

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THEATRICAL.—Last night the great sensation play of "The Child Stealer" was repeated to a fair house. The acting of Miss Western in the scene in the vaults in St. Louis has never been surpassed, and it is doubtful whether it has ever been equalled, in the Salt Lake Theatre. Messrs. Graham, Margolis, Lindsay, Crowther, Graham, Hardie and Miss Lockhart played well, and the manifestations of applause were hearty and frequent during the performance of the piece.

To-night the beautiful play of "Green Tushes" will be presented, in which Miss Western will appear. Miami, the husband of the Mississippi, one of her best characters.

Mr. Herne, Miss Lockhart and the best talent of the company will appear.

POLICE.—Dennis McHale charged with being drunk and insulting a lady, was sent yesterday and fined fifty dollars for his attempts to introduce "civilization."

Not having the "collateral" about his person he was formally inaugurated an honorary member of the "chain gang" and awarded all the privileges belonging to that department of the city. Dennis, and others of his stamp, will learn by and by, if they live long enough, that their mode of bettering the moral condition of the women of Utah is not only "played out," but an extremely dangerous enterprise as evinced in the recent tragedies near Ogden.

James McNevin and Wm. Robinson, for hoisting on board more liquor than their tanks could accommodate, were each fined $10, and referred to the dictionary where they could find consolation.

Justice Clinton seems to stand up under all these tribulations with remarkable Christian fortitude for one of his age and tenderness of heart.

CHICKEN STEALING.—It will be well for our citizens to secure their chickens at night, as there appears to be a number of petty thieves prowling about who have a very decided taste for poultry. In the third ward, several families have had their hen roosts visited, in one instance broken open, and poultry stolen. A little attention paid to those who are found selling chickens may lead to the detection of the guilty.

THE BIG TUNNEL.—We learn from the shop Sharp that daylight was let through the big tunnel in Weber Canyon at half past six last Friday evening. Passengers on the U. P. R. R. will be thankful when it is completed, and thus avoid the dangers and discomfort of the temporary track now laid round it.

SNOW SLIDE AT SOUTH MILL CREEK.—Last evening about nine o'clock, a boy who had been to Gardner's upper saw mill at Mill Creek, reported at that settlement that a snow slide had buried the house at the mill with its inmates, consisting of two men named Wright and Stewart, who came to this city about three years ago, and a Mrs. Roberts of the Eleventh Ward of this city who was employed by the men as cook. About midnight a party of men started from Mill Creek, for the scene of the disaster, to rescue the sufferers. We will give further details as soon as they are obtainable.

THE SOUTHERN STATES.—There was a large audience at the Assembly Rooms last evening to hear Mrs. St. Clair's lecture descriptive of a tour through the Southern States. This lecture was, in our opinion, the most interesting of the course. Mrs. St. Clair's descriptions of life, scenes and society in the South were vivid and lifelike. The lecture was interspersed with interesting anecdotes, some of which were pathetic and others amusing. She described the everywhere visible effects of the late war as really deplorable. Farms, plantations and villages had been laid waste and were neglected and in many instances entirely forsaken.

Notwithstanding that the lecture was opposed to slavery, it was not prepared to place the blacks on a level with the whites. She could not conceal from herself that she entertained a feeling of repugnance at the very thought of mingling, on an equality, in a social capacity, with the colored race, notwithstanding that many of them were good intellect and highly educated. The lecturer was of opinion that if the dreaded event of a war of races should occur it would be occasioned by the instigations of corrupt politicians who pretended to have the interests of the negro at heart, but who in reality were their deadliest enemies. Mrs. St. Clair passed a high compliment on the better classes of the Southern people for the good breeding, civility, courage and general nobility of character which almost universally characterized them.

The lecture was listened to throughout with the most marked attention. The audience manifested their appreciation by frequent applause. On Wednesday evening next Mrs. St. Clair will again deliver her lecture of "Maiden, Wife and Mother." This was announced as the last occasion upon which Mrs. St. Clair will appear before a Salt Lake audience for some time.

ACCIDENT AT THE POINT OF THE MOUNTAIN.—We were pained to hear that a very serious accident occurred to Mr. Alva H. Hale yesterday near the point of the mountain that divides Salt Lake from Tropic Valley. It appears that Mr. Hale was coming to the city in his wagon, having with him his wife and child and a lady named Williams. Mr. S. A. Woolley was also coming at the same time and the two drivers took to racing. This frightened Mr. Hale's team, and it ran away, throwing him out. He was very badly bruised and cut, the loaded wagon going over his back. He has been taken to his home at Grantsville. Mrs. Williams jumped out of the wagon, in so doing broke one of her legs, just above the ankle, and it is feared has sustained other serious injuries. The runaway team was not stopped until it reached Black Rock. Mrs. Hale and her child who remained in the wagon were providentially uninjured.

FROM THE C. P. R. N.—Brother S. C. Case, of Springfield, just in from the C. P. R. R., says they are rushing things out there. The truck is laid and the cars are running to Tropic, Rock, about 180 miles from this city. The truck is being laid at from three to four miles per day. The distance between the two roads is now about 110 miles. Wood haulers are very busy in that locality, hauling wood for the company.
