BINGHAM CON.'S MANAGER HOME.

Captain McViehe Says Heinze is Now in Control of Big Corporation.

DOESN'T KNOW IT OFFICIALLY.

But That Seems to be the General Impression in East at Present Time.

General Manager Duncan McViehe of the Bingham Consolidated Mining & Smelting company has returned from the east and was kept busy during the day looking over a mass of correspondence that had accumulated during his absence and in meeting the department heads of the great mining and smelting concern with which he has been associated from its very inception.

It was rather expected that the captain would come back with some definite information as to who has been behind the late buying of Bingham Con. stock in the east; but any more than that the control is now vested in F. Augustus Heinze, Captain McViehe would venture nothing further. "I don't know a thing about it myself," he declared, "but I have received no official information to lead me to believe what is talked about the street is true."

Captain McViehe was in consultation during the day with Manager R. T. White of the Babokulla Copper company, which appears to have passed to the American Smelters' interests, which are essentially Bingham Con.

The American Smelting & Refining company has been made defendant in an action filed in the district court by Oscar J. and Abraham J. PARK CITY'S MINES.

Work at Ontario Drain Tunnel Continues—Week's Shipments.

Connections were made Tuesday morning between the 1,400 and 1,500-foot levels of the Daily Judge, by the raising of the control in the eastern portion of the mine's workings, the main purpose of it being ventilation. In this raise one level to the other, being several feet wide. Besides this, recent development work has opened up many bodies of high grade ore and the permanency and vast wealth of the Judge has been established. Today it is one of the camp's bonanzas, much greater and richer than a great many realize. The Daily Judge mill is grinding away steadily and turning out a large tonnage of very rich concentrates.

TONOPAH MINE MERGER.

Plan on Foot to Consolidate Three Important Properties.

The preliminary plans have been completed in New York, says a publicist of that city, for the closing of negotiations for the merger of the West End, Ohio-Tonopah and MacNamara properties at Tonopah. While no names have yet been made public, there is a well authenticated report that those interests now in control of the Tonopah mines are in the process of negotiating in working out the new combination.

LOCAL MARKETS.

Today's local markets are the heavier by the arrival of three cars of potatoes from Idaho and one car from Provo, Utah. A feature also is the arrival of some Wisconsin cabbage from southern California, with another car of less fine quality from the northern part of the state. Then among the receipts are some reports of sizeable arrivals of salmon and small fish; but oysters are falling off, and are likely to decrease as the season advances. Bannocks and oranges are also in demand among the fruit shipments. Apples are scarce and high. The prices obtaining in today's markets are as follows:
