THE RESURRECTION.—To accommodate the public, and meet the great demand for President Young's discourse on the "Resurrection," it has been determined to issue an authorized edition, in pamphlet form, neatly got up, in paper covers, and sold at ten cents a copy. It is now ready, and can be obtained at the News Office.

The first thing to be considered in buying a collar is the fit. The Glasgow and Warwick fit better than any others.

The way they rest in "Old Virginia" is what you want. A fast-rate rest is not a rest at all. It is a rest in the sense of a brother's rest, not a rest in the sense of a brother's rest.

EVENING NEWS

Local and Other Matters.

Thermometer 70 degrees at 1 p.m. today. Fine.

Joseph not James.—In the list of names of missionaries called at Conference James Standing should have been Joseph Standing.

Gone East.—Mr. James Dwyer, bookkeeper of this city, left this morning on a business trip to the east; he expects to be away four or five weeks.

Large.—To-day Brother John Osgathorne, of Mill Creek, presented us with a monster apple, grown in his orchard. It measured exactly fifteen inches in circumference. That is pretty hard to beat.

Pacific Liberal.—Mr. A. J. Boyer, of San Francisco, publishes a new reform journal, to be devoted "to the defense of religious liberty, the elevation of labor, and the maintenance of the free school system."

Communication.—Parties hereabouts having friends or relatives in Australia or New Zealand, and who wish to communicate with them through the missionaries, who will shortly leave for that quarter of the globe, can do so by leaving letters at the Historical Office for Isaac Groo or any of the other Elders called to go to that part of the world.

Tanks Filled.—The large tanks of the waterworks, in City Creek, were filled yesterday afternoon, and it is probable that water will be flowing through the pipes, in the central part of town, within thirty days from now, unless some unforeseen circumstance should occur to prevent the attainment of that degree of progress in the work.

The Silken Bonds.—The Rev. Josiah Welch, pastor of the Presbyterian Church in this city, and Miss Emma Coyner, daughter of Prof. J. Coyner, were united in the bonds of matrimony last evening, in the Presbyterian Church, by Rev. Mr. Gillespie, of Corinne. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. After the ceremony the happy pair and attendant friends repaired to the banquet hall of the church, where the tables were spread with creature comforts, and bridal presents. May the Rev. gentleman and his excellent bride jointly see many happy days to come.

Another Brutal Case.—Another aggravated brutal case of rape upon a young girl has occurred in this city, particulars concerning which, however, we refrain from publishing until further developments are made. In the matter, the alleged guilty party not having yet been arrested at the house of writing. Two such cases within a day or two of each other may well cause alarm to respectable parents and guardians of young girls. There is no need, however, of some question as to whether the victim in the last case will survive the injuries she received in the brutal assault upon her person.

Burning Timber.—To-day a dense thick column of smoke has been issuing from a fork in the Wasatch Mountains, east of this city, and a short distance south of Emigration Canyon, indicating that the timber in that vicinity is on fire. Some of those fires may possibly be the result of accident, but one may reasonably believe that they are more frequently the work of wantonly and destructively mischievous persons, who set them agone purposefully. When such parties are known they should be punished. This new country needs all the timber available to build it up.

Relics.—Some relics recently received at the Desert Museum, for the Indian cabinets, brought from south by Mr. G. Rawlings, of Kanab, were exhibited to us this morning. There are a mass, wares of wooden material, in bright green and red colors, and also black; the workmanship is excellent, and the article is of great durability and of Moqui manufacture; a bridge bit, of ingenious form, made by Navajo. There was also a couple of pieces of horn, presented by Mr. Sorenson, which had been dug out of the ground in the 15th Ward of this city, at a depth of five feet four inches.

Poisoning Case.—Last night a Chinaman, known by the name of Ah Fook, was found lying in a lot on South Temple Street, near the Market Square, in a state of insensibility. He was taken to the City Hall, he had taken too much opium, portions of the drug still adhering to his fingers. A Chinese doctor endeavored to restore him, without avail, and Mr. Sorenson was sent for, but he could not do so, as the man was too far gone to be resuscitated, and the opium could not be removed.

The Chinaman said that they do not believe he intentionally took his life, but that he swallowed an overdose of the drug, while temporarily insensible under its influence.

Held to Answer.—Yesterday afternoon Hans N. Chilson was held, by Justice Pyper, in $500 bonds to await the action of the grand jury as to a charge against him of placing a forcible obstruction in a road leading to a mill belonging to Thomas Jenkins. Chilson had decided the mill to be his, and to secure him for the loss of the $1,000 belonging to him, which, it will be remembered, Chilson claimed to have been robbed.

bed. Chilson claimed, however, that he was the owner of the land on which lay the road to the mill, and dug a deep trench across it, and stood guard with a double-barreled shot-gun, for the purpose, he declared, of performing any team or teamster that had the temerity to cross that way.

The Justice was of opinion that shot-gun law was worse than no law, and hence Chilson was bound over.

Theatre.—Mr. C. Vivian may say that he came, he saw, he conquered, for his complimentary benefit last night was a decided success. There was a large audience present, who were well pleased with the performance. The familiar play of "The Charcoal Burner" was first presented, in which Mr. Lindsay credibly enacted the character of "Poyet Arden," Mr. Margolis that of "Valentine Verdict," the grand juryman, Mr. Forster that of "Edmund Esdale," Madame Reiffarth that of "Barbara Jones," and Miss Cogswell that of "Edith Harrington," commendably supported by the company.

The feature of the evening, of course, was Mr. Vivian's songs and character sketches, which were received with great applause. Previous to the conclusion of the entertainment Mr. Vivian returned his thanks to his friends and audience, and announced that he was studying a new entertainment, in which he hoped to appear in this city at no distant date. In the course of his address Mr. Vivian alluded to a published suggestion of a complimentary to Mr. Mark Croxall, on the occasion of his mission to Australasia, and stated that if any such entertainment came off while he (Mr. Vivian) remained in the city he should be pleased to assist in making it a success.

Big Body of Ore Discovered. MINERSVILLE, Oct. 14.

There has been a big strike in the San Francisco district; the ore is stripped for forty feet over the surface, showing a large body of galena and carbonate. They are sinking two shafts ten feet down, showing a continuation of the ore. The strike creates great excitement among miners. The Troy Smelter is making a successful run, turning out bullion lively.

Jennie June, in her October letter, says that trousers of a single thickness have no business to criticize a tight skirt of several thicknesses.
