

DOM PAUL MAKES A STATEMENT.

Declares that the Position of the Transvaal is Liberty or Death.

LORD SALISBURY'S THREAT.

His Response to Kruger on the Subject of Charging Belligerents with Treason—Boers Have 40,000 Men.

(Early Dispatches.)

New York, March 20.—A dispatch to the Herald from Pretoria, dated March 19, says:

Your correspondent has just had an interview with President Kruger. He shows but little evidence in his countenance of the tremendous strain he is undergoing.

"A war was forced upon us by England, which has been misled by Cecil Rhodes and the millionaires who want the country," he said. "The Boers yielded as far as possible, until they saw that nothing but complete surrender of their independence would satisfy England."

"Having been forced into the war, the Boers will conquer or die. I expect to see the Boers conquer, but we are not of sympathy and friendship. The Transvaal is willing to make peace at any time, but we must not make any concessions. Only absolute independence is possible. We do not want more territory, but we are content with our present frontiers, if we are permitted to live peacefully. This is all we ask."

"The Transvaal will stipulate in the peace terms that Natal and Cape Colony be regarded as belligerents and suffer no loss of property. I learned that some of these men had been captured and were being tried at Cape Town, charged with treason. This government cabled to Lord Salisbury stating that if such men were made prisoners of war, the British prisoners held here, Lord Salisbury replied, dodging the real point, and threatening if we injured a single British prisoner we would personally responsible. I suppose he meant the British would hang me. Such threats are contemptible, and cannot prevent me from performing my duty to my country. The Transvaal government repudiated today informing Lord Salisbury that they despise his threats."

"There is no truth in the story of a conspiracy among the South African Dutch. This is not their quarrel. The Boers are in God's hands and He will let us perish. Our total fighting strength is but forty thousand men, but with God's aid we can prevail. I have two hundred blood relatives fighting and I would rather see them all perish than yield to England's unholiness. It is liberty or death. I have protected British property in the Transvaal, and I shall continue to do so. I convey to the American people my esteem. We feel that every American should be with us in this struggle for liberty."

A MOUNTAIN SLIPS DOWN.

Sixty Acres Dislodged by Earthquake, Moves 150 Feet.

Scene of Terrible Devastation—Residents of Vicinity Alarmed by Frequent Earthquakes.

Chicago, March 20.—A special to the Record from San Jacinto, Cal., says:

Great excitement prevails in San Jacinto, as it has been discovered that part of Jacinto mountain has slipped into a subterranean cavern. A territory covering sixty acres, at an elevation of four thousand feet, was dislodged by the recent earthquake, and has slipped 150 feet lower than it had previously stood for centuries.

The face of the new valley is thickly covered with fissures and cracks varying in width from an inch to six feet across, and it is possible to see neither bottom nor to sound the depth by throwing stones into them. A young man was lowered forty feet in the crevices and the bottom could not be seen by the venturesome youth. Yesterday being Sunday, every procurable vehicle was driven eleven miles to the southwestern foot of this great part of San Jacinto park. As at the broken rim of this mountain range the eye surveyed a scene of terrible devastation.

The great earthquake has been succeeded by dozens of light shocks, although those are becoming infrequent, residents are much alarmed.

INSTRUCTED FOR BRYAN.

Democratic and Populist Conventions in Nebraska.

Platforms Adopted are Practically the Creation of Mr. Bryan—What They Contain.

Lincoln, Neb., March 19.—In effect William J. Bryan announced tonight to the Democratic party and to the nation at large the platform which he considers best for the Democratic party and practically upon which he desires to stand if nominated at the Kansas City convention.

The platform which was adopted by the Nebraska Democracy with the greatest enthusiasm reaffirms the Chicago platform, declares for 16 to 1, opposes a large and standing army, denounces the action of the Republican party on the Puerto Rico tariff bill, declares against trusts and imperialism, and favors the choice of United States Senators by popular vote. The platform is practically the creation of Mr. Bryan.

He did not write it personally but he was consulted concerning it and before it was read to the convention he had approved it throughout.

The platform adopted by the Populist convention was substantially the same as that adopted by the Democrats. It differs somewhat in form, but conflicts in no essential point.

At the conventions today were enthusiastic for Bryan to the last degree, and every mention of his name was greeted with cheers of delight and approval. Instructions were given to both Kansas City and Sioux Falls conventions.

Mother's Story of Baby's Cure

Of a Most Distressing Humor by the Cuticura Remedies.

When our baby was a week old, eczema appeared on the top of her head and spread all over her scalp, face, and forehead, forming one mass of sores. You can realize how much she must have suffered, when she scratched at times till the blood ran intermingled with water. Our family doctor's treatment proved ineffectual, as the disorder, instead of abating, developed more. We then stopped all medical treatment, and commenced with CUTICURA REMEDIES. We used the CUTICURA RESOLVENT, CUTICURA Ointment, and CUTICURA SOAP, all traces of the eczema disappeared, the skin and scalp were left perfectly clear and smooth, and she was entirely cured.

Mrs. E. BUTLER, My oldest boy, age nine years, was troubled with sores on different parts of the body, especially on the leg, about twenty-four in all. They were about the size of a five-cent piece, and would fester very much and eject a pus. They were very painful. After my above experience with the cure of my little girl with CUTICURA REMEDIES, I did not bother with the doctor in this case, but gave him the CUTICURA treatment which completely cured him in four weeks. GEN. BULLER MAY ENGAGE GEN. BOTHA

25,000 of British 40,000 Expected to Fight a Battle.

THE BOERS AT BRANDFORT.

Place is Only Thirteen Miles from Bloemfontein—German and Johannesburg's Destruction.

London, March 20, 4 a. m.—This war office has had no news up to this hour confirming the report of the relief of Mafeking, but George Wyndham, parliamentary under secretary for war, replying to a private inquiry in the lobby of the house of commons about midnight, smilingly said: "I think it is all right."

The Free Staters seemingly have not quite collapsed. They are in considerable force around Smithfield, though much dispirited. A British spy from Rouville reports that Commandant Rouville and a commando are going to Kroonstad. The agents he left behind are using desperate means to raise recruits, commandeering British-Boers under penalty of death.

Brandfort, where the Boers are concentrating, is thirteen miles from Bloemfontein. It is surrounded by a country of hills and jungles.

General Gatacre is now resting at Springfontein, preliminary to joining Lord Roberts.

General Buller's hill work before Ladysmith has given him an experience which is about to be used in forcing the Biggarsburg range. It is believed that 25,000 of his 40,000 men are about to engage General Botha's forces, and the next news of fighting will probably come from Natal.

The leaders of the Afrikaner bond are circulating a petition in Cape Colony asking the imperial government not to take away the independence of the Boers.

Thirty-two thousand additional troops for South Africa are now at sea.

The Portuguese authorities hurriedly dispatched by special train a force of infantry to reinforce the garrison on the Transvaal border.

The Times, commenting editorially upon the report that Germany will ask the belligerents to guarantee the safety of Johannesburg, says: "We decline to believe that any responsible German statesman would make such a proposal. Certainly the government will not make agreements at foreign instigation."

A dispatch to the Daily Telegraph from Bloemfontein says: "In a speech which he made here a few days before the British entered the town, President Kruger admitted that his men would be unable to keep in the field for another month."

Berlin, March 19.—The National Zeitung, referring to the rumored intention of the Boers to destroy the Transvaal gold mines, says: "Such an act would be justifiable, since it would prevent the authors of the war which the whole world has declared criminal, from securing the rewards of victory."

Capetown, Sunday, March 18.—General Sir George Stewart White, the defender of Ladysmith, has arrived here, but is too ill to permit of a public reception being given in his honor.

ECUADOR HOLDS ON.

Does Not Want to Sell an Island to the United States.

New York, March 20.—A special to the Herald from Washington says:

A halt has occurred in the negotiations between the United States and Ecuador for the acquisition of islands in the Pacific, because of the unwillingness of the Ecuadorians to sell.

STOMACH BITTERS

The Quito government to relinquish any of its territory to a foreign power.

When the report was published in the Ecuadorian capital, the Ecuadorian States desired to acquire Chatham Island, and a great deal of indignation followed. Members of the national legislature of Ecuador were particularly exasperated by the announcement, and some very caustic speeches attacking this government were made.

When the American minister made his representation a reply was given announcing that in the present state of feeling in the country it would be impossible to consider a proposition to cede any of the islands of the Gallapagos group to the United States.

This reply has terminated negotiations, but it does not necessarily follow, however, that the efforts will not be renewed to obtain a naval station at a point which will permit of American control of the Pacific terminus of the canal.

The negotiations for the cession of the Danish West Indies to this government have been suspended because of the cabinet crisis in Copenhagen.

Charged With Poisoning.

Hastings, Neb., March 19.—The trial of Viola Horlocker, on the charge of sending a package of poisoned candy to Mrs. C. F. Marcy on April 10, 1899, was taken up in the district court today.

The defendant sat in the courtroom, her face concealed by a veil, during the proceedings. The first thing when the case was called the defense asked for a continuance. This was refused by the presiding judge, who stated that the hearing had been postponed twice for the defense.

The attorneys for the defendant then withdrew the plea of "not guilty," provisionally made, and moved to quash the indictment on the ground that it did not allege a crime. The attorneys put in most of the afternoon arguing this motion.

During the afternoon session Miss Horlocker was told to rise while the State's attorney read the charges against her. She stood with head and eyes drooping and was perfectly calm.

When asked if she was guilty or not guilty, she replied in a firm voice, "not guilty."

While Attorney Stevens was questioning the jurors as to their qualifications he let slip a point which strengthens the belief that the defendant's insanity plea will make use of the insanity plea.

Big Oil Plant Destroyed.

Piqua, O., March 20.—The W. P. Orr line oil plant of the American Lined Oil company was destroyed by fire early this morning. The loss is estimated at $165,000 to $175,000. It was the second largest plant in the United States.

The Piqua burning mills caught fire and were destroyed. The loss is $75,000.

The Grey company plant is in great danger of being destroyed by fire from surrounding towns.

At 1 o'clock this morning Dayton was telegraphed to send a fire company. The engines are on the way and the fire is still extending.

LEARY WILL BE REMOVED.

Erratic Naval Officer Will be Relieved at Guam.

Did Excellent Work There, but Seems to be Giving Too Much of a Good Thing in Line of Reformation.

New York, March 20.—A special to the Herald from Washington says:

Information has been received at the navy department showing that some of the orders issued by Capt. Richard D. Leary, governor of Guam, have not been altogether satisfactory to the inhabitants of the island.

One of the orders issued by Capt. Leary, for example, forbade the ringing of church bells night and morning. As practically all of the inhabitants of Guam are Roman Catholics and very devout, this caused some criticism.

Capt. Leary has explained to the department that the reason for the order was that the church was quite near the hospital and that the ringing of the bells disturbed the typhoid fever patients. Most of these patients have been discharged from the hospital, and it is believed the governor can now revoke his original order.

Capt. Leary has in the main done excellent work in the island of Guam, and the authorities are much gratified at the manner in which he has administered affairs there. It is understood, however, that he will not be allowed to remain at San Luis D'Apré much longer, but will be detached and another officer with the rank of captain sent to succeed him.

POOR CHILDREN LABELED.

RECEPTION TO MR. HAMMOND.

Republican Congressional Nominee Honored at Kenyon Last Night.

MANY PERSONS WERE THERE

Speeches by Gov. Wells, Mr. Hammond and Mr. Sutherland—Music, Refreshments and General Cheer.

The reception tendered to Hon. James T. Hammond by the Republican women of the city last night was a very pleasant affair. From eight until eleven o'clock the Kenyon was thronged by friends of the Republican candidate who had personally answered the invitations sent them by the ladies' committee. Those in charge estimated that there were between three and four hundred people at the reception, the chief features of which were brief speeches, music, introductions and hand-shaking.

The speakers were Governor Wells, Mr. Hammond, and Hon. George Sutherland. The music was furnished by Olsen's orchestra. Mr. Hammond and wife assisted Mrs. W. H. Jones, and other ladies of the Republican club, in receiving the guests of the evening.

Chairman Wesley K. Walton represented the State committee, Chairman D. C. Elchorn the county committee, while Miss Monroe, E. S. Darling, Wiley Brown and others also assisted. Punch was served by members of the Woman's Republican club.

GOVERNOR WELLS SPEAKS.

Governor Wells was the first speaker and introduced Mr. Hammond. In doing so he said:

"Not all the duties that fall to my lot are pleasant by any means, and to one situated as I am, not having the oratorical gift, it is always for me an evening, an honored candidate for Congress. I am going to be, that his good opinion will continue during my term of office."

"I desire to thank most warmly the Woman's Republican club for the very pleasant reception they have extended to me this evening, and I desire to say that I am pleased to see the interest that the ladies are taking in the present campaign. They have been extremely valuable and have rendered valuable assistance. Our lady friends are expert shoppers, and when our Democratic friends tell the people how extensively the prices on commodities have been raised, and how much more expensive goods are now than formerly, then they come to our assistance in a very valuable manner."

"And, besides, I believe if the ladies of this State and Nation would take pains to investigate, they would be natural Republicans. They believe in protection. They are interested in having good homes, well furnished and well supplied. The mothers seem to be closer to the children than the fathers, probably on account of the more intimate association with them, and like to see them well cared for and well educated, so that they will become shining marks in this world. There is nothing touches a mother's pride more deeply than to see them properly educated, and when we look over the field, my fellow-citizens, at the present time throughout the United States and see that the colleges are better patronized than ever before in the history of the country, we see that the present prosperity we are enjoying is a potent influence in elevating society throughout the United States and giving to the children of the United States that higher education that will make more valuable citizens of them."

"And this is something we ought all to be proud of, and we ought all, my fellow-citizens, to feel that we will continue in power that party which has brought us this condition that we ought to feel so proud of."

"Another question that comes home to our lady friends is what has been done for educational and charitable institutions during the past year. In the year 1899 we notice that there have been about $75,000,000 given to educational and charitable institutions more than ever before in the history of the United States. Think of the good that flows from this vast sum, and if we were not enjoying the present prosperity, which comes from the present Republican Administration, that sum would be down in the neighborhood of $30,000,000 instead of $75,000,000. Think of the good that comes to the people of the United States from the beneficent results flowing from Republican prosperity."

"I might go on and enumerate one item after another showing the good results flowing from Republican prosperity as a result of Republican principles applied by this government, but I take that you are all close readers, that you have observed these facts, and it is not necessary for me to enumerate them."

"But, ladies and gentlemen, we must not forget that when we boast of the fact that we enjoy the privilege of American citizenship, we must also remember that along with that comes a corresponding duty, and if these intelligent faces standing before me this evening will put only an effort to help mold Republican opinion upon this occasion, and to see that the people of this city come to the polls on election day and cast their ballots, I have no doubt but that the nation will be benefited and the glad tidings will be flashed across this continent that the State of Utah has fallen into line with the grand old party that has in the past done so much for the people of the United States and for the people of this world in advancing the standard of civilization."

MR. SUTHERLAND'S TALK.

Hon. George Sutherland was the next and last speaker. His speech was a brief one, but during it he said that the Democrats were engaged in a campaign of negatives. The members of that party, however, freely admitted that during the last administration of Grover Cleveland the country was plunged into deepest poverty and despair—a time when mortgage foreclosures and soup-houses flourished in the land. But under the present administration all were compelled to admit that the country had and was enjoying a period of unprecedented prosperity. The Democrats would not admit, however, that one condition was the result of incompetence and the other that of able and patriotic management.

Mr. Sutherland belittled the alleged position of Judge King that these conditions were the result of bad crops and uncontrollable circumstances during the Democratic administration, and good crops and favorable circumstances during the Republican administration. On the question of expansion the speaker said:

"My friends are also very much worried on the subject of expansion. Governor Thomas (not our Governor Thomas, but the imported article from Colorado) arraigned the Republican party for its policy on expansion and

Hon. George Sutherland was the next and last speaker. His speech was a brief one, but during it he said that the Democrats were engaged in a campaign of negatives. Mr. Sutherland belittled the alleged position of Judge King that these conditions were the result of bad crops and uncontrollable circumstances during the Democratic administration, and good crops and favorable circumstances during the Republican administration. On the question of expansion the speaker said:

"My friends are also very much worried on the subject of expansion. Governor Thomas (not our Governor Thomas, but the imported article from Colorado) arraigned the Republican party for its policy on expansion and proposed to establish some new boundaries for the country. He said we were bounded on the north by the Constitution, on the south by the Monroe doctrine, on the east by the Declaration of Independence and on the west by the Ten Commandments. Now, I don't know that I have any particular objection, and don't know that Republicans could have any particular objection to these boundaries, except it appears to me that the average Democrat would have considerable difficulty in keeping the boundary upon the west. (Applause.)

"We went to the Philippines, my friends, not alone of our own accord, like the Nevada miner who was blown up by a premature explosion and unfortunately in his descent falling upon the shift boss, explained to the widow that a man who went up against the law of gravitation was bound to fall somewhere, and fell upon the Spanish fleet in Manila. I believe we went there by the will of Divine Providence, and I want to say further that so far as I am concerned, we ought to stay there until we get further orders from headquarters. And I decline to recognize the Democratic party as the mouthpiece of the Almighty."

Mr. Sutherland also said that the fact that the United States had taken the Philippines did not deter the Democratic party from discussing the question, even as at every campaign it discusses the relative merits of Alexander Hamilton and Thomas Jefferson, while continuing to cast a fair proportion of its voters for that patron saint of democracy, Andrew Jackson. The Democratic party was ever a party of the past while the Republican party, he claimed, was the party of today and the future.
