

SALT LAKERS IN GOTHAM.

Special Correspondence.
NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—A telegram that came last Monday announcing the death of President F. D. Worthington's father in the Brooklyn conference. Elder Worthington has so ably filled the position of president made vacant by the release of Elder M. K. Jacobs that his sudden call home was a shock to all the New York friends of the young elder. A vast amount of work had been planned for the winter, in which the president was a most active member and his release will call for a change in some quarters. Elder Worthington is a speaker of ability as well as a student and thinker; he impresses his hearers with the fact that his subjects are thoroughly worked out before submitting them to an audience and he carries conviction in all he says. His absence will be greatly felt by the branch here. Elder Wallace Hunter succeeds him as president of the Brooklyn conference; he and Elder Lamb have made excellent records in Newark and Elder Lamb will now have charge there with Elder N. L. Cottam as his assistant, which makes a strong combination of young elders for our New Jersey neighbors.

Several newspaper notices have found their way to Gotham the past week telling of the concert given by Mr. Alfred L. Farrell in the Logan tabernacle soon after his arrival there. The praise accorded him by the critics and the pleasure he gave his friends there, comes as no surprise to his many friends here, as the universal judgment has been that Mr. Farrell is a real artist, and that wherever he is heard critics will unite in saying so. Had he chosen to remain here many excellent positions were awaiting him, but rest and change for a season were necessary, not to mention home ties, which were tugging at him. So for a while Mr. Farrell will be a resident of Utah.

Elder B. R. Tibbitts of Logan, who came into the city last Wednesday, will labor in the New England conference. Elder T. D. Rees, Jr., of Wales, Sanpete county, who arrived on the Celtic Thursday from a mission to Germany and Switzerland, left for home Saturday evening.

Atty. John Davis of Salt Lake is a visitor to Gotham this week and will leave for Boston Sunday evening. While here he has met many friends from home and visited with them as time from his work would permit.

Saturday being the birthday of Mr. Miles Pratt, his sister, Mrs. Douglas Bergener, gave an informal party in honor of the event. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eldredge, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Meakin, Mr. Foster and Mr. and Mrs. Easton were the guests. A very pleasant time was enjoyed by all.

Frank Foster of the "Student King" company is here stopping at 235 West Thirty-eighth street. The company is laying off two weeks previous to its engagement at the Garden theater for an indefinite time. Mr. Foster has been transferred from the understudy of "Wilhelm" to the understudy of "Ferdinand," the principal baritone part—showing an advancement in his work. This is a vacation for the company and Mr. Foster is enjoying it visiting among friends in the Utah colony.

In the chorus of the "Belle of May Fair" company is Miss Haze Cogan, who sings under the name of Ethel Davis. Miss Cogan and her mother occupy an apartment in Harlem, where they always welcome Salt Laker; being former residents of Ogden, all Utahns are looked upon as old friends.

Ever since Elder Wallace Hunter came to New York, he has been troubled at times with a severe pain in the right side. Twice he has been seriously ill from the complaint, and yesterday evening while visiting with his friends, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sears, on Amsterdam avenue, he suddenly became ill, and it was thought best for him to remain with his friends during the night, towards morning a physician was summoned, and he was removed to the J. Hood Wright hospital, where a consultation was held, and it was decided that he must undergo an operation for appendicitis. President Hunter is in fine condition physically, and no alarm is felt for his safe recovery.

Eleanor Robson, who is presenting a series of plays this winter at the Liberty theater, has surrounded herself with a company of unusual ability. First and most important is Mrs. Harold Russell (Ada Dwyer), who throughout the repertoire so far, has done some of the best character work New York has seen in many a day; that she is an acknowledged actress of ability, managers are finding out, and now she can choose where she will cast her lines during a season. At yesterday's matinee of "The Girl Who Has Everything," Miss Dwyer's portrayal of an old-fashioned mother living in a Harlem flat, while her ambitious son wrestled on Wall street and its luxurious surroundings, was a most exquisite bit of acting, and has brought her into notice with all the leading papers. Facing her were some of her warmest admirers from Utah, Miss M. M. Babcock, Miss Lila Knudson, Mrs. Pryor, Mrs. R. C. Easton and Miss Clawson. No point in her work was overlooked by these Salt Laker. Miss Dwyer's personality is so strong that it requires great finesse to invest her different characters with a variety, that makes each one a separate individual, and in nearly every instance "Miss Dwyer" is forgotten, and one
