

TELEGRAPHIC. TALKING SILVER.

Last Night's Proceedings by the Chicago Convention.

GOT. WAITE OF COLORADO SPEAKS.

Judge Goodwin of this City Makes an eloquent Appeal to the Delegates.

CHICAGO, Aug. 2.—The first speaker of the afternoon session was John B. Lewis of New York, representing the executive council of the American Federation of Labor. The federation people, he said, are silver men, because they are silver men. Half a million of them are advocates of the free and unlimited coinage of silver.

GOVERNOR WAITE.

There was tremendous applause when Governor Waite of Colorado was introduced. A number of enthusiastic speakers had been howling for him for a day, and he was called upon to give his speech for some minutes. Governor Waite spoke at great length. He asserted that since 1870 no Congress has ever passed a law that is so just to both sides as the law of 1890. He is in favor of the free coinage of silver. He has never been able to find a man who is in favor of the free coinage of silver. He has never been able to find a man who is in favor of the free coinage of silver.

THE GOLD RESERVE.

Interest for the first time since April 1901. WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 2.—For the first time since April 1901, when the gold reserve fell below the $100,000,000 mark, the reserve has been made larger. The gold reserve today amounts to $109,791,510, or $791,510 over the $100,000,000 mark.

WILLIAM WAITE.

WILLIAM WAITE, of the Colorado delegation, made an eloquent appeal to the delegates for the purpose of settling our money affairs by the decision of the United States power, the most independent and the most reliable that ever entered into the hands of an American citizen. If we have become, under the rule of the two big parties, only a puppet of the foreign gold standard, we must assert our independence, and we must assert our independence, and we must assert our independence.

CLAYTON'S ADDRESS.

CLAYTON'S ADDRESS. Clayton, who was elected to the position of president of the convention, made an address of great interest. He spoke of the importance of the silver question to the people of the West, and of the importance of the silver question to the people of the West.

A VOICE FROM THE AUDIENCE.

A VOICE FROM THE AUDIENCE. A voice from the audience cried: "What will Cleveland do?" "Cleveland does not represent the Democratic party," replied another voice. "He represents the party of the money trust."

ABOUT THIS TIME A POPULAR from Chicago asked: "What will Cleveland do?" "Cleveland does not represent the Democratic party," replied another voice. "He represents the party of the money trust."

"Cleveland has not for twelve years by the people in every vote in support of the money trust."

"What will Cleveland do?" "Cleveland does not represent the Democratic party," replied another voice. "He represents the party of the money trust."
