LOCAL BRIEFS

Local vehicle dealers report a good market for bulky cars, speeding and racing rigs.

The Elks' library has been increased to 100 volumes, with additions being received steadily.

Mrs. R. F. Hurd of Los Angeles, mother of Mrs. M. P. Gilbert of this city, died last Wednesday.

Sixty of Henderson's grocery employees and their families will picnic at Hill's farm Sunday.

Mrs. Jeffs is recovering from an operation for kidney troubles at the Keogh-Wright hospital.

Owing to the sickness of Rabbi Reynolds, there will be no service this evening in the Jewish Temple.

The "washerwoman's sleeve" has become fashionable with ladies at the advent of hot weather.

Ross Phillips, aged five years, daughter of Henry Phillips of 1545 Cedar avenue, is reported as having recovered.

The County Horticultural society will hold its meeting tomorrow at 1 p. m. in the city and county building. Those interested are invited.

J. H. Moyle and C. S. Wilkes made a successful trip through Big Cottonwood canyon yesterday, with a five-horse-power automobile car, in five hours.

Bessie Knecht, the sleeping girl, is said to have recovered from her two months' sleep, and is now taking her rest at night, like other people. She eats regularly and is gaining flesh.

A number of public school teachers are taking a course of mutual training at the summer school being conducted in the Bryant school building by the Misses Jessup.

E. E. Curtis, F. J. Curtis, E. J. Curtis and W. Evans left yesterday by wagon on a month's camping trip through southern Idaho. They are equipped for a good time.

Sam. Park has received a number of letters from his former brother officers, expressing regret at his resignation from the club, and stating their good will towards him.

The Twin Falls canal, when built, will be used for commercial purposes as well as irrigation, and will be carried out to a limited extent. Several canals, however, will also be placed on the canal.

The improved brick company has the contract to furnish 30,000 bricks for the new barracks at Fort Douglas, and it is claimed that the brick to be used in the entire new construction work will amount to 1,000,000.

Sheriff Beauregard of Millard county has brought up to the state prison Henry Brown, sentenced to one year for grand larceny. The sheriff reports finding old south of Fillmore, with promise of quite a few later on.

Charles Brown of this city went to Butte two months ago, and opened a small saloon there. He was supposed to be doing well when the other day Brown suddenly disappeared, leaving numerous creditors to mourn his untimely demise.

Prof. H. E. Giles will meet with the members of the Cambrian chorus at the sixteenth ward meetinghouse at 8 o'clock this evening. A full attendance is desired, and an invitation to join the chorus is extended to all interested.

Henry Bailey of this city has just graduated from the law school of Michigan University, as has also Don H. H. Bailey, and the two will practice their profession in Salt Lake. John Davis, who has been studying at Ann Arbor, is home for the summer vacation.

Observer Bailey at Salt Lake states that the level of Great Salt Lake is receding at a noticeable rate. Antelope island is now a peninsula, with a narrow bottom between the island and the east mainland high and dry. It is possible now to get nearer Salt Lake with a naptha launch than a mile.

Motorman Peter Myers was knocked senseless yesterday by making a short circuit of himself through placing one hand on the controller box and having the other hand on the brake. He was carried into a First South street drug store and "brought back" Myers specially recovered.

Fish Commissioner Sharp has been hunting after the parties who recently shot the creek near Heber, but they have been cunning enough to keep in the unobtrusive background. The commissioner is also watching closely for fishermen who are catching trout for sale. It is lawful to sell only trout raised in private ponds.

Captain Warwick and other militiamen are endeavoring to interest wealthy citizens in the project of a new and better armory for the state troops in this city. The scheme is to have some one erect a building and lease it to the guard. The need of a decent armory is much felt, and the state does not seem to have the means to provide one.

Patrick Murphy and A. M. Thomas were tried before Justice Williams at West Jordan yesterday afternoon for being implicated in the Greek-American riot at Bingham Junction on the night of the 20th. Murphy was found guilty and was sentenced to 100 days in the county jail and Thomas was placed under $200 bonds to keep the peace. Asstant County Attorney Whitaker presented the cases.

Landlord G. S. Holmes of the Angelus hotel in Los Angeles has found it necessary to have an annex to his hotel on account of increasing business, and a deal is being made with the city to have the three new stories that are to be added to the old Chamber of Commerce building adjoining his hotel. Mr. Holmes is to extend $10,000 on a new grill room in the basement of the Angelus. It is to have marble decorations which alone will cost $2,000, and accommodations will be provided for 200 guests.

The board of public works has requested the paving company to remove its tar barrels and furnaces and engines from the intersection of State and South Temple streets, and the street railway company to clean up the street north of Eagle Gate. This is being done, leaving the intersection immediately east of the cross tracks like a country road until the city engineer and the city council can agree on what is to be done there.

A well known local insurance man who was married Wednesday evening was rudely imposed upon by his friends to the extent of being made to believe that a marriage license was in reality an insurance policy that he had got hold of by mistake. The confusion of the groom was so great that he fled from the ceremony, and the bride, who had been waiting for him, was left to the mercy of the officiating minister.

The street car company is finding that the fare is a costly institution. Hugh Buckley was caught by a car at Second and Third West streets Wednesday night, and carried to the station. The fare was $1.00, but the car company would not take the fare, and the car was left at the station.

REMAINS SENT TO BUTTE.

Mrs. Joseph A. Brown Will be Buried In That City.

Mrs. Joseph A. Brown of Melrose, Mont., died at the Holy Cross hospital Wednesday night, from stomach trouble, and the embalmed remains were shipped to Butte last night. The deceased was born in Pittsburgh in 1839, and on her marriage in 1872 to Gen. Brown the couple removed to this city, and then to Montana. She is well known in Salt Lake and leaves to mourn her death her husband, a daughter, May; Mrs. Frances Brown and a son, Joseph A. Jr., another son, Frank, who was for several years a student at All Hallows college in this city and won prominence by his prowess in oratory, was killed in Butte two years ago by touching a live wire at one of the mines. The body of the mother will be laid beside that of her son.

A CRIPPLE FOR LIFE.

For His Injuries Heber C. Walker Sues Bingham Mining Company.

Two damage suits, aggregating the sum of $27,350, have been filed in the district court against the Bingham Copper & Gold Mining company. Heber C. Walker, by his guardian ad litem, is plaintiff in one action in which $25,350 damages is asked for injuries received by plaintiff while in the employ of defendant on Dec. 7, 1902. It is alleged that young Walker was repairing some machinery when, through the negligence of defendant, a heavy piece fell upon him, breaking his hips and crippling him for life.

In the other action the boy's mother, Emma Walker, is plaintiff, and in the sum of $2,000 being deprived of the support which her son would have contributed had he not received the injuries complained of.

RANK HOODLUMISM.

Dr. Beattie's Residence Badly Battered By Boys.

The residence of Dr. J. Beattie, 652 East Second South street, was attacked by a gang of hoodlums about 2 o'clock this morning and the front door smashed in with a big rock. Two or three nights ago some of the front windows were broken, and Dr. Beattie thinks it is about time a stop was put to such practice. He has notified the police and they are working on the case.

Hot Weather Weakness.

If you feel fagged out, listless and lacking in energy, you are perhaps suffering from the debilitating effects of summer weather. These symptoms indicate that a tonic is needed that will create a healthy appetite, make digestion perfect, regulate the bowels and impart natural activity to the liver. This, Herbine will do; it is a tonic, laxative and restorative. H. J. Freegard, Proprietor, Grand View Hotel, Cheney, Kan., writes: "I have used Herbine for the last 12 years, and nothing on earth can beat it. It was recommended to me by Dr. Newton, Newton, Kan." See at Z. C. M. L. Drug Dept.

Tired Mothers.

It's hard work to take care of children and to cook, sweep, wash, sew and mend besides.

It makes a shop of the home—a shop, too, where sixteen hours make a day and yet there is much working over.

Hood's Sarsaparilla helps tired mothers in many ways—it refreshes the blood, improves the appetite, and assures restful sleep.

Grand Military Drill by Soldiers from Fort Douglas, at Liberty Park, June 30—4 p. m., Sunday School Reunion Day.

Tax on Babies.

Extreme hot weather is a great tax upon the digestive power of babies; when parents feel that they should be given a few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge, the children's tonic. It will stimulate and facilitate the digestion of their food, so that they soon become strong, healthy and active. See at Z. C. M. L. Drug Department.
