origin of the m has not been definitely ascertained. It was discovered by Night Clerk Harry Mertz at 6:55 o'clock. He immediately turned in an alarm and summoned the bell boys and porters to arouse the guests. The flames appeared to come from the basement or engine room of the hotel, although the hotel management claims the fire originated in the store of the California Paper company on the ground floor of the building. The hotel employes worked valiantly in arousing the sleeping guests, who were barely awakened in

The flames spread with great rapidiand in 30 minutes from the time the building was ablaze. All of the guests were able to escape by way of the statiways and elevators, although the halls and corridors were densely filled with smoke and many were nearly Two women guests fainted, but were carried out in safety. The elevators were kept working and most of the guests from the four floors were taken out by this means. Finally the engines in the basement were shut down and the elevators stopped, the re-mainder of the people in the hotel making their way out by the stairways. Several attempted to re-enter the building and save their effects but the spread of the flames was so rapid that there was no chance. The Associated Press understands that orders have been issued for an uprising here, but the government's meas-ures seemingly render this impossible. No meetings, public or private, are al-lowed, which makes an assembly of more than five persons in a private lodging illegal. The city, in fact, was unnaturally calm on the surface, and a stranger dropping down the Nevsky Prospect this afternoor would have seen no evidences of ferthis afternoon ment. It was a bright, crisp winter day, and smart sleighs and equipages of the aristocracy, with the occupants cloaked in sables and other rich furs, were out in force. Only the sullen faces of the crowds of strikers on the sidewalks and heavy horses and foot patrols on every block looked ominous. If the plans of the revolutionaries to produce an uprising in St. Petersburg fail, as it is believed they will, an attempt certainly will be made to terror-ize the government by guerrilla war-fare, in which bombs will play the fare, in chief rol chief role. Chicago University Will Stick to Football as it Is.

ball as it Is. Chicago, Dec. 24.—Chicago university faculty officers have declared unquali-fieldy in favor of football as it is now played. At the awarding of "Cs" yesterday Dr. Goodspeed, the university secretary, ad-dressed the cootball squad and students. After announcing that he had no sim-pathy for the detractors of the game, he proceeded to an eloquent eulogy of the sport as it is played. "Football as it is now played is the greatest game ever devised." he said, in part. "It is not only a great game, but it develops the qualities a man needs most in the battle for life-resourceful-ness, alertness, self-control and game-ness, alertness, self-control and game-ness. I have no patience with the people who decry it as a brutal, gladiatorial sport. They speak only through ignor-ance or physical cowardice." Dr. Goodspeed quoted incidentally the case ef Cavanaugh, the famous old Maroon player, whose resource, courage and quick wit enabled him to save him self recently from sure death at Kenosha. Wis. self recently from sure death at Kenosha. Wis. Dean Halbert, chairman of the athletic board of the University of Chicago echoed Dr. Godapeed's sentiments. "A majority of those who criticise the matter seen the game and only read of its had points exploited in the press. "They are weak-kneed people to whom any idea of physical pain is abhorent. The physical discipline of football, the indifference to pain, the grit it develops recommend it to me. The battle of life is a hard, strenuous one, and the knocks one encounters are of a nature to dis-courage many. Football training makes men out of the boys. It develops the ighting instinct which makes a man face difficulties with football here. We are rasing a nation of strong men, not weakilings, in the west.
