Former Lays Down Double Track

DIAMOND CUT DIAMOND CASE.

Program of Arbor Day School Parade
—Auditor Stanford Restrained From Paying Experts Extra Salary.

Ogden, April 14.—Simon Bamberger of the Salt Lake & Ogden Railway company is not the only one who can steel a march on a rival, as was indicated yesterday afternoon when the Ogden Rapid Transit company caused no little surprise by laying a second track on Twenty-fifth street between Lincoln and Grant avenues, thus blocking the Bamberger interests from laying a track upon that street. Last Saturday night Mr. Bamberger strung ties and rails from Twenty-fifth street along Lincoln avenue to Thirty-third street. His franchise gave him the right to lay his track along that street, up Twenty-fifth street from Lincoln to Grant, and northward along Grant avenue to Twenty-first street. By the Ogden Rapid Transit company taking the action it did yesterday, Mr. Bamberger will either have to obtain from the Transit company the privilege of using its track or get a franchise from the city to lay its track along some other street. Supt. Flynn and Asst. Supt. J. W. Bailey were personally at the scene of activity to push the work, and by 6 o'clock last evening they had the track laid on the street pavement along Twenty-fifth street to Grant avenue. The outcome of the fight for supremacy between the companies will be awaited with much interest.

The High school, Madison, Dee, Quincy and Emerson schools will form in line at the High school building. The South Washington, Pioneer and Lewis schools will unite on the corner of Washington avenue and Twenty-sixth street. The Central at its building, the Grant school at the corner of Washington avenue and Twenty-third street. Mount Fort and Five Points at Washington avenue and Twenty-second street. Promptly at 10 o'clock a salute will be fired at the fire station and the schools will begin to move. Nichols' band will lead the procession. The line of march will be along Washington avenue north to Twenty-second street, counter march

CACHE TAX VALUATION.

Good Increase Over Last Year—Conditions in Mexico.

Special Correspondence.
Logan, Cache Co., April 12.—The train from the north, bearing the remains of Mrs. Porter, was several hours late yesterday morning and missed connection with the local train at Cache Junction, so that the party accompanying the body were compelled to remain at the Junction all day and did not reach this city until late at night. The funeral was postponed until 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Joseph E. and Louis Cardon and M. J. Ballard have purchased the lot formerly owned by Zeph Thomas and lying between the Eagle hotel and the R. K. Thomas corner, and will erect a two-story brick building on it. The amount paid was $5,000.

CASE CONSULED.

The case of Bateson vs. J. S. Petersen, which occupied the attention of the district court, was non-suited. Bateson sued to recover $2, which he claimed Petersen owed him. The facts are that the $2 was due Bateson from a third party who gave him a written order on Petersen for the amount. This order Petersen refused to acknowledge as an obligation, and told Bateson if the account was not paid in several months he would pay it. Bateson failed to release the other party or to make a charge on him before suing Petersen, and the judge held that the mere statement that Petersen had assumed the account was not sufficient.

MEXICAN CONDITIONS.

L. C. Thoresen is back from a several months' visit in Mexico, where he has been looking after the plantation owned by Utah parties. Mr. Thoresen thinks Mexico is a good country to make profitable investments in, but a poor place for colonists, unless they can go there with money enough to purchase a plantation and utilize the peon labor.

The superintendent's report showed an average attendance of 4,424 in the schools during the past week. This is a decrease of almost 100, caused principally at the Pioneer school, where many of the pupils were afflicted with a disease of the eyes called the pink eye, which necessitated their being kept out of the school for two weeks.

EXTRA PAY HELD UP.

City Auditor Restrained From Paying Special Auditors.

Ogden, April 14.—Mrs. Florence Stanford, the city auditor, has been notified by J. D. Sken that if she pays the extra compensation of $200 to C. R. Hollingsworth and R. T. Harris for their work of auditing the city's books, she will be doing an illegal act, and that the city council and mayor would be liable to prosecution. Therefore, out of precaution, Mrs. Stanford will not pay the claims. Jan. 31 Messrs. Hollingsworth and Harris were appointed by Mayor Conroy a special auditing committee, and their appointment confirmed by the council, who fixed their compensation at $200. The gentlemen carried out their duties Feb. 25, but claim that before doing so they notified the council that the compensation was not sufficient, and insisted on more pay, and were assured by the city fathers that if they would wait until the next session, the council would have to justify it, the council would give the auditors such compensation in addition to the sum named as was just and proper. Messrs. Hollingsworth and Harris assert that it was on this last promise they entered upon the work, and a week ago today asked the council to fix the compensation over and above and last Tuesday evening the council in its regular session allowed the auditors an additional compensation of $200, making a total of $400 to be paid the gentlemen for their work.

Mr. Sken claims that as the special auditors had contracted and entered upon the discharge of their duties before the extra $200 was allowed, and under the constitution which prohibits the Legislature granting power to any municipal authority to award any extra compensation, fee or allowance to any public officer, agent, servant, or contractor after service has been rendered or a contract entered into and performed in whole or in part, the gentlemen are not entitled to the extra $200. The matter may be carried into the courts.

DISTRICT COURT BUSINESS.

The case of A. J. Stone, administrator of the estate of J. H. Winslow, deceased, against the Union Pacific, is still on trial in the Second district court. Perhaps the most damaging piece of testimony that has been brought out during the trial was given yesterday afternoon by a locomotive engineer named Lowham, who testified that engine No. 163, which it is alleged was the cause of the Azusa wreck in which Winslow met his death, was in a very bad condition. That the day previous to the wreck he was running engine 163, that she leaked steam so badly he had to get out of the engine cab and stand on the running board to see the track ahead, the steam, he said, was escaping so fast that the entire engine was enveloped in steam. His testimony was corroborated by several other witnesses, who claim they saw the engine leaking steam. The prosecution completed its evidence last evening, and this morning the defense started to put in its testimony, which will occupy considerable time.

Eula Peterson has commenced a damage suit in the district court against the Central Coal & Coke company to recover $2,000. The complaint alleges that the plaintiff was employed as a miner in one of the company's mines in Sweetwater, Wyo., that on Nov. 13, 1905, while he was performing his duties in the mine a blast was carelessly discharged by other workmen, which blew down large quantities of coal. The coal struck plaintiff, severely injuring him, so that for two months he was confined in a hospital and suffered great pain for which he asks damages against the company in the sum of $2,000.

J. D. Sken has filed his undertaking on appeal in his suit against Councilman Wm. Craig, his bondsmen being Lyman Sken and Moroni Sken. Mr. Craig won the case in the district court, and Mr. Sken has appealed the case to the state supreme court and hopes to get it before the supreme court during the May term. The decision of the higher court will be awaited with much interest by the public.

WILL BE REARRESTED.

Carl Jennings, a young man who has been serving a one-year sentence in the state prison for breaking into a house in Salt Lake City, will tomorrow be released from the penitentiary, but his liberty will be of but short duration, as Sheriff Sebring holds a warrant for his arrest on the charge of burglary in the first degree, and just as soon as the prison officers release him from custody Sheriff Sebring will rearrest him and bring him to Ogden to answer to the charge of burglary in the first degree. Jennings was in the Ogden Knitting factory in the early part of 1905, when it is claimed he stole over $500 worth of silks, shawls, underwear, sweaters, etc., from the factory. The city believes that Jennings is a little trouble in convicting him of the crime. His trial has been set for April 19.

BRIEFS AND PERSONALS.

Murray and Mack, the great fun-makers, will be seen tomorrow night at the Grand Opera House in "Around the Town."

Mayor Conroy has issued a proclamation declaring Monday, April 16, a holiday, and asks that all business houses and public offices be closed.

The last will of Mrs. Sarah A. Yeaman, formerly of this city, has been admitted to probate in the probate court in equal parts. The estate consists of real and personal property and is valued at $6,250. S. T. Whitaker is named as executor of the will and estate.

Mr. Brown expects to be in the valley for about six weeks or two months, making his headquarters at Garland, and while here will thoroughly investigate the conditions that exist in this valley. For about a year Mr. Brown was in the employ of the Utah Sugar company, as its civil engineer, but severed his connection with that company in March of 1905, to accept the position he now holds with the government.

Messrs. James H. Gardner and M. W. Ingalls, general superintendent and consulting engineer respectively of the Utah Sugar company, were in Garland Thursday on business connected with the company which they represent.

FARMINGTON.

MOVE FOR WATERWORKS.

Citizens in Mass Meeting Favor Bonding for This Improvement.

Special Correspondence.
Farmington, Davis Co., April 12.—A mass meeting was held last evening in the meetinghouse to further discuss plans for a waterworks system and the bonding of the city to raise the $15,000 which will be required to place into active operation the suggestions of the committee who had been selected for that purpose. The city has purchased the Rudd creek which will furnish sufficient water for cooking and lawn purposes. Prof. Richard H. Lyman was present and offered valuable suggestions concerning the advisability and necessity of waterworks from a health standpoint, and gave statistics showing a decrease in the death rate since the establishment of the same in different localities. His arguments were convincing as the vote to charter, April 30, to vote on the bonding proposition was almost unanimous. The energy displayed by Mayor Robinson and the city council in getting the arrangement for this much needed improvement into its present condition, is commendable and when the time arrives for the final decision of the taxpayers it is hoped the proposition will carry over the waterworks will be welcomed by housewives and those who want to see the city beautified and improved, as this locality is an ideal place for summer homes.

One lady who tried one of these "Guaranteed" cheap nostrums says it GREATLY IRRITATED AND INFLAMED THE MUCOUS MEMBRANE OF HER NOSE—and made her much worse—and when she asked for the return of her money as promised—she was subjected to numerous insulting questions, her word was disputed, and finally she was told by a "fake druggist" to go before a Notary and "make affidavit" (at an expense of several dollars) to get back 50c. THIS IS THE WAY FAKERS REFUND YOUR MONEY. Beware of such rogues—don't trust them with your business. If Druggists were competent to Diagnose and Health. Specific Blood Poison. No dangerous virus to drive the virus to the interior, but harmless, blood-cleansing remedies, that remove the last poison taint.

So-called "Weakness" in men is merely a symptom of chronic inflammation in the prostate gland, brought on by early dissipation or by the improper treatment of some contracted disease. A complete and radical cure is therefore, a question of restoring the prostate gland to the normal state, and this we accomplish promptly and completely without the use of internal remedies. Our treatment is a local one, entirely free of original and scientific, and has been proven absolutely effective by thousands of tests.
