom the company the suburban ex-censions contemplated that they will one who was in the room and talked to her while she was in the saloon. In conclusion Baer said that he realized have obtained about all the compan that he had violated the ordinance, but that it was unintentional on his part. Councilman Raybould immediately will grant. A suggestion was made by Mayor Brown that a clause be in-erted in the franchise that the fare a reduced in five years but to this he company also objected, but it is asked that the charges be dismissed ossible that a 10-year clause may be granted.

A MATTER OF CHOICE.

Really, as a matter of choice, we would rather have ten per-mons deposit $1 each than one person $10; or ten persons de-posit $10 each, than one person $100; or ten persons deposit $100 each than oue person $1,000; or ten persons deposit $1,000 each than one person $10,000.
