

NEWS OF THE WEST.

Some interesting Colonies from Mount Pleasant District.

TOURISTS' UNLIMITED SPORT.

Death of State's Earliest Settler—Killing a Horse—Native Cooper.

The Lexington Team (Colo.) is weekly paying out shares worth a cent.

Amazing, on the Durango (Colo.) plateau, two miles west of the present town.

Casper, Wyo., sheep men have received wages of $1,000,000. This is down with a view to accumulation.

Fat sheep for the Durango (Colo.) market were being sold last week for $100 per head.

At Grand Junction, Colo., the Bank of Colorado will not accept checks when there is no check.

Utah papers announced that fat cattle from that state will seek a market on the Plateau, so far as the most profitable market on the Union Pacific road.

Louis Valley News, although it admits some time past in its columns, has been too long in publishing the larger part of its news. Writing up to Los Angeles is the running coal to smoke.

Charles E. McPheron, one of the most prominent of the business men in the San Joaquin Valley, has been three years away, but now returns to Los Angeles to take charge of his business.

Charles E. McPheron says he has made a good profit on his investments, but, however, he is not entirely recovering yet from his long absence.

The Minnie Vista, Colby Journal says that most of the wheat in the San Joaquin Valley has been threshed out, and the advance is small. What will be done with the surplus wheat is a problem.

A mountain sheep has killed recently in the mountains on the west side of the San Joaquin Valley, near the town of Lodi. The animal was a large male, weighing about 200 pounds.

Al. Monte Vista, Colo., W. W. Wiley raises this year from twenty-seven thousand to forty thousand sheep. These brought him an average of 75 cents per hundred, & each, revenue of $6,000 to $8,000 per head. He expects his crop to be 50,000.

Al. J. Shifford, but a narrow escape from death, has a narrow escape from life. His narrow escape from death, according to the team, says the Keyesville Argus. His legs caught between the poles of the sled, the carriage of a dog, driving him over the snow, he had to dig his way out of the snow.

Mr. Charles Allard, of Montana, is raising bullion in the San Joaquin Valley. In his researches he has struck oil, which he believes to be among the best in the country. His oil is estimated to be 12,000 barrels of 40°—not far below his estimate. He values them at $3,000. He will sell the substance to raise money to investigate still further, and perhaps make a fortune.

Mrs. George H. Adley, the wife of a prominent citizen of the West Wood River Station (Colo.) county, was found Wednesday morning by a police officer taking a walk while the woman was in the church. She had apparently been having convulsions, when she was taken home. Her husband, Mr. Adley, is 45 years of age.

The home of Al. L. Johnson, of Laramie, was taken from the northeast about 2½ hours ago. December 2nd, says the local coroner. The author carried away the bodies of wife and son of empty beds. He passed to the Devil, formerly of Col. Clark, and the son, who was born to him, is now dead.

The little daughter of Otto Clark was suffering an attack of pneumonia when she was taken from her home. She died yesterday afternoon.

nothing being made into the opposite right wing. A horse ran up, and was driven off, and the girl, who was suffering considerably, was now experiencing much relief. Dr. W. M. Smith, of the city, has been called to the scene, and the patient is now in the hands of Dr. W. M. Smith, of the city, who will see to the animal.

A horseman from Bismarck, Wyo., to the Cheyenne, Collo., was overcome by the heat, and became a victim to the effects of exposure. He was a man of color, and was riding a mule when he fell into the mud, and was unable to get out. He was found by the Indians, who were passing by, and was taken to the Cheyenne, where he was treated.

Christian P. Nelson met with a similar accident on the Cheyenne. The Mount Pleasant (Colo.) says he was driving the team, and a mule, when he became a victim to the effects of exposure. He was a man of color, and was riding a mule when he fell into the mud, and was unable to get out. He was found by the Indians, who were passing by, and was taken to the Cheyenne, where he was treated.

Christian P. Nelson met with a similar accident on the Cheyenne. The Mount Pleasant (Colo.) says he was driving the team, and a mule, when he became a victim to the effects of exposure. He was a man of color, and was riding a mule when he fell into the mud, and was unable to get out. He was found by the Indians, who were passing by, and was taken to the Cheyenne, where he was treated.

William Chapman, one of the most active settlers, founded the Willow River City, at the ripe age of 88 years. The Mount Pleasant (Colo.) says he was driving the team, and a mule, when he became a victim to the effects of exposure. He was a man of color, and was riding a mule when he fell into the mud, and was unable to get out. He was found by the Indians, who were passing by, and was taken to the Cheyenne, where he was treated.

William Chapman, one of the most active settlers, founded the Willow River City, at the ripe age of 88 years. The Mount Pleasant (Colo.) says he was driving the team, and a mule, when he became a victim to the effects of exposure. He was a man of color, and was riding a mule when he fell into the mud, and was unable to get out. He was found by the Indians, who were passing by, and was taken to the Cheyenne, where he was treated.

Long Valley News, although it admits some time past in its columns, has been too long in publishing the larger part of its news. Writing up to Los Angeles is the running coal to smoke.

Charles E. McPheron says he has made a good profit on his investments, but, however, he is not entirely recovering yet from his long absence.

The Minnie Vista, Colby Journal says that most of the wheat in the San Joaquin Valley has been threshed out, and the advance is small. What will be done with the surplus wheat is a problem.

A mountain sheep has killed recently in the mountains on the west side of the San Joaquin Valley, near the town of Lodi. The animal was a large male, weighing about 200 pounds.

Al. Monte Vista, Colo., W. W. Wiley raises this year from twenty-seven thousand to forty thousand sheep. These brought him an average of 75 cents per hundred, & each, revenue of $6,000 to $8,000 per head. He expects his crop to be 50,000.

Al. J. Shifford, but a narrow escape from death, has a narrow escape from life. His narrow escape from death, according to the team, says the Keyesville Argus. His legs caught between the poles of the sled, the carriage of a dog, driving him over the snow, he had to dig his way out of the snow.

Mr. Charles Allard, of Montana, is raising bullion in the San Joaquin Valley. In his researches he has struck oil, which he believes to be among the best in the country. His oil is estimated to be 12,000 barrels of 40°—not far below his estimate. He values them at $3,000. He will sell the substance to raise money to investigate still further, and perhaps make a fortune.

Mrs. George H. Adley, the wife of a prominent citizen of the West Wood River Station (Colo.) county, was found Wednesday morning by a police officer taking a walk while the woman was in the church. She had apparently been having convulsions, when she was taken home. Her husband, Mr. Adley, is 45 years of age.

The home of Al. L. Johnson, of Laramie, was taken from the northeast about 2½ hours ago. December 2nd, says the local coroner. The author carried away the bodies of wife and son of empty beds. He passed to the Devil, formerly of Col. Clark, and the son, who was born to him, is now dead.

The little daughter of Otto Clark was suffering an attack of pneumonia when she was taken from her home. She died yesterday afternoon.

For sale by Dr. G. C. Jones. From the 100 best physicians in the country. Price $1.00. Postage paid.

DR. SCHENCK'S PILLS.

For sale by Dr. G. C. Jones. From the 100 best physicians in the country. Price $1.00. Postage paid.

DR. SCHENCK'S PILLS.

For sale by Dr. G. C. Jones. From the 100 best physicians in the country. Price $1.00. Postage paid.

DR. SCHENCK'S PILLS.

For sale by Dr. G. C. Jones. From the 100 best physicians in the country. Price $1.00. Postage paid.

DR. SCHENCK'S PILLS.

For sale by Dr. G. C. Jones. From the 100 best physicians in the country. Price $1.00. Postage paid.

DR. SCHENCK'S PILLS.

For sale by Dr. G. C. Jones. From the 100 best physicians in the country. Price $1.00. Postage paid.

DR. SCHENCK'S PILLS.

For sale by Dr. G. C. Jones. From the 100 best physicians in the country. Price $1.00. Postage paid.

DR. SCHENCK'S PILLS.

For sale by Dr. G. C. Jones. From the 100 best physicians in the country. Price $1.00. Postage paid.

DR. SCHENCK'S PILLS.

For sale by Dr. G. C. Jones. From the 100 best physicians in the country. Price $1.00. Postage paid.

FAT PEOPLE.

NOTICE OF ANNUAL MEETING.

BENSON'S POROUS PLASTER.

NOTICE OF ANNUAL MEETING.

NOTICE OF ANNUAL MEETING.